

The Delights In Baking With CALUMET BAKING POWDER

To fully appreciate the real pleasure of baking, buy a can of Calumet and as a test bake a batch of biscuits. See how light and wonderfully raised they come from the oven. Then break one of them open and note how thoroughly, evenly and fluffily the dough has risen. And the final test—the one that counts—butter and taste. This test will prove to you that Calumet is the most dependable Baking Powder for every purpose. It will prove its economy over the high-price trust brands and its great superiority over the cheap and big can kinds. For Calumet is highest in quality—and moderate in cost. Received Highest Award World's Pure Food Exposition.

Recital Was Pleasing.
Proud and pleased friends filled St. Francis de Sales assembly hall last evening when the musical program of Mrs. Marder's students of stringed instruments performed in a manner that spoke highly of the ability of the many young people but reflected the earnest efforts and successful training of her class by Mrs. Marder. The concert was the seventh annual one to be given and those attending were well repaid for their presence because of the meritorious work of the students and the selectness of the program rendered.

The program numbers, in two parts, appears below with the personnel of the players:

Nuptials of Miss Madeline Brown Announced.

Announcements have been received in this city of the marriage of Miss Madeline Brown Wednesday evening, mention of which was made socially in a previous issue. The announcements read:

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brown announce the marriage of their daughter Madeline to

Mr. Fred L. Winston Wednesday, the fourteenth day of June Nineteen hundred and eleven St. Joseph, Missouri.

CITY NEWS.

—Judge Henry Bank, sitting in equity cases in the grand jury room of the district court, has granted a divorce to Florence Means from James Means. Evidence has also been taken in the case of Sarah E. Wilson vs. Robert Napoleon Carter, and a decree granted quieting title to certain lots in Meadrose.

—Several Keokuk fishermen while on a fishing trip down the river near Canton the other day, thought they saw a floater. An evening or so later a notice appeared in a Quincey paper of the body of a person being found at that place or near there and it is supposed that the floating object the Keokuk men saw, was the same.

—Alexandria is making preparations for the home coming of former residents to be held July 11. Invitations have been sent out and residents of forty and fifty years ago will go back to Alexandria to the home coming. A number of Keokuk citizens will go back to the old town for the homecoming.

—The city of Keokuk will locate five barrels, each holding from fifteen to twenty gallons, along Main street and keep them filled with ice water for the accommodation of the thirsty pilgrims who visit that city, says the editor of the Donnellson Review. We were down there ourself last week and got terribly dry and couldn't locate a pump, and we are glad this matter has been attended to.

Principles of Justice.

ENTERTAINED BY JOHN W. BLAND

Colored Alumni of Keokuk High School Gathered at His Home To Banquet Last Evening.

TWELVE GRADUATES

List Was Not Complete But It Was Representative of the Intellectual Colored People of Keokuk.

The Colored Alumni Association of the Keokuk High school was entertained at the home of John W. Bland, 1604 Fulton street last evening, and many graduates who are now successful in various walks of life were present. Mr. Bland's family holds a unique record in that five of his daughters are high school graduates. The organization has been in existence for two years and the officers are Fred D. Fields, president; Alonzo Drainie, vice-president; Mrs. W. W. Gross, secretary; Mrs. Harry Ashby, treasurer.

The guests of the evening, including a number of others besides members of the association, assembled at 9 o'clock. The Bland home was decorated in yellow and white, the association colors. A splendid menu was enjoyed and following it a number of impromptu talks were made. President Fields presided as toastmaster.

The alumni present were the following:—Alonzo Drainie, Fielding Johnson, Fred D. Fields, Mrs. W. W. Gross, Mrs. Harry Ashby, Mrs. Stanley Johnson, Miss Della Bland, Miss Arlisha Fields, Miss Mabel Bland, Miss Aurelia Bland and Miss Myrtle Bland.

Among those present who are not members of the association were the following:—Mrs. Alonzo Drainie, Mrs. Fielding Johnson, Mrs. Fred D. Fields, Mrs. W. W. Gross, Mrs. Harry Ashby, Amery Johnson, William Rush, Horace Craig and Clifton Ashby.

AMUSEMENTS

Airdome Theatre.
Roy E. Fulton who whistles like a bird, led off the new show last night. As a whistler he can't be beat. In his imitations of different birds, musical instruments, etc., he is exceedingly clever and entertaining. He uses nothing mechanical whatsoever. With his lips and mouth alone he executes some difficult whistling stunts. His rendition of "Listen to the Mocking Bird" is great.

Fox and Blondin, the lady and gent singers and dancers, present an act full of gingery singing, dancing and comedy. Their suit case sketch with the songs "Business Means Business With Me" and "He'll Come Back," was the hit of their act.

