

OBSERVANCES OF THE SABBATH

There Was a Great Deal Going on Yesterday for the Religious Folks on the Day of Worship.

INTERESTING MEETINGS

Father Zaiser Entertained Knights of Columbus and Smith Dameron the Men of Keokuk in the Afternoon.

How the son of a Methodist minister became a Catholic priest, surmounting much opposition and overcoming many obstacles, was the real human interest story told to several hundred members of the Knights of Columbus, their families and friends, by the Rev. Father Zaiser of Fort Madison Sunday evening.

Father Zaiser, according to his own story, was the son of intensely religious Methodists. His father was a Methodist minister and in the offspring was born a religious feeling in the same intensified form.

But there seemed to be something behind his calling to the ministry, something deeper that was not recognized at the time. His first step in the direction of Catholicity did not come until after a narrow escape from drowning.

This visit in a way led to his conversion to a new religion. The incidents attending proved a hardship which was difficult to endure.

Father Zaiser is now one of the leading religious men in Fort Madison. He has a large congregation and has been an untiring worker for a score of years or more.

The musical program consisted of vocal solos by Mrs. Elizabeth Frank and John Welsh and an instrumental duet by the Misses Reidy.

GOLD DUST makes dazzling white dishes

If you could see your dishes and household utensils through a microscope you would realize that mere soap and water are insufficient to do more than wash off the surface.

Gold Dust not only cuts dirt and grease with scarcely any rubbing, but is an antiseptic that goes deep after every hidden impurity and germ.

Gold Dust sterilizes your kitchen things, and makes them wholesome and sanitary.

Gold Dust is the greatest labor-saver known.

Gold Dust is sold in 6c size and large packages. The large package means greater economy.

Lady Baltimore Cake

The Most Popular Cake This Season By Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, Editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine

This is considered by many cooking authorities the finest cake that can be made, though in reality it is not at all difficult.

1/2 cup butter; 2 cups granulated sugar; 1 cup milk; 1 teaspoonful rose water; 3/4 cup flour; 3 level teaspoonsful K. C. Baking Powder; whites of 6 eggs, beaten dry.

Cream the butter and beat in the sugar gradually. Sift together, three times, the flour and baking powder, and add to the butter and sugar, alternately with the milk and rose water. Lastly, add the egg whites. Bake in three-layer cake pans. Put the layers together with the following frosting.

Note—The cake is a large one and sells at Women's Exchanges for $1.50.

Frosting for Lady Baltimore Cake

Three cups granulated sugar; 1 cup boiling water; 1/2 cup milk; 1 cup chopped walnuts; 1 cup chopped nut-meats; 5 eggs cut in thin slices.

Stir the sugar and water until the sugar is dissolved, then let boil without stirring until the syrup from a spoon will spin a long thread; pour upon the whites of the eggs, beaten dry, beating constantly meanwhile. Continue the beating until the frosting is cold; add the fruit and spread upon the cake.

The K. C. Cook's Book contains almost just such delicious recipes—bread, muffins, cakes and pastry. You can secure a copy free by sending the certificate packed in every 25-cent can of K. C. Baking Powder to the JACOBS MFG. CO., Chicago. Small cans do not contain Cook's Book certificates.

which is practically the oldest in existence, told a strong religious story to the men of Keokuk who attended the Sunday afternoon meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association held at the Y. M. C. A. This is the first meeting of this character of the season and likewise one of the strongest. The manner in which Smith Dameron, who styles himself "The Potter Craftsman," made his address to the men was both interesting and unique.

For every thought that Smith Dameron sought to impress upon his auditors he carried an illustration in pottery such as to make them leave a lasting impression. As an example, he was reminded of a boy with a cigarette in his mouth as he picked up a piece of clay with a stick of wood in it. This boy was likened or declared equal to a cipher with the ring knocked off. And so his illustrations were carried out, every one dealing with some vital thought in our every day life.

Life was portrayed in the moulding of clay. How life may be marred by the tiny thing which those around us do not see was aptly illustrated by the total collapse of a vase which he was holding.

From a jug the speaker took a drink and declared he would rather drink the water from this jug, smeared as it is, than quench his thirst with water from a choice glass in one of our finest homes that had been smeared on the inside with intoxicating liquor.

He illustrated how little one knows of what the Master Potter is making of it, touched upon ambition and continued his discourse and illustrations in an interesting manner.

In The Churches.

Sunday was rally day in the Sunday school of the Trinity M. E. church and the attendance was large.

At the Swedish Lutheran church, Mr. Ebb of the Theological Seminary of Rock Island preached the morning and evening services.

Preaching at the Swedish Methodist church Sunday was by Rev. K. A. Stormberg, district superintendent.

The Rev. Ver Marmaduke Hare of Davenport, Ia. officiated at St. John's Episcopal church. He said the prayer and delivered the sermon at the morning service.

CANNIBALS WHO CHEW GUM

Traveler Finds the Seris Kindly and Affectionate and Quits Without Deadly Weapons.

Though it seems rather a pity to shatter romantic illusions and myths in a world from which romance (of that kind, anyway) is fading rapidly, yet it must be said that there are only two old, useless rifles in the hands of the tribe, and at the time of our visit only two bows and a couple of quivers full of arrows, not one of which was headed. And now they haven't those, for we bought them for souvenirs.

Among themselves, at any rate, however they may have behaved to strangers in the past, the Seris were as kindly and even affectionate a lot of people as I have ever had the good fortune to encounter. Never did we see a mother or father slap a child. Never was anger displayed or irritation. They were continually sharing with each other the little gifts we made them. Really, you know, when you see a group of alleged cannibals sharing chewing-gum (the first they had ever tasted) from mouth to mouth and enjoying themselves hugely, respect for travelers' tales of blood and thunder goes down a peg or two.—Michael Williams in Outing.

