

TRANSFER BOAT IS COMING SOUTH

"B. F. Yoakum," Built by the Dubuque Boat and Boiler Works, is on Way to Keokuk This Week.

REACHES HERE TODAY

Boat is 305 Feet Long and Will be Largest Steamboat on River—Capt. Nelson in Command.

DUBUQUE, Iowa, Oct. 16.—After lying at her dock for seven months after being completed, the big transfer boat, "B. F. Yoakum," built by the Dubuque Boat and Boiler Works, left here at 8 o'clock Saturday morning bound for Galland, at the head of the Keokuk rapids, to await the flood water coming down from the Black, Upper Mississippi and Wisconsin rivers, which it is expected will give enough water to take the big boat over the rapids, it being too large to be accommodated by the government locks.

The boat was built for the Frisco lines, to be used as a car transport at Baton Rouge, La., and with the Albattross, a sister ship, built here two years ago, will be the largest steamer on the Mississippi river. The big boat is 305 feet long, 32 feet 6 inches beam and draws four feet of water when not loaded. Across the guard rails the boat measures even ninety feet and carries two standard gauge tracks capable of accommodating from sixteen to twenty ordinary freight cars. The power plant consists of two engines, each of twenty-six-inch bore and ten-foot stroke, developing 1,000 horsepower, and a battery of Bonson boilers also built here. Over 1,500 tons of steel entered into the construction of the monster, which is the largest ever built on an inland waterway.

The boat is in charge of Captain Thomas Nelson, of Dubuque, one of the most widely experienced steamboat captains on the Mississippi river.

Heavens and Earth on Fire Those who have not learned that the Bible frequently uses language in a symbolical manner may be excused for taking literally some of St. Peter's statements respecting the burning of the heavens and the earth. A critical study shows that the Apostle could not have referred to the literal earth and the literal heavens as being consumed. He used the term earth symbolically, as representing society, of which the mountains or kingdoms are the backbone, just as he used the word heavens to represent the ecclesiastical powers which are even now rolling together as a scroll from the two ends—the one Protestant, the other Catholic. The social conflagration is being generally feared.

A Druggist's Favorite Kidney Remedy—Cured Himself.

Fifteen years ago I had an attack of acute kidney trouble. I consulted a physician who gave me a medicine which only relieved me for a time. After discontinuing his medicine my trouble returned as severe as before. Having heard of Swamp-Root I gave it a trial and can honestly state that three dollar bottles cured me, never having any sickness in fifteen years. I have sold Dr. Kilmer Swamp-Root as a druggist for many years and can give it the very best of recommendations at all times.

Letter to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y. Prove What Swamp Root Will Do For You. Send to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. It will convince anyone. You will also receive a booklet of valuable information, telling all about the kidneys and bladder. When writing be sure and mention The Keokuk Daily Gate City. Regular fifty-cent and one dollar size bottles for sale at all drug stores.

END OF THE WORLD IS A FALSE THEORY

"The Earth Abideth Forever," Say Scriptures.

Symbolic, Not Literal, Fire is Imminent.

Pastor Russell Says Our Lord Said Nothing About the End of the Earth, Simply the End of the World—London Tabernacle Crowded.

