NEARLY FIFTY AWAY FROM HOME

Definite Steps Toward Erection of a Boarding Home for Young Women to be Taken by Y. W. C. A.

CANVASS THE SITUATION

Twenty-two Young Women Employed by Business Houses and Same Number Work at Professions.

Definite action will be taken by the Y. W. C. A. board of directors at the April meeting of that body, for the erection of a boarding home for young women. The structure it has been proposed would cost between $25,000 and $40,000. Uncompleted plans provide that the building shall be two-stories, the lower floor to be used for the executive offices and the apartments for Y. W. C. A. work. On the second floor will be the boarding room suites for the employed young women of Keokuk who are living away from their homes. At a meeting of the directorate board of the association Tuesday afternoon, President Mrs. C. D. Street, appointed the committee of four who have been investigating boarding home propositions, a permanent body. The committee is composed of Mesdames H. C. Brown, J. W. Collier, Henry Hiuskamp and C. S. Pond.

Home is Needed.

A thorough canvass of the situation by the committee shows that there are 22 girls employed in business houses alone, who are working away from home.

Thirty-five letters were sent out by the committee and twenty-six of these received replies from heads of business concerns, bearing varied information.

It has been found upon further investigation that an equal number of young women are employed in the professions of dressmaking and other callings and are making their homes with private families. This brings the number up to almost fifty of those who are employed here and whose homes for the greater part, are elsewhere.

Will Seek Location.

The first active step of the committee will be to secure a desirable location for the boarding home.

The tract of ground across from the Young Men's Christian Association at the corner of Fifth and Blondeau seems the most desirable of several places under contemplation.

The owner of this is a Carthage party, Mr. O'Hara, who is in Chicago at the present time, but he will be visited with the idea of purchasing if terms can be arranged, upon his return.

Plans as yet are premature but officers of the association and the committee will understand thoroughly what is to be done by the time of the next board meeting.

For the first two or more years after the boarding home was built, the lower apartments, as stated, would be used for Y. W. C. A. purposes. Separate entrances would lead to the floor and rooms above and the boarding home would be constructed on plans that would make it exclusive of the association rooms.

Mrs. Streeter, president, approves the part of the plans of building a boarding home which were presented to her first at Tuesday's meeting and there is little doubt but what a needed structure for the accommodation of the young women here, will be erected some time soon.

Y.W.C.A. NOTES

Special music has been arranged for what will be the largest meeting of the year at the Y. W. C. A. this Sunday afternoon.

Johns Hauland, a prominent church worker, will address his audience on "A Man's Idea of a Womanly Woman." Little Miss Mary Cochran will sing, "I'll be a Sunbeam for Jesus." Mrs. Zinn will render "God Will Take Care of You," with violin accompaniment by her son, Earl Zinn, physical director of the Y. M. C. A.

All women of the city are invited to attend this vespers service which will prove a great, featured attraction.

Employment Bureau Soon Ready.

The employment bureau committee has completed the system for conducting that department in the association and the same was approved by the board of directors at the Tuesday meeting. The system will be installed as soon as the necessary printing of applicant's blanks, etc., has been finished.

Mrs. Lorecht has been secured to assist in the cafeteria department and Mrs. Waugh will continue as director of that department. Complete new china sets of white bearing the blue "Y. W. C. A." monogram will be in use in the dining room of the cafeteria by the first of April. New chairs and tables of attractive pattern will also be installed some time soon.

Current Events.

The educational department of the Y. W. C. A. take great pleasure in announcing their program for tonight's Current Event club, to which all wide awake people are invited.

Miss Clara Gertrude Fry, widely known in our musical circles, and ably competent to handle her subject, will speak on: "America's Modern Opera."

All persons interested in modern opera are following with great interest the success of Humperdinck's great work, "The Royal Children." Miss Eleanor Brown will tell a number of things about both composer and composition, which, in our hurried reading, we have not gathered for ourselves.

Miss Mary Fletcher will give a report of art, while Mrs. Robinson will contribute the latest science notes. If such a program is not largely attended, it is likely to mean that the citizens of our city are becoming intellectually lopsided.

