

Blake's Hitting Again Wins From Galesburg, 2-1—Other Sports

INDIANS ROUT PAVERS, 2 TO 1

With Hiram Stebbins Holding Indicator Walker Outpitches Fanning In Mighty Hurling Battle.

UMPS GOT AWAY ALL O. K.

Put Up a Sterling Exhibition as Indicator Man and Should Be Given Permanent Berth by Justice.

Hiram Stebbins got away with it. He umpired the Saturday game, gave perfect satisfaction except to Bert Hough of the Galesburg Pavers, and has pocketed a twenty dollar bill offered by President M. E. Justice if he would turn the trick.

James Brerton, the letter carrier, elated to do the job, was taken with a case of cold fever, and it was necessary to call Stebbins from the bleachers to fill the job. He responded to Umpire Fleming's call willingly, climbed into the arena, took up mask, breast protector and indicator, and worked in nine innings of as good a game as Keokuk fans have seen this season.

President Justice expected Stebbins to be ragged, but nothing of the kind happened. After the first inning or two, when he labored under a little nervousness, Stebbins worked with great success. In order to carry out his end of the program, however, it was necessary for the amateur ump to put Right Fielder Sampson out of the game, which he did with befitting dignity.

The largest week day crowd of the season was out. Keokuk won, 2 to 1, in a splendid pitcher's battle between Southpaw Walker and Charles Fanning, the Galesburg star. Walker won his third straight game for Keokuk, and Fanning lost his fifth straight for the Pavers.

Again it was Blake's bat that sounded a victory for the Indians. He clouted a single, with two men on bases, scoring both runs. The day previous, against Galesburg, he was directly responsible for the scores that gave Keokuk a win.

Game Delayed in Starting. The rain which fell during the morning and early part of the afternoon soaked the grounds thoroughly and the game was delayed until 3:45 o'clock. Many fans came out to see Brerton umpire, and there was considerable disappointment when he failed to appear. President Justice was there, however, and told Fleming to secure Stebbins in order that his scheme could be carried through.

Stebbins responded and within a minute's time was out before the large audience announcing the batteries to both the grand stand audience and fans perched in the bleachers. Walker showed great form during the first four rounds and was invincible. The first four men to bat were whiffed and not a man reached first base during the innings. In the last five one man hit in every inning and in the seventh Blausser sent a clean one over the left field fence for Galesburg's lone run.

Keokuk scored in the second and fifth. In the second inning Painter doubled to right field and was sacrificed to third by Reichle. Blake, under applause for his Friday's work, struck a fast one that Blausser was able to stop but not to handle, and the runner counted.

Reichle Paves Way in Fifth. Reichle started in the fifth with a triple to right field and Blake promptly singled to center, azing counting the runner. The inevitable Fanning worked in form except in these innings, striking out nine men during the game.

The excitement was intense in the last round when Galesburg had a chance to tie the score. Ens led off with a double to left field and Blausser sacrificed him to third. Scanlon hit a short fly to centerfield which was too close in to go as a sacrifice. Evans went out. Painter to Belt.

The game was played under protest. In the fifth inning Scanlon was on second base and Sampson was at bat with two down. The batter got two strikes on him, fouling one and having one called, when he began to argue with Umpire Stebbins. It grew so hot on the part of Sampson that Stebbins put him out of the game.

Higlefort came in to bat and struck out. Scanlon, on the third strike, ran toward third and the ball was played there unconsciously. The runner was chased down and tagged, making four outs. In the next inning there was some dispute as to who should bat. Stebbins directed Hough to the official scorer, who had Higlefort out on strikes. Hough claims this contrary to the balls and strikes called by Stebbins. Stebbins was right, and the protest will hardly

CREW NOW REST FOR BIG RACE

Everything in Readiness for Clash at Poughkeepsie Next Tuesday.

[Gate City Leased Wire Service.] POUGHKEEPSIE, N. Y., June 24.—Finishing their hard work of six months training, with a row this afternoon over the course at back-breaking pace, the five crews which will compete in Tuesday's regatta are resting tonight. From now on until the day of the race only light exercise will be the rule.

To experts on the ground the big varsity race seems to lie between Cornell and Columbia. They base their opinion on the fact that Cornell has already beaten Harvard, Yale and Princeton, while Columbia has decisively beaten the Navy. The Penna. eight has shown marked improvement in its rowing the past week. Syracuse and Wisconsin have also been doing well.

