Mothers' Afternoon at P. E. O. Chapter Meeting.

In a charmingly commendable and happy manner, tribute and respects were paid to the mothers of the members of Chapter U. P. E. O., at a meeting of the society, entertained Saturday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. E. M. Majors. The mothers' meeting hours were from 3 to 5 o'clock and a program conveying prettiness as well as homage to mothers in its character made the gathering one which will be remembered long by those who participated.

Mrs. Winona E. Reeves, national president of the P. E. O.'s, in speaking gave "A Tribute to Our Mothers." Miss Sadie Webb favored the company with a vocal solo and Mrs. E. L. McCoid spoke of "Juvenile Court Work."

Season of Busy Social Gaities Opens at Keokuk Country Club Saturday.

Irresistibly alluring in its tract of natural beauty, the Country Club each summer season become more attractive than the preceding one. It was with a splendid day for opening in an informal way, this pleasure haunt located in the suburbs of the city, yesterday. The usual course of games was resumed though months have elapsed since last the greens were in use, as if it had been but a week since croquet, tennis, golf, bridge and the other diversities that bring the glow and the jollification, were indulged in.

Luncheon was served at the evening dinner hour on the club porch and lawn. Last evening, the younger members of the Country Club enjoyed a dancing party, Agne's orchestra furnishing a program. The collation was the first of the newly arrived and welcomed warm weather season.

Many of Keokuk's Social Set at Slop-Seven Dance.

The ninth annual dance of the Slop-Seven Fraternity of the Carthage high school was attended by a large company of young people, Friday evening, among them about twenty-five from Keokuk, who enjoyed the pleasures of the affair. Agne's orchestra rendered the dance program and it was near two o'clock when the party concluded.

Those who were present from this city were: Misses Celestine Agnew, Laura Alton, Lillian Miller, Marie Green, Fannie McClure, Grace McManus, Madeline Narrley, Gene Gaston, Mary McGrath, Edna Adamson, Polly Morgan, Veda Alton, Frances Sawyer; Messrs. Frank Wilmering, Alvin Kraft, Geo. Hartel, W. E. Flannigan, Archer Miller, Earl Craig, Jack Ellsworth, E. A. Short, Ralph McGrath and Harry Horn.

Entertained Company on Her Twenty-fifth Wedding Anniversary.

A very delightful evening company was entertained at the residence of Mrs. James M. Allen, 819 Exchange street, last evening. About sixteen lady friends of Mrs. Allen were invited by the hostess to observe the passing of her silver or twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. Games of a social nature whiled the hours enjoyably away and select refreshments were served. Mrs. Allen received a number of elegant souvenirs of her wedding anniversary, friends sending and presenting these tokens as suitable and happy remembrances of the day.

Howell-Wilkins Wedding.

Thursday evening, May eighteenth, occurred the marriage of Miss Corda E. Howell and Mr. John E. Wilkins, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Howell, two miles west of this city in the presence of about fifty relatives and friends of the families of the bride and groom.

At eight o'clock the bride and groom entered the parlor and took their stand under an arch of wedding bells and smiles.

After the ceremony was performed by Rev. E. Rhodes, of Sandusky, congratulations were bestowed on the happy couple, the guests repaired to the dining room where a three course supper was served.

From eight o'clock until midnight the wedding guests made merry.

The parlor and dining room of the Howell home were decorated with carnations, brides' roses, smilax and fern leaves, the effect being very pretty and tasteful.

The bride is a very attractive young lady, widely known and highly esteemed. The groom is of the Valley and is a well known and respected citizen of that place.

Mr. Wilkins has prepared a neat little home near the powder works, where he is employed.

The young couple who are well known by a large circle of friends, far and near, have best wishes extended them for future happy wedded life.

Ever Been to Colorado?

No? Then there is an ideal vacation trip in store for you—one that will mean a complete change of scene and living conditions, as it should, to result most beneficially.

The grandeur of the majestic Rockies will inspire the mind; the picturesque beauty of forest and stream refresh the soul, while the dry, tonic, mountain air will rebuild the worn and faded body.

Don't take our word for it, but go and be convinced. It costs but little time or money. (I'll be glad to tell you how much) and you will be a thousand times repaid.

You have perhaps been planning a trip to Colorado for years. Make up your mind to do so, what to see and where to go, what to do, and contains a complete list of hotels, boarding houses and ranches, with their rates. Ask me about Estes Park, Colo., also.
