MONMOUTH HOLDS KEOKUK BACK

Galesburg Would Have Been Over Taken Yesterday had Not Browns Come Forward With a Victory.

PITCHERS HURL LOOSELY

Swears and Murray Allow Only Six Hits, But Were Wild—Keokuk Had Only One Good Inning.

(Special to The Gate City.) MONMOUTH, Ill., Aug. 29.—The Monmouth Browns, struggling hard to retain their hold on leadership of the second division, put a crimp in Keokuk's third place aspirations by defeating the Indians, 8 to 4, in a loosely played game. Galesburg lost also, however, and Keokuk is still only one full game in the rear, while Monmouth is only one game ahead of Kewanee. The wildness of Swears and Murray and timely drives by the Browns, combined with a weakened defense, enabled the home boys to grab a victory on only six hits and score eight runs during the contest. Swears allowed five bases on balls and Murray passed two men, piling the sacks high at a time when the Monmouth men were able to deliver necessary hits. Johnson's homer in the fifth with two men on was the feature, as the ball did not leave the grounds.

The seventh was a bad round for Swalm, for after one was down, Belt poled a single, followed by an error by Long and two more singles by Sloan and Pennington counted four runs. Reichle was the hitting man for Keokuk, getting three bingles in four times up. The score:

HOME RUNS INSIDE PARK

Three of Them Were Made in Muscatine-Kewanee Game, Which Boilermakers Won, 11 to 9.

GALESBURG, Aug. 29.—Galesburg played sand lot ball behind Mitchell yesterday and Ottumwa won, 8 to 5. Mitchell pitched good ball and with decent support could have won his game. Galesburg knocked Hughes from the slab in the first and Hilgefort developed a streak of wildness in the eighth inning, hitting two men. Egan then yanked him, and Jimmy Wall finished the game, holding the Pavers safe, after passing two in the ninth inning. The score:

Three Home Runs Made. KEWANEE, Ill., Aug. 29.—Kewanee and Muscatine engaged in a furious batting fest, and before the melee ended Kewanee had used Pitchers Ashley, Drohan and Saxe, while Muscatine forced Boothby and Walters to their limit without success. Three home runs, all inside of the park, featured the game. None of them were by any means clean, but they passed from the sight of Umpire Kennedy and he declared himself in favor of the home run. In the ninth inning Muscatine made a desperate rally and counted three runs, and had the bases filled up when Saxe fanned both Hart and Boothby. The score:

Easy for Burlington. BURLINGTON, Iowa, Aug. 29.—By hitting Mr. McGee of Hannibal all over the lot yesterday Burlington won the first game of the Missouri series by 9 to 4. The Cannibal finger evidently had an off day. He walked seven men, hit one with a pitched ball and was credited with an error and a wild pitch. Willis, who was taken out early in the Sunday game with Keokuk, was on the mound for Burlington and was responsible for only two of the visitors' runs, the first pair being due to errors by his support. Only 180 fans were present, which is hard to account for, seeing that the present series is the last in Burlington and the Pathfinders still have a chance for the rag.

THE BEST KEOKUK HAS EVER SEEN

Roussel, Now Performing Here, is a Remarkable Athlete and Strong Man. It is very seldom that sporting page space is given over to report the clever acts that are seen from time to time at local amusement places, but today for the first time this season the sporting editor feels called upon to comment upon the act of Russell, who is performing at the Alrodome. Roussel styles himself as the perfect athlete and it is surely no misnomer. From the athletic standpoint, Roussel is the best seen in Keokuk for a long time.

He opens his act with an exhibition of the wonderful development of the upper part of the body. With his chest and arms bared he contracts his muscles until every one of them can be seen. The muscles gather in hard knots all over him. The muscle development of his back is unusual. From this exhibition, Roussel turns to a display of strength and spectacular work on the rings and trapeze, and in this work his great strength enables him to do levers, dislocates and other difficult feats with the greatest ease. His best work is in the stunts in which strength plays an important part. He does one or two spectacular exercises, but they are not difficult.

The Pennant Outlook. Burlington Hawk-Eye: Burlington and Ottumwa both have nine more games to play. In order to win the pennant Burlington must win three more games than Ottumwa does. If Ottumwa should drop the two remaining games with Galesburg, which is not at all impossible, and should lose one of the four games it plays with Keokuk, Burlington, by winning nine straight games, would win the flag. Or should Ottumwa lose one to Galesburg and two to Keokuk, with Burlington winning nine, the latter would end in the lead by half a game. It is hardly probable, however, that Ottumwa will lose three more games than Burlington, so the chances are very good that Ned Egan will win his third pennant in the Central Association this season.

FIRST ROUND OF TENNIS TOURNAY

Ralph Joy, Country Club Champion, Was Defeated by Laurence Parsons, as One of Day's Surprises.

HIGBEE BEAT DADANT

Most Spectacular Match of the Day Was Played on Country Club Courts Before Large Audience.