CAPT. ANGEL AND HIS GREAT CLUB

Company L of This City Will Play There in July—Other Games Arranged.

HAMILTON, Ill., June 24.—After a two weeks' cessation of hostilities Captain Angel has gotten together a bunch of amateur ball players who are ready to meet all comers. The captain is sanguine of holding his end up with the assistance of the local talent. Arrangements have been made for games for the next few weeks on the home grounds.

On July 21, Company L, of Keokuk smarting under the humblity of the defeat administered to them by our boys, are coming over with a determination to win.

On July 4 a strong team from Kahoka, Mo., will be here.

On July 9 Lomax sends a gang of ball players who think they can shut us out.

The arrangements already made insure four good games of the national pastime, and the management can assure the fans they will get their money's worth.

The team selected to uphold the flag for Hamilton consists of the following players: F. Higby, Thietten, Angel, Meckenson, David, Turner, G. Rickert, Prather, T. Higby, with a number of other players to draw from.

Mrs. B. Gets a Shot Home. "I never judge a woman by her clothes," observed Bilkins. "No," put in Mrs. B. sarcastically, "a man who gets to as many burlesque shows as you do wouldn't."

STEBBINS GETS HIS $20.00 BILL

Umpire Who Worked in Saturday Afternoon's Game Receives His Pay.

Herman Stebbins, who worked in Saturday afternoon's game against Galesburg, received $20 promised from Justice.

"It was the softest twenty bucks I ever earned," said Stebbins, "and I stand ready to go in and turn the trick again at any time."

Stebbins denied that he would enter the professional game as an umpire. The game was an easy one to umpire, but Hiram did it well.

PILE UP COUNT IN NINTH FRAME

Athletics Cruch Proud Red Sox By Sending Six Men Across in Last.

[Gate City Leased Wire Service.] BOSTON, June 24.—Flushed with the pride of yesterday's double victory the Red Sox again gave battle to the champion Philadelphia crew this afternoon and themselves tasted defeat. The score was tied up to the beginning of the ninth when the Athletics sent six men across the plate, winning 7 to 1. The score: R. H. E. Philadelphia . . . 010000006—7 12 2 Boston . . . . . 000000100—1 6 0 Batteries—Morgan, and Thomas; Hall and Nunamaker.

Experts declare the crews are more evenly matched this year than in many seasons. Harvard is not expected to gain the easy victory of last year and the two preceding regattas. Harvard's varsity eight outweighs Yale nearly eleven pounds to a man. The Blues varsity four outweighs the Crimson nine pounds to a man. The Harvard freshmen are heavier than the Ell's.

Wolgast has never appeared better fitted than for this fight. Already he is looking forward to a bout with Freddie Welch in September. "If I beat Moran," he said, "which I will—I will show Welch some kidney and stomach work that will open his eyes."

Experts declare the crews are more evenly matched this year than in many seasons. Harvard is not expected to gain the easy victory of last year and the two preceding regattas. Harvard's varsity eight outweighs Yale nearly eleven pounds to a man. The Blues varsity four outweighs the Crimson nine pounds to a man. The Harvard freshmen are heavier than the Ell's.

TELLS ON THE KIDNEYS

Keokuk People Have Found This to Be True.

The strain of overwork tells on the weakened kidneys more quickly than on any other organ of the body. The hurry and worry of business men, the heavy lifting and stooping of workmen, the women's household cares, tend to wear, weaken and injure the kidneys until they can no longer filter the poison from the blood and the whole body suffers from the waste matter that accumulates. The weakened kidneys need quick assistance. Doan's Kidney Pills are prepared especially for sick, weakened kidneys; tired, worn-out backs—have cured thousands of such cases. Convincing proof in a Keokuk citizen's statement.

John Conway, 718 South Fifth street, Keokuk, Iowa, says: "I strongly recommend Doan's Kidney Pills in return for the benefit they brought me. There was an extreme soreness across my back accompanied by trouble from the kidney secretions and I was unable to get relief until I took Doan's Kidney Pills, procured from Wilkinson & Co.'s Drug Store. The merit of this remedy has been fully proven to me."