Got Away All Right.

LIVERPOOL, Oct. 28.—Robert Bacon, United States ambassador to France, Mrs. Bacon, second secretary Leland Harrison of the U. S. embassy in London, Howard Gould and a large number of other distinguished and undistinguished Americans got off safely on the Lusitania this afternoon despite considerable delay due to today's collision between the boat express and a train at Colwich, near Stafford. Great alarm was caused here immediately after the accident by reports that twenty passengers on the boat express were killed and it was not until nearly an hour later that the news arrived that no one was killed, only three injured and that these were aboard the local train.

"At the time I received your letter we were expecting baby's death daily. She had whooping cough, measles and was teething at the same time. I believe that if she had been anything but a Mellin's Food baby, she would have died. Some days we succeeded in getting her to take one ounce of food and some days three ounces for about two weeks, but not a day passed without her getting some food, and by this means we succeeded in keeping life in her until she was strong enough to take more. Now she is rosy, fat and walking."

Why is the soda cracker to-day such a universal food?

People ate soda crackers in the old days, it is true—but they bought them from a barrel or box and took them home in a paper bag, their crispness and flavor all gone.

To-day there is a soda cracker which is the recognized staple — Uneeda Biscuit.

Uneeda Biscuit are the most nutritious food made from flour and should be eaten every day by every member of the family from the youngest to the oldest.

Uneeda Biscuit—soda crackers better than any ever made before—made in the greatest bakeries in the world—baked to perfection—packed to perfection—kept to perfection until you take them, oven-fresh and crisp, from their protecting package.

Our world for six thousand years has been a battlefield on which the hosts of darkness have largely prevailed over the comparatively small number of children of the light, who in an enemy's country have stood forth for God, the Redeemer, the brethren and the Truth against the "Prince of this world"—Satan. Moreover the children of light have been hindered from using the "carnal weapons" of the children of darkness. They may not render evil for evil nor slander for slander. They may only do good and bless those who revile them.

Harvest Time is Here Is this condition of things to continue forever? Does God intend that to all eternity there shall be this battle between light and darkness, with the darkness in the ascendant and control? No! The Bible declares that a great change and a New Dispensation is at hand, in which the order of affairs will be reversed.

The Lord has been doing a work during the period of the reign of sin and death. He has been selecting two classes of children of the light, both to be used in the great world-wide work of the next Age. God refers to His work in agricultural terms; for instance, in the Jewish nation, He did a plowing, harrowing, sowing, cultivating and reaping work. Their plowing time preceded the entrance of the nation into Canaan. The Law incultivation was the sowing. The reaping of the Age was at its close; Jesus was the Chief Reaper. His Apostles were associates. To them He said, "I sent you forth to reap that whereon ye had bestowed no labor: other men labored and ye are entered into the fruits of their labor." The saints then reaped were gathered into the Gospel garner at Pentecost and after fiery tribulations the field was cleansed of its chaff.

This Gospel Age has similarly been a time of plowing, sowing and reaping. The tribulations of the early Church were associated with the sowing of the precious seed. Again we are in a harvest time—"The harvest is the end of the Age." This time the gathering of the fruitage will be to a still higher plane—"to glory, honor and immortality" by participation in the "first (chief) resurrection." Then will follow the cleansing of the field again by fiery troubles—"a time of trouble such as never was since there was a nation." That trouble time will be a plowing and harrowing time of a new dispensation for a world-wide crop under the most favorable conditions. These three different ages, however, produce different crops—as different as are their conditions.

"PEACE AND SAFETY" A GREAT DELUSION.

God's Times and Seasons Maturing.

A NEW DISPENSATION OPENING

Pastor Russell in Glasgow—The Divine Plan Diversified but Orderly—Age Follows Age in an Uplifting Process. Not Evolution but Restitution.

Glasgow, Oct. 29.—Pastor Russell gave two discourses today at St. Andrew's Hall to large and attentive audiences. We report his discourse from the text, "Of the times and seasons ye have no need that I write unto you, for yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night. And when they shall say, Peace and safety, then sudden destruction cometh upon them as travail upon a woman with child and they shall not escape. But ye, brethren, are not in darkness that that day should overtake you as a thief. Ye are children of the light—"1 Thessalonians v. 1-5.

The world is not expected to understand the divine times and seasons plans and purposes. The Redeemer declared that the Father hath hidden these things from the worldly-wise and prudent, and has revealed them unto babes—the humble-minded, the footstep followers of Jesus. (Matthew xi. 25.) "The secret of the Lord is with them that reverence Him, and He will show them His Covenant."

"The Wise Shall Understand" The Prophet Daniel, referring to the present day, declared, "None of the wicked shall understand, but the wise shall understand." (Daniel xii. 10.) To understand the secret purposes of the great in advance of their accomplishment implies a nearness and touch and acquaintance out of the ordinary. And so God's children, begotten of the Holy Spirit, are privileged to know the things of God—"yea, the deep things."

The speaker likened this relationship between God and His saints to wireless telegraphy. God's people have coherers tuned in harmony with Himself by His Word and Spirit. These can receive much of the deep things of God. The worldly have no coherers at all—no means, therefore, of communication with the Infinite. The lukewarm Christian has, indeed, a coherer in the Holy Spirit, but it is not tuned to the proper key and is, therefore, not prepared to receive the deep things of Divine communication.

Our world for six thousand years has been a battlefield on which the hosts of darkness have largely prevailed over the comparatively small number of children of the light, who in an enemy's country have stood forth for God, the Redeemer, the brethren and the Truth against the "Prince of this world"—Satan. Moreover the children of light have been hindered from using the "carnal weapons" of the children of darkness. They may not render evil for evil nor slander for slander. They may only do good and bless those who revile them.
