

WARSAW AUTHOR PASSED AWAY

F. Maire Died at an Advanced Age and Was Buried From Church This Morning.

LUMBER YARD SOLD

Automobile Party in the City Sunday on Tour From Donnellson to Quincy, Illinois.

WARSAW, Ill., Aug. 14.—J. A. White, Jr., the lumberman, has purchased the plant of the Warsaw Lumber Co., and will operate the two yards. The new purchase is just across the street from his mill.

The Warsaw Bulletin issued an illustrated supplement this week, in form and size a duplicate of the first issue of the paper many years ago.

Mrs. M. E. Wolfe, accompanied by Miss Bessie Powell, left today for Chicago, to buy her fall millinery stock.

The failure of the electric light Saturday evening, caused the closing of Dreamland, so the moving pictures of the Passion Play could not be repeated.

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Brinkmann have returned from an extended visit to their son, Harry, in Chicago.

The Baraca class of the Presbyterian Sunday school greatly enjoyed their visit to the Christian church Sunday school, yesterday morning.

Evelyn Lemuel Stevens of the U. S. navy, has been promoted to lieutenant at a salary of $2,000 per year.

Chaplain John E. Dallam of the 12th U. S. infantry has been promoted from the rank of lieutenant to that of captain.

Warsaw Cubs beat Duffy's Colts of Keokuk, 8 to 4 on the fair grounds Sunday.

F. Maire died last week at an advanced age, after a long illness from cancer. He was a man of some learning, and was the author of several scientific books. He leaves a family. His funeral occurred this morning at 10 o'clock from the Church of the Sacred Heart.

Warsaw was visited on Sunday morning by an automobile party of four machines, about twenty people from Donnellson, Iowa, headed by August Sell, the cars being in charge of Chas. Magerkurth, H. G. Kirchner, Arthur Hirschler and Jacob Schilcher.

CITY NEWS.

—Don't miss hearing Miss Irene Goldberg, Cretores' Band Concert Singer, at the Orpheum tonight.

—A marriage license has been issued to Albert High and Rose Richards a couple residing at Sugar Creek.

—Glenn H. Martin, of Santa Ana, Calif., who recently qualified for an international aviation pilot's license, is an Iowa boy and his accomplishments are of interest and pleasure to his old Iowa friends. Martin is about twenty-five years of age, and was born near Creston, Iowa. One of the most interested spectators at Martin's successful aeroplane flights was Dr. H. E. W. Barnes, who has known the young aviator as long as anybody, having officiated at the time of his birth. Dr. Barnes is quite well known to a number of the older Keokuk physicians, as he was for many years one of the leading physicians of the state and on one occasion delivered the commencement address before a Keokuk Medical College graduating class. Martin's aeroplane is of his own construction.

—Phil Erhardt, who returned home yesterday from a two weeks' stay in Rochester, N. Y., says Hughie Miller, former Keokuk baseball player, is delivering in great style for the eastern league club. Mr. Erhardt watched Hughie in a number of games and is of the opinion that Miller will not be out of the majors long.

—Copy for the next Water Power bulletin, which will be No. 3, is now being prepared. The bulletin will be out about September 5.

—$5,000 for six lots, or approximately $800 a lot, was the price paid by Stone and Webster to Frank W. Swan for his property at the corner of Nineteenth and Bank streets, which was recently purchased as a site for the new car barn. The deed was filed in the recorder's office today.

—A marriage license was issued today to Thomas June Truslow of Keokuk, and Etta May Starr of Croton, Iowa.

—Justice Leindecker fined a man and wife this morning for disturbing the peace of the Keokuk Country club members Saturday evening. The woman, who was the real offender, was sent to the county jail for thirty days in default of payment of a fine, and the man paid his fine of $1 and cost and was released. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Winkle were driving home and it is presumed both had imbibed too freely. Down in front of one of the small houses near the Country club they stopped in the midst of a heated argument and grew so boisterous in their profanity that several of the club members went to send them away. They continued their noise, however, and the patrol was sent for. Officers met the couple driving in.

