

NIAGARA GORGE IN MOTOR BOAT

Venturesome Swede Makes His Second Trip Through the Whirlpool Rapids.

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., Oct. 30.—Capt. Klaus Larsen of Detroit, Sunday made his second Niagara River trip in a motor boat from the cataract to Lewiston.

Larsen says he is through with Niagara adventure, but next year will make a trip across the Atlantic in his boat, The Niagara.

Larsen started from the Canadian Maid of the Mist docks at 1:50 o'clock and swept under the lower steel arch bridge five minutes later.

The boat rode the smaller waves without a tremor, but caught by the fierce current about midway of the rapids, she was hurled up and almost clear of the mountains of water.

As the Niagara entered the whirlpool, her engine was working perfectly. Larsen kept toward the American side of the pool, but he was caught in a cross current and was almost drawn into the vortex.

Once clear of the whirlpool Larsen headed the boat upstream in order to put things ship shape for the final test in the Devil's Hole rapids.

He was badly buffeted in the lower rapids, but managed to hold a course close to the Canadian side, and at 2:14 passed under the suspension bridge at Lewiston.

Larsen made his first trip through the rapids on September 18, 1910. The Niagara, the boat he used Sunday, is 15 feet long, 5 feet 6 inches beam and 4 feet deep.

TO HOLD INITIATION AT BURLINGTON

Knights of Columbus of Three Cities Will Gather, There on November 26.

BURLINGTON, Iowa, Oct. 30.—The semi-annual tri-city initiation in the Knights of Columbus councils of Burlington, Fort Madison and Keokuk, and the initiatory ceremonies will be held at Burlington on Sunday, Nov. 26.

ENTIRE CITY IS SHAKEN AND MANY ARE EXCITED

Scientist's Discovery Continues to Excite Much Enthusiasm in Davenport by Wonderful Cures. Druggist Talks Interestingly of Strange New Liquid.

Advice has been received from the many statements made public in Davenport to the effect that the people are still crowding drug stores of that city, wild with excitement over the new liquid that has caused such intense interest during the past few weeks by its remarkable cures of disease.

The message says that reports of cures which seem almost miraculous continue to pour in from various sources and persons who at first laughed at the claims made by the scientist, are now among the many who tell of the most remarkable results that have been obtained by friends or acquaintances, through the use of his discovery.

Druggists say they have never handled a medicine that seemed to meet with such universal success. One dealer who was interviewed said: "My store has simply been alive with people asking about the Root Juice medicine ever since its wonderful power over disease became known.

Hundreds of bottles have been sold and those who were first to purchase the remedy have been benefitted and sent others in. In this way the sale of it has increased to enormous proportions. My customers have told me stories of cures credited to Root Juice which seem almost ridiculous, and yet I see the people every day, see the results with my own eyes and what I see, I am forced to believe."

"The greatest trouble has been to get the medicine fast enough, for although the laboratories are producing it as fast as it can be made, there is scarcely enough to supply the demand." When asked about the many statements of cures that have been made public, he remarked, "I have heard in my store enough of this strange medicine to fill a good size book and it is only reasonable to believe that the remarks I hear are examples of the general opinion. My customers never stop talking about it and therefore I am convinced that

How to Drive Away Wrinkles and Double Chin

(From Stage Review.)

The clever woman of today does not sit down and fold her hands and resign herself to a wrinkled face, double chin and enlarged pores.

What she does do—this clever woman—is to get of her druggist an ounce and a half of thermozed jelly, rubbing half a teaspoonful into her skin until it is absorbed and then bathing her face with cold water.

This home remedy is as simple as it is effective. The skin immediately feels taut and refreshed—the flesh firm and compact.

One application works a marked improvement in her looks, and every day her mirror tells her she is growing younger and prettier.

For filling out hollows in the neck, shoulders and arms, there is nothing so effective as thermozed jelly.

$100 REWARD, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity.

Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying its foundation, the disease and giving it patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work.

The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for lists of testimonials.

MABRAY ARRESTED SOON AS RELEASED

Steps Out of Prison and Is Taken to Council Bluffs on Another Charge.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., Oct. 30.—John C. Mabray and E. K. Morse, members of the famous Mabray swindling crowd, were released from the federal prison here Sunday, but their liberty was brief.