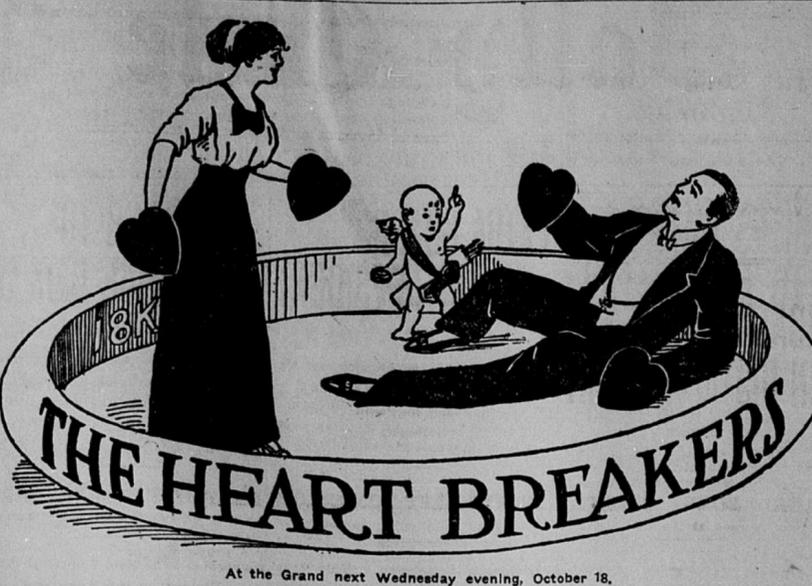

Oct. 15.—LONDON TABERNACLE, Lancaster Gate W., was crowded today to hear Pastor Russell. He spoke of mistaken notions re the end of the world. He assured his audience that "the earth abideth forever," and claimed that errors were built upon misinterpretations of Scripture. His text was Revelation x, 6, 7. "And the angel saith * * * that the time should be no longer (delayed)."

Pastor Russell declared that his text has no reference to the end of time—that time could never end, must always endure. The word delayed should have been added by the translators to catch the proper thought. The time mentioned would no longer be delayed. The fulfillment of delayed promises would be accomplished. These views in recent years have been most pronouncedly voiced by Christian brethren styled Adventists, but really are to be found in nearly all the creeds of Christendom. The erroneous theory has been further bolstered up by the misinterpretations of our Lord's words translated the end of the world. Our Lord said nothing about the end of the earth, or what He did mention was the end of the atom or Age in which we live. Various atoms or ages have followed one another, each ending in turn and giving place to another. So the present atom or Age, we believe, will soon give place to a better atom or Age—the atom or Age in which sin and death have reigned will give place to an atom or Age in which Christ and His Church will reign triumphant.

Some of the Difficulty The early Church hoped, in harmony with the Apostolic teachings, for Messiah's Kingdom to be established and for the resulting "times of restitution for all things which God hath spoken by the mouth of all the holy Prophets since the world began."—Acts iii, 19-21. After the Apostles fell asleep and the Kingdom still delayed, false doctrines crept into the Church, amongst others the theory that Christ's Kingdom was not to be waited for—that it came at Pentecost and the Apostles did not know of it; that it must conquer its way to the Throne of earth—that converts must be made even though the assistance of inquisitorial torments were necessary to effect this.

When the Protestant Reformation renounced Catholicism and denounced it as Anti-Christ it proceeded, nevertheless, along the same lines. Various Protestant Churches did their best to fill the place which Papacy claimed and to get earthly kingdoms to support their claims to spiritual domination. Thus the Czar of Russia is the Head of the Greek Church, Emperor William is the Head of the Lutheran system, King George is Head of the Church of England, theoretically. We may be sure, however, that none of these talented men believe for a moment that they are reigning as God and instead of Messiah.

"The Heartbreakers." In the "Heart Breakers," Mort H. Singer's latest musical offering that will be seen at the Grand next Wednesday evening, the audience is brought in touch with the master problem of the world, namely the love of a man for a girl. But in this instance this love is brought about through the efforts of the man, who knows as a confirmed woman-hater finally becomes an ardent lover.

"Rosaland at Red Gate." Indiana as a storehouse for Stevensonian adventures seems not yet exhausted, for in the announcement of the approaching engagement of "Rosaland at Redgate," from the pen of Meredith Nicholson, we are assured of another pleasant journey into the valley of romance.

Removing Muddiness and Blemishes From the Complexion. (Ladies' Quarterly Review.) It is a foolish makeshift to attempt hiding a sallow complexion or, for that matter, a poor complexion of any kind. One can easily clear the skin itself by applying coaled balsam at night—washing it off in the morning with warm water and soap.