A Warning—to feel tired before exertion is not laziness—it's a sign that the system lacks vitality, and needs the tonic effects of Hood's Sarsaparilla. Sufferers should not delay. Get rid of that tired feeling by beginning to take Hood's Sarsaparilla today.

is without doubt the most perfectly balanced, most easily digested food ever given to man. It is not flavored or compounded with anything—not a "patent-medicine" food—not a "pre-digested" food—just plain, simple, wholesome, steam-cooked whole wheat, shredded and baked. It is better than mushy porridges because you have to chew it, thereby getting from it all its rich, body-building nutriment.

Try it for breakfast with milk or cream (hot milk in Winter). Being in biscuit form it is easy to prepare a nourishing meal with it in a few minutes in combination with fresh or stewed fruits. Always heat the biscuit in oven to restore crispness before serving. Two Biscuits with milk or cream and a little fruit make a complete nourishing meal. Your grocer sells it.

SOCIETY

Herman Lodge Family Party Proved Fine Entertainment.
Hermann lodge No. 116, I. O. O. F. observed its fifty-third anniversary yesterday.

Last night in observing the natal day of the order, a program followed by a fine supper served by the Rebekah ladies and dancing and cards, proved pleasant pastimes for the members of the lodge and their families.

The reunion of the Hermann lodge was attended by nearly two hundred and the hours from eight to one were spent very enjoyably.

A program was rendered, Henry Pechstein, Noble Grand of the lodge, presiding. A portion of the numbers were in German, the opening ode, an able address by Albert Kiefer and the welcoming remarks of Mr. Pechstein.

The program as given follows:
Music—Orchestra.

Reliable Rheumatic Prescription

At this season many people suffer with rheumatism, which is likely to assume a chronic form unless carefully treated. The following prescription possesses great virtue and has been known to relieve and cure many of the most hopeless cases. Any good druggist can fill it. The true ingredients, and pure, must be used to insure success.

Iodide of Potassium	2 drams
Sodium Salicylate	4 drams
Wine of Colchicum	1/2 oz
Comp. Flid. Balsamor.	1 oz
Comp. Syrup Sarsaparilla	5 oz

Mix in a half pint bottle and begin by taking one teaspoonful after each meal, and one at bedtime; after the first week gradually increase the dose to two teaspoonfuls. While somewhat more expensive than ordinary patent medicines, it is really to be desired if results are the goal.

that reflects earnestness and honesty. He has a voice which is clear and true and soft to the ear, an acute memory, and an intense earnestness in what he believes to be the cause of right.

An illustration of his great memory is found in the debate between Gore and Hernando DeSoto Money, now a United States senator from Mississippi. Money was then a congressman and Gore was a lad of 20 years. Gore demanded a division of the time. Money replied: "I will speak as long as I please, you can do the same."

Money harangued the voters for three hours, never dreaming that Gore would attempt to reply at that late hour. Gore, however, waited patiently and then held the crowd for hours. He quoted the congressional record page for page and ridiculed his opponent unmercifully.

At the close, Money, thoroughly enraged, said: "If you were not blind I would debate you in another way." Quick as a flash Gore answered: "Congressman, blindfold yourself and march out." The challenge, however, was not accepted.

Comments from the press where Senator Gore has appeared: Springfield, Mass.: Senator Gore of Oklahoma, blind and eloquent, entertained the company with a wealth of poetic language utterly beyond the power of any Massachusetts orator today, and his rhetoric was a rapid flowing stream of natural grace and wit.

North American, Philadelphia, Pa.: But as for Gore, of Oklahoma, blind or seeing, matters not. The bond of manhood holds taut through all times and all people. Over the mountains and rivers and the plains the message of the east goes to Oklahoma: "Send back the blind man to the senate! America needs Americans! Praise God! We've seen a man this day."

Senator Gore will lecture on "Social Duty" at the Grand opera house Monday, March 13, at 8:15 p. m. This will be the closing number in the Y. M. C. A. Star course. Single admission 50c; reservations 25c and 10c. Seat sale opens at the Y. M. C. A. office Friday, March 10, 10 a. m.

MACOMB, March 7.—With a tag pinned on her faded dress with the words "E. S. Price, Augusta, Ill.," on it, an aged woman, Mrs. James Brown, of East St. Louis, arrived at Augusta. The old lady is totally blind.

Although her son had disowned her and sent her away to live upon the charity of strangers, the white-haired mother had nothing but words of praise for her boy. "He is a good boy, it's the drink, not my boy that's to blame," Mrs. Price, who formerly resided in this city, will provide a home for the unfortunate woman.