—Suit for the foreclosure of a mortgage on a promissory note was brought in the district court today entitled O. V. Davis vs. Riley Shelton and Sylvia Shelton. The amount of the note is $367.

—An information was filed in the court of Justice John Leindecker this morning, by Fay Carter, a negro, charging Hattie Kirby, a denizen of Reg Alley, with malicious and felonious attempt to do her great bodily injury by striking her, Fay Carter, over the head with a blunt instrument, presumably a bottle. The plaintiff claims that she was streaming with blood after the attack. The Kirby woman was arraigned this morning, plead guilty and was fined $5 and costs.

—William Chance, formerly an employee of the powder works at Moor, died this morning at his home, Sand Prairie, from consumption of the bowels. The deceased was 47 years old. Mrs. Chance, the wife, passed away about twelve years ago. One son survives.

FATHER OF E. E. WALKER DEAD

Old Resident of Keosauqua, Van Buren Co., Operated on Here Seven Weeks Ago.

This morning at the home of his son, E. E. Walker, P. E. Walker, a resident of Keosauqua, passed away at 10 o'clock following the shock of an operation seven weeks ago, in St. Joseph's hospital. A week ago the deceased was taken to the home of his son at 800 High street, and his condition has gradually declined.

Peter Edward Walker was born at Libbyville, Jefferson county, this state, and had lived until next October 4th, would have passed the fifty-seventh year of his life. Mr. Walker had lived in Keosauqua the greater part of his life though he was well known in Van Buren and Lee counties, having been recorder of the former a number of years ago. During the past years of his life the deceased has been engaged in the realty and insurance business. He was a member of the Methodist Episcopal church of Keosauqua.

The body will be taken to Douds-Leando tomorrow evening where funeral services will be held on Wednesday.

Those who survive are the wife, Mrs. Ola Walker, two sons, Edgar Erwin Walker of Keokuk and Floyd Andrew Walker of Ottumwa, and daughter, Miss Bertha Walker. A brother, W. N. Walker of Keosauqua, and sister, Mrs. A. K. Parsons of Douds-Leando, and two grandchildren are among the bereaved relatives.

COVERED WAGON CAUSES RUMORS

Marshalltown Man Drove to O'Bleness Place at Des Moines Bridge and Tongues Wag.

Rumors of a startling turn were afloat in this vicinity since Saturday, though particulars were not learned until explained by one of the principals today, John O'Bleness, who lives near the Des Moines river bridge.

Saturday noon, a man whose name is Berghammer, drove up to the O'Bleness home in the Des Moines valley, and asked Mr. O'Bleness to keep his team until he should return from Marshalltown, his home. Tuesday at noon, on the Rock Island train. The owner of the team has been driving over the country, repairing stoves and doing other work, and Mr. O'Bleness kindly consented to care for the horses and outfit until the Marshalltown man should return tomorrow.

More than thirty years ago, some men drove to the O'Bleness place, camped there one night and the next day went away in their covered wagon. Later, the body of a man who had been murdered before the party crossed the river at Alexandria, was found buried between Alexandria and Kahoka.

Presuming that the present case of driving to the O'Bleness home in a covered wagon and asking the man of the house to care for the equipment, started the rumors that something was wrong, but Mr. O'Bleness dispelled all such thoughts today.

STIRS UP SENTIMENT OF SOME ONLOOKERS. Scotchman Refused to Give Negro Dog Catcher Drink, is Report and Arrest Follows.

Some sentiment was stirred up Sunday evening about 5 o'clock, when "Scotty" O'Neill, a Scotch carpenter, well known in the fifth ward, was taken to the police station in the police patrol by Asa Cutwright, the colored dog catcher of the city.

Cutwright, it is reported, wanted a drink of whiskey out of a bottle that O'Neill had and the Scotchman refusing to be liberal, the negro phoned for the patrol and had the Scotchman taken to the lock-up from where he was released about an hour afterward. Onlookers to the scene say that the deal was not pulled off right.