At the prison gate Deputy Sheriff H. A. Waddington and Prosecutor Frank J. Sapell, both of Council Bluffs, Ia., re-arrested the two men on a state charge.

Neither prisoner expressed surprise when taken into custody. Mabray's wife met him at the railroad station here, and the entire party left at 9:20 o'clock for Council Bluffs.

Leon Mosser, who was the fake foot racer of the gang, was also released, but he was not re-arrested. He left for Denver. Several other members of the gang are still in prison.

MONTROSE.

Among the prettiest October weddings Tuesday evening, that has occurred here in some time was the nuptial service uniting Miss Gladys Griswold and Mr. Chas. Wardlow in the holy bonds of marriage. The ceremony was performed by the rev. Alexander in the presence of a large company. The bride is a most talented and estimable young lady. Mr. Wardlow is a popular business man. The home was beautifully decorated in a profusion of flowers. The presents were beautiful and costly.

How to Keep a Superb Complexion.

The clever woman is aware that it behooves her to know all about her complexion needs. She has discovered that powders, lotions, creams and cosmetics are only temporary aids—makeshifts for real and natural beauty, and she has also discovered that the old-fashioned home remedy, colored balsam, will first of all remove every blemish from her complexion and thereafter keep her skin fresh and young and blooming. The mission of this simple though effective home remedy is to attack the deadened and discolored skin-particles clogging the outer cuticle and causing all sorts of beauty ills—like sallowness, pimples, liver spots, freckles, etc. Those of you who have tried it know there is nothing like pure colored balsam to keep your faces young and faultless. Therefore you can throw down the gauntlet to Father Time and say to him, "Come on and do your worst." For you know you can slip out to the drug store and get an ounce and a half of this old-fashioned remedy, and that by applying it at night a wonderful change will take place in your complexion—Perfect Health.

ROSY AS A GIRL

Summit, N. C.—In a letter received from this place, Mr. J. W. Church, the notary public, says: "My wife had been ailing for nearly twelve years, from female ailments, and at times, was unable to leave the house. She suffered agony with her side and back. We tried physicians for years, without relief. After these treatments all failed, she took Cardui, and gained in weight at once. Now she is red and rosy as a school girl." Cardui, as a tonic for women, has brought remarkable results. It relieves pain and misery and is the ideal tonic for young and old. Try it. At druggists.

The Four Hundred's Story

THE wonderful story of "The Four Hundred" begins in PEARSON'S MAGAZINE for November. It is the story of the rise and fall, morally and otherwise, of some big rich families which have formed the so-called American aristocracy, to which most people kowtow. It is the story of society with a capital "S"—

If you like to read about such "doings" begin to read these stories at the beginning. They are the stories of The Four Hundred. How the control of hard coal by a few men forces you to pay 75 cents a ton more than you ought to pay, and what you can do about it, is explained in another article. The benefit of the automobile—the fallacy of the idea that automobiles are rich men's toys—is the subject of another.

The fourth part of "The Usurped Power of the Courts" is in the same magazine, and this is a story which you should not miss. If you do, you will soon be sorry that you did. And the fiction includes eight splendid short stories of romance, mystery and adventure—eight complete stories, and every one is good.

PULITZER DIES ON BOARD YACHT One of America's Biggest Newspaper Publishers Passed Away on Sunday.

CHARLESTON, S. C., Oct. 30.—Joseph Pulitzer, editor and proprietor of the New York World, died at 1:40 Sunday afternoon on board his yacht Liberty in the harbor of Charleston.

He had been ill only about forty-eight hours, and until just before he died it was believed his illness was only a slight indisposition. Death was caused by heart trouble, caused, it is believed, by an attack of acute indigestion.

Mrs. Pulitzer was summoned from New York Saturday and left for Charleston in a private car attached to a train leaving New York at 3:58 Saturday afternoon. She reached her husband's bedside half an hour before he died. Mr. Pulitzer was 64 years old.

He had been in his usual health up to the time of the brief illness preceding his death. Last Wednesday he left New York on his yacht for a short cruise to the south, intending to be back in New York for election day. He was accompanied by his youngest son, Herbert Pulitzer, a lad of about 14 years, who has long been his father's almost constant companion. The cruise was planned merely to avoid the chill of New York and no stops were included in the plans.

The funeral will be held in New York city at St. Thomas' Episcopal church on Wednesday afternoon. The public will be admitted to all the services.
