SEVENTH STRAIGHT AN EASY WIN, 6-2

Belt's Men Make It Four Straights Over Hannibal Through Long Hits and Visitor's Errors.

BOOTHBY SAFE ENOUGH Had Little Trouble Getting Away With Win, Although He Was Touched up for Ten Hits.

Belt's Indians made it four straights over Hannibal and seven straights in all by copping yesterday, 6 to 2, in a game in which Keokuk's long hits played a prominent part in the glorious win for the home boys.

A fair sized crowd welcomed the return of Belt's rapidly climbing dark skins and the home coming was very properly celebrated. Boothby was on the mound instead of Wingo, the youngster slated to pitch today, while Keyes, fresh from a suspension of ten days, worked for Hannibal and was ineffective.

The Cans got to Boothby for ten swats but about half of them were of the scratch variety. A like number obtained by Keokuk were of the solid kind, one being a double from Pennington's bat and three others being triples by Painter, Reichle and Blake, the hard hitting trio.

Keokuk got away for a two ply count in the first round after two down. Pennington cracked a double into safe territory in right center and Painter lifted a high fly to Swalm in right garden. Swalm, who looked far better on the mound, camped under the ball, but failed to hold the sphere. Pennington was safe at home and Painter had rounded first and was going to second. He stopped and scrambled back to first, but would have been nailed by Swalm had the ball been pegged true. Instead Painter was hit in the back by the ball. Reichle tore off a single to right field, and Painter would have been nipped at the plate in trying to count had it not been that Frankie dropped the throw.

Keokuk scored again in the third on Painter's triple followed by Reichle's sacrifice fly.

It was not until the fifth that Boothby loosened up sufficiently to permit a run or two. In this round his slants were bombarded, but the hits were not of the clean cut type. Beckley singled and Swalm scratched one through for first base. Frankie lifted a bunt to Boothby and Keyes was out on a foul to Cavanaugh. Prospects for a shut out this inning looked bright, but Bagnall spilled the beans by clouting a safe one to center field. The hit was a roller and Beckley should have scored. Reichle was played in close and came in for the ball, getting in front of it just back of second base. He booted and Beckley, who halted for a moment on third, came home. Jacobson scored the next runner by a fast one through Pennington.

Danger threatened in the ninth when Walsh and Beckley hit, but Frankie was whiffed and Adams, a pinch hitter, went the same route. The score:

$2,500 BEAUTY WAS HIT HARD

Mogridge Pounded for Twelve Hits by Kewanee and Galesburg Lost, 7 to 6 in Free Hitting Game.

HAWK PITCHES GOOD Went Route Safely Against Monmouth Winning 5 to 2—Muscatine Won From Ottumwa.

KEWANEE, Ill., June 30.—Kewanee won an exciting game from Galesburg in the ninth inning. Pressy, first up, doubled to right; McManus sacrificed Pressy to third and Kilpatrick ended the pastime with a single over second and the Boiler-makers carried off the 7 to 6 honors.

Mogridge, who had heretofore been invincible for the Boiler-maker batters was "pickings," and in the second, third and ninth innings he was badly mistreated. With a five-run lead Dietrick blew up in the sixth and before he was derrickted the score was tied. Pressy never budged an inch and led his team mates to victory.

Stirred to action by newspaper censure the directors of the local club have made efforts to strengthen the team. Johnny Warner, who lives at Geneseo, in the same county with Kewanee, was signed. He was the Southern league's leading second baseman last season, but could not go back on account of the climate and Kewanee negotiated for his release. Patterson, last year with Quincy, leading batter of Central Association, played center for Kewanee in place of Dacey, who was released. The score:

Hawk is Invincible. MONMOUTH, Ill., June 30.—The Browns returned home yesterday afternoon for a three days' stay to entertain the Pathfinders and the opening party resulted in a victory for the visitors by the count of 5 to 2.

Hawk was on the hill for the Pathfinders and he looked good, allowing but four hits and in only one inning did he allow a hit when it meant a run. Lage sending two over the register with his double in the seventh after the visitors had amassed all of their five. Companion started the game for the locals, but the high wind blew his slow ball away from the platter and as a result he could not work with his usual craftiness. He walked the first man, then allowed three hits. Lamb's double being the last and resulting in three runs being counted before the side was retired. Two hits and an out resulted in one more in the third and after that Hardgrove assumed the task of taming the visitors. He succeeded in all but the seventh frame and then the visitors counted their final run, thanks to Mr. Mapel, who refused to Jack Grogan Comes Back. MUSCATINE, Ia., June 30.—It was "Happy Jack" Grogan's day and Ottumwa lost 3 to 1 in a great contest. Muscatine hit Noyes freely and profited on both errors of Ottumwa. Grogan had Ottumwa faded at all stages, striking out Senno and the other heavy hitters when it counted. Gard was the only one who could solve his delivery yesterday, and he got three of the four safe drives, and one of those was decidedly scratchy.