Harvey Hull's "Yiddish Love" song scored a tremendous hit. One would think you were listening to genuine Yiddish. What dialect or what kind of a song cannot Harvey sing? Who knows? His illustrated song, "Stop, Stop, Stop," by Ted Synder, is full of life and is beautifully illustrated with slides.

The Indian picture, "Indian Justice," is a feature. It's the best Indian picture the Airdome has had this summer. The comedy picture, "It Served Her Right," or "How'd You Like to be the Ice Man?" kept the audience in an uproar.

All in all the Airdome's show is a good one, keeping up with the splendid standard they have set.

Everyone Greatly Pleased With the Pretty Theatre's Opening.

From every viewpoint, the opening of the Orpheum moving picture theatre was a splendid success last evening, the handsome new house being more than crowded at three performances. The audiences viewed the furnishings of the new picture home with evident pleasure and there were remarks of satisfaction from every one.

The bill last evening to open, was a good one. There was no noticeable delay in the performance and the show went "like clock work." An orchestra of three pieces with Miss Thero at the piano and Miss Reidy playing the solo accompaniments, the violin and cornet artists, the very best, the entertainment was excellent. Truman Scherer sang a love ballad which in itself is pretty and his interpretation called for encores.

Miss Edith Thero, the accomplished young lady pianiste, has a voice that is marvelously strong and her rendition of one of the solo numbers, called forth delighted ovations for her reappearance. Miss Thero possesses a wonderfully clear and beautiful voice and it is to be sincerely hoped by Keokuk amusement lovers, that she will continue to remain in Keokuk. The technique and talent she displays at the piano and her "playing the pictures" is indeed good.

WOULD BREAK WILL OF EMMA DAGGS

Objections Filed to Probating Instrument by Heirs at Law and Postponement is Brought About.

UNDUE INFLUENCE USED

It is Claimed That Ida S. Wayland Caused Will to be Made Leaving to Her the Property.

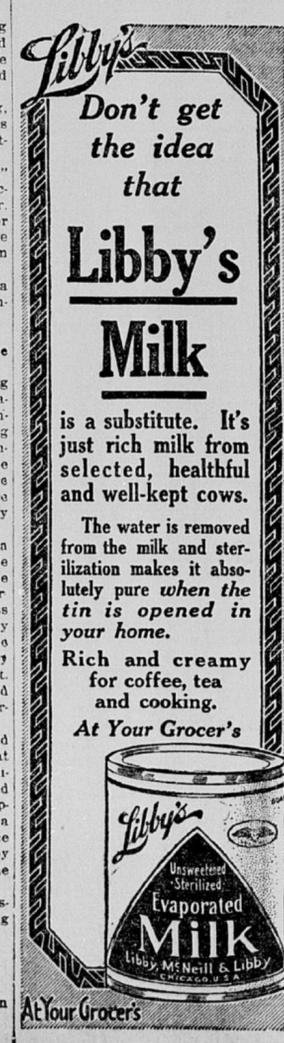

Claiming that she was of unsound mind and that undue influence was exerted by the one to whom the property was left, Hattie M. Kern, J. W. Masters, A. A. Masters and Dora Sherwood, as heirs at law, have filed objections to probating the last will and testament of Emma Daggs in the district court here. By the terms of the will the property is left to Ida S. Wayland, in whose care the testator was at the time of her death. The will was made on November 25, 1910, and Emma Daggs died on May 4, 1911. Yesterday was the day set for probating the will, but filing of the objections caused the postponement. In the objections the following allegations are set out:

That prior to making the said purported last will and testament of the said Emma Daggs, the said Emma Daggs had been legally declared to be of unsound mind, and that one Thomas W. Dorsey, was appointed as guardian of the said Emma Daggs, and was such guardian at the time that said purported last will and testament was made and executed by the said Emma Daggs.

That at the time, and prior to the making of the said will, Emma Daggs was insane and of unsound mind. That, for a period of three years prior to the death of Emma Daggs, she was in the care and custody of one Ida Wayland, and was during such time submitted to undue influence and pressure upon the part of Ida Wayland and Edward Wayland, her husband, as to the conduct of her affairs.

Books the True University.
"The true university of these days," says Carlyle, "is a collection of books." The man who is not brought into intimate contact with books in his youth, who has not learned to love them and how to use them, suffers a loss which it is almost impossible to make good.

Rev. George Giggler, Pastor, Today Announced Program for Afternoon of Sunday, June 25.

MANY WILL PARTICIPATE

Parade With Bishop and Speakers Will Leave Fifth and Main at 2:30 O'Clock, Fourth Degree Knights in Line.

The program for the laying of the corner stone of St. Mary's Catholic church on Sunday, June 25, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, by the Rt. Rev. James Davis, D. D., Bishop of Davenport, has been arranged by Rev. George Giggler, pastor. It will be as follows:

Meeting of societies at the K. of C. hall, corner of Fifth and Main streets at 2:00 p. m.