The defeat of Ralph Joy, Keokuk Country club champion, by Laurence Parsons, and the brilliant match between Higbee of LaHarpe and M. Dadant of Hamilton, which the former won, featured the opening day's play in the "I-M-P" tennis tourney yesterday. Joy's defeat was a great surprise, while a hot match was expected between Higbee and Dadant. Today drawings for the doubles were made and this evening a business meeting will be held. Several players won by default, among them Edgar Musselman of Quincy, who is considered the strongest player in the tournament.

The Parsons-Joy match was played on the Joy court and took three sets to decide. Parsons put up a clever game, winning the first and third in close play. The second was taken easily by Joy, 6-1.

Star Match at Country Club. The Higbee-Dadant match was played before a fair sized gallery at the Country club and was by far the best match of the day. Higbee played well in the first set, winning, 6-2. He lost the second, 4-6, and then the two men settled down in a great battle for supremacy. Higbee won only after the hardest kind of a struggle 9-7. Higbee was remarkably steady throughout, although he was played fairly off his feet by the speed which the former Illinois athlete displayed at times during the match.

Warfield, the Quincy crack and teammate of Musselman in the double, showed his class by outclassing Cephas Harrison and winning in a very decisive manner. He scored the only love set of the day and allowed Harrison only one game in the second set. The strong play of Warfield makes the Quincy team the favorite in the doubles.

It was announced today that C. R. Joy, present city champion, will be unable to continue longer in the tournament. He goes east Wednesday evening. Joy's chances appeared to be rosy, and he was picked as at least a runner-up.

FIFTY-FOURTH NOW IN CAMP

All Companies of the Regiment Reported Yesterday and First Day Was Busy One for the Militia.

ROUTINE BEGINS TODAY

Guard Mount and Battalion Drills This Morning and Big Dress Parade at 6 O'clock Tonight.

OTTUMWA, Iowa, Aug. 29.—With the arrival of Company K of Grinnell at 3:20 yesterday afternoon, the entire Fifty-fourth regiment of the Iowa National Guard went into camp at Camp Bishop in Wildwood Country-side. The small army of men was busily engaged in setting up camp and laying off the little city for the ten days encampment. By last evening every tent was up and the camp placed under military rule.

The twelve companies had been arriving in the city since early Monday morning, the first two, Company M of Fairfield and Company H of Burlington coming in special cars on Burlington No. 3 at 7:35 a. m. They marched directly to the camp and with this four mile tramp their first real taste of camp life began. Company G, of course was on the ground early, having left the armory at 6:30. The Fort Madison company arrived in Ottumwa at 11:50 and Davenport, Muscatine, Washington and Iowa City came in on the Milwaukee a short time before. The other companies arrived in the afternoon.

WESTERN ASS'N. TO REORGANIZE

Tom Hayden's League Again to be in Game With New Clubs in the Circuit. Upon arriving at Camp Bishop the militiamen are lined up just inside the entrance for inspection by Col. Howell. From him they receive their general instructions and are directed to the street of the little city that has been assigned to them. Among the instructions received from Colonel Howell is one that all will remember during their ten days of camp life. They will be permitted to come to the city every night as long as they conduct themselves in a gentlemanly manner, but as soon as a report of any trouble comes to Colonel Howell, the entire company or companies of which the offenders are members will be forbidden to leave camp at night.

Supplies Were Late. The first day of camp gave the soldier boys a taste of the trials and troubles of real army life. They were all out of their beds early in the morning and the labors of the forenoon whetted their appetites. When mess time came the hungry men came drifting in around the mess tent, endeavoring to get a line on the pork and beans and hardtack. But the cooks were busy with other tasks besides those of the commissary department and no food was in sight. Inquiry resulted in the discovery that the food supplies had not yet arrived and from all prospects it would be the middle of the afternoon before rations could be issued. Not a few of the militiamen went over the hill where they could watch for the wagons bearing the grub and it was not until after 1 o'clock that their vigil was rewarded. This meat dinner about 2:30. But when the rations did come no time was lost in getting away with them.

This morning the routine of the camp commences. Guard mount was held at 7:45 and when visitors arrive at camp they will find its borders patrolled by a heavy guard. Battalion drill will begin at 9 o'clock. Three battalions composed of four companies each will go through the maneuvers which will last for two hours. The first battalion under Major Ball will be composed of Companies K, B, I and D; the second battalion, Companies A, C, H and L; and the third of G, M, F and E. The maneuvers of these squads will prove a great treat for all visitors as it will show the action of the large armies in time of war.

Battalion drill will also be held during the afternoon. At 6 o'clock in the evening one of the prettiest sights of the encampment will take place. Dress parade of the entire regiment will be held and the movement of the entire six hundred men will prove a wonderful sight to those who have never witnessed an encampment before.

would do is to throw a game. Never before has his sportsmanship in this regard been questioned, and The Gate City can truthfully say that there is absolutely no foundation for the report.