Jack Wainer to Kewanee. KEWANEE, Ill., June 30.—John Wainer, leading second baseman with Memphis in the Southern league last year, whose home is at Geneseo, was signed to play second base and outfield for the Kewanee Central Association team for the rest of the season. Outfielder Patterson of Quincy joined the club today.

COAST PRODUCES GREAT PLAYERS

Fine Climate of California Sends Many Ball Players to Big Leagues to Become Great.

PING BODIE AN EXAMPLE Chicago Sox Outfielder is One While Many of the Clubs Have Other Shining Lights.

Big trees, fine climate and gold are not the only things that California is noted for. Hardly a year goes by that the Pacific coast does not turn loose to the big leagues a crop of ball players who make good. In fact, very few of them are turned back. What is more, the Californians who are shipped to the big leagues get in the limelight right off the bat. They seem to develop into the kind of stars that the fans want to see every time they appear in any city. Scouts skip about all kinds of leagues and get ball players, who are tried out only to be sent back, but the golden west sends them on and they stay.

The New York Yankees have five. Chase started out there where they have fine orchards and all kinds of other fruit. Harry Wolter, who covers right field for the Yanks is another. Otis Johnson came from out that way. Then the Yankees have Wilkinson and Fitzgerald, also from the Golden Gate city. Lynch was another who came from that country, although he has been turned over to the Bridgeport club.

East Has the Most. The Boston Americans have some on their list, too, who are good enough to keep on the big league circuit. There are Harry Hooper, Lewis Madden, Pape, Moser and Hall.

The Red Sox always were strong for the California players. Owen Taylor makes a trip out that way every year with the intention of landing some good material for big league shipment. Connie Mack is not very strong with California players, but has just secured Leonard of St. Mary's college, and it is rumored that the player will surely make good.

Washington has Johnson, who is one of the star pitchers in big league baseball. In addition to Walter Johnson, the Washington club has Street, Groom and Gray, and they are all making good in the American league. The Cleveland club is well supplied with players from the coast. It has Gregg, who is touted as one of the best pitchers ever turned over to the big leagues from minors. They have also Krapp, Olson, Easterly, Fisher, Graney and Harkness. The Naps think all these players will be the goods.

Bode is One Star. Ping Bode, who is getting a great big send-off in the American league as some swatter and fielder, is another from the coast. He is with the Chicago club, as are Zelder and Dougherty, who were also in California and came from that baseball country.

The Tigers can only boast of one player, but Jennings thinks he has a fine young pitcher in Livelye from the coast, who is making good for the Detroit nine. Bobby Wallace has Meyers, W. Hogan and Hallman with the Browns, and seems to be well pleased with those players, and, what is more, Stange is well known in that part of the country. So California takes the cake when it comes to landing players who make good in the big leagues. Ball players who are given trials from all kinds of minor leagues come and go, but when the players from the Golden Gate country strike the big league towns they stay around and keep their uniforms in the big league lockers.

SEMI FINALS IN STATE GOLF PLAY

Sheehan, City Champion of Des Moines Plays Worth and Champion Rider Will Meet Adams.

OTHER GOLF TOURNEYS Simpson and McNamara Will Fight It Out in Western Open—Evans Through in Britain.

DES MOINES, Iowa, June 30.—Warren Dickinson, former state golf champion, was defeated by William Worth, in the third round of the championship flights of the state golf tournament here.

William Sheehan, city golf champion, defeated Sowers, 7 and 6; Adams defeated Vorse, 8 to 7, while Rider, present state champion, defeated Middleton, of Davenport 6 and 5 the last out of town man to compete in the champion flights.

In the semi-finals today Sheehan will meet Worth, and Adams will meet Rider.

Simpson vs. McNamara. GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., June 30.—Bob Simpson of Kenosha and Tom McNamara of Boston will fight it out for the western open golf championship at the Kent Country club here today as a result of the semi-finals yesterday. Simpson defeated Jack Croke of Westward Ho, 4 and 3, in thirty-six holes, while McNamara had to go the full distance to get the decision over Wilbur Oakes of Detroit, winning his match at the thirty-sixth hole, 1 up.

Simpson had a lead of five at noon, and kept within one of it in the afternoon. McNamara was 3 down at noon and put up a beautiful uphill fight in the afternoon for his victory. Croke was never better than even with Simpson during the morning round. Simpson holed out the first in 4, making a good approach putt on his third, holing his fourth. Croke drove well, but pulled his second to the left, was short on his third, missed his putt and took 5.