Parade at 2:30 p. m., along Main to Fourteenth street, thence to Johnson street.

Order of parade: Four marshals on horseback, Frank Ewers, Wm. H. Reinhold, Herman Meinberg, George Stahl.

Platoon of police. Brass band. Automobiles with officers, speakers and other prominent men.

Escort to the Rt. Rev. Bishop by the fourth degree Knights of Columbus in uniform.

St. Joseph's society, followed by other societies and men belonging to no particular society.

At the church, playing and singing of national hymn. Short address of welcome by the honorable mayor. Laying of the corner stone by the Rt. Rev. Bishop. Address by Father Foley of Quincy, a noted speaker and editor of the "Western Catholic." Remarks by Father Hoffman of Fort Madison, Senator McManus and Hugh L. Cooper. Singing of the Te Deum.

Japanese Advancement.

An ancient Japanese proverb had it, "Never trust a woman, even if she has borne you seven children." The Japanese are discarding this proverb, owing to western influence.

Government Type.

The type set in the government printing office last year would reach one and one-fifth times around the world. It is believed that something like a quarter of a mile of the printed lines was read.

Nearly Smothered.

Chandler, N. C.—Mrs. Augusta Lomax, of this place, writes: "I had smothering spells every day, so bad that I expected death at any time. I could not sit up in bed. I suffered from womanly troubles. My nerves were unstrung. I had almost given up all hope of ever being better. I tried Cardui, and it did me more good than anything I had ever taken. I am better now than I ever expected to be." Thousands of ladies have written similar letters, telling of the merits of Cardui. It relieved their headache, backache and misery, just as it will relieve yours, if you will let it try.

PERSONALS.

Mrs. L. Shay of Carthage is visiting at the home of Mrs. Ed. Finigan and Mrs. Nora August.

Kahoka Courier: Smith Calvert and Hiram Sherman were in Keokuk Monday viewing the water power construction. Mr. Sherman is from Newnam, Cal., and is visiting relatives in north Clark county.

Wyaconda News: Mrs. Levi Miller and son, Elsworth, of Keokuk, were called here yesterday by the serious illness of her sister, Mrs. F. A. Londenbergh. They will spend a few days with relatives in this city.

Attorney J. R. Fraley of Fort Madison was in the city yesterday attending court and meeting his many friends. He returned to Fort Madison on the evening train.

Deputy County Clerk O. R. Johnston returned to Fort Madison last evening after attending to official duties in this city.

Harry Ayers has gone to Chicago where he will accept a position.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. McLaury left last evening for Burlington. Mrs. McLaury will spend the summer with relatives there and on Sunday, Mr. McLaury will leave for Des Moines to become city passenger agent of the Great Northern railroad.

Old Beliefs Rudely Disturbed.

The old teachings of China and India established the belief in Japan that it was best that women be not noticed by others, that their duties were wholly domestic, and that appearing out of doors was unbecoming a faithful wife or dutiful daughter. Garden parties, dinner parties, balls and social calls are new importations from the west.

Escaped Death Thirteen Times.

John H. Rice of North Hempstead, L. I., on his thirteenth escape from death, the last time in an auto accident, remarked that he was a lucky man. Here are some of the things that have happened to him: Left leg cut off by train, shot out eye cleaning a revolver, lost an arm by fall from a tree, was saved three times from drowning.

Would You Gain a Pound

A Week for Three Months? Then begin taking regularly three grain hypo-nucleate tablets, which are made from a health-giving of ordinary year and combined with hypophosphites and an absorptive phosphorus. Physicians and chemists assert that this tablet is very largely used for increasing the weight and improving the nervous system because of its aid to digestion, assimilation and absorption. The food elements which go to make blood and solid tissue is retained when this treatment is regularly used for several months. Most physicians and apothecary shops supply them in sealed packages.

Effect of Imagination.

A man condemned to death was promised that if he would spend the night in bed in which a cholera patient had died and survived the experiment, his freedom would be given him. He spent the night in the bed and died the next day. But no patient had ever died in the bed, and the effect on the imagination and nerves of the condemned man really caused his death.

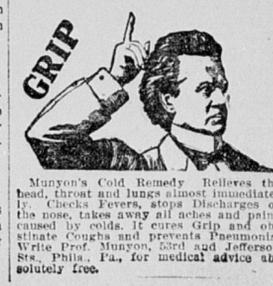

Stereotyped Answer.

The Professor—And to what is the cause of the fire which destroyed ancient Rome attributed? The Student (promptly)—To the careless handling of a cigarette. The Professor—Eh! Why, there were no cigarettes at that time! The Student (hopelessly)—Well, I never heard of a fire starting from any other cause.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.
