BOWLING SEASON OPENS THIS WEEK

Knights of the Pins Will Begin Shooting Balls Down the Alleys Tuesday Night With Two Matches On.

TEAMS BEING FORMED

Drexel and Company L Aggregations Promise to be Strong—Classy Performances Are Looked For.

Keokuk bowlers have been throwing the kinks out of their arms during the past few days in anticipation of the season's opening Tuesday night. As far as can be learned the six teams have not yet completed their line-ups, but pin shooters are being rapidly signed and everything will be in readiness by Tuesday evening, when the curtain is hoisted on two of the alleys:

The games this week follow: Company L vs. Drexel at Keokuk Club; Ewers-McCarthy vs. Boosters at Drexel, Tuesday night; Keokuk Club vs. Grand Leaders at Keokuk Club, Thursday night.

The Company L and Drexel teams are regarded as two of the strongest in the circuit. The military men have enlisted such stars as John Crimmins, Clarence Powell and Russell Roberts, all of whom are planners who rank with the best in the city. The Drexel team has always been one of the weakest in the association. This year Proprietor Barber has resorted to drastic measures and has combed the pick of the city bowlers into a representative team. Harry King, Elmer Maas, Palmer, Harry Cook and several others are said to be in line on this squad.

Herman Azingar promises to have a strong team representing Stadler's Boosters, while Orville Publisky is mustering together a good bunch for the Ewers-McCarthy team. The Grand Leader team will have some of the same men who were on it last season. On the Keokuk Club aggregation will be Taber, Smith, Sheldon, Huxley, Irwin, Merrill and others.

Bowlers are inquiring what team Senator John Watson will roll with. The senator has been anxious to get the Olympia team in the league, but falling in this he will affix his signature to a contract with some other club. He is one of the best performers in the city and is popular with the knights.

Europe Has Us Beat.

"Why do so many people go abroad instead of seeing their own country?" "Well," Mr. Cumrox replied, "I hate to admit it, but I kind of think Europe has us beat on guides and press agents."

MEN ARE HELPLESS AS CHILDREN

When Taken Suddenly Ill—Here is a Common-Sense Safeguard.

Big, strong man is as helpless as an infant when he is suddenly ill. The sturdiest chap in town usually loses his self-control, and is utterly unable to regard his condition with the common sense that characterizes his every-day actions.

For example: He comes home tired, eats a heavy dinner and sits down to read and smoke away a quiet evening.

Suddenly he notices a weight on his stomach; then sharp pains around his heart, and a feeling of suffocation. Thoughts of "heart disease" rush over him and in his agony he fears the worst.

His trouble was acute indigestion, brought on by overloading his tired stomach.

A couple of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets might have given him relief—might have saved him hours of suffering.

Carry a package of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets in your vest pocket or keep them in your room. Take one after each heavy meal, and ward off indigestion.

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets relieve stomach troubles by aiding nature to supply those elements, the absence of which in the gastric juices, causes indigestion and dyspepsia. They tend to aid the stomach to digest all kinds of food and to quickly convert it into rich, red blood.

We know what Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are and what they will do. We guarantee them to relieve indigestion and dyspepsia. If they fail, we will refund your money.

Three sizes, 25 cents, 50 cents, and $1.00. Sold only at our stores or by mail. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store, McGrath Bros. Drug Co., Corner 5th and Main Streets.

Gossip at Keokuk Club—Coon hunt at Coon Hollow Saturday night.

Hennemann vs. Porter Thursday night at Grand. Where's your money?

Keokuk H. S. dropped their first game at Quincy Saturday, but wait until Jacksonville comes.

This will be a week of sports in Keokuk. The Keokuk bowling season opens Tuesday night, there will be a big wrestling match on Thursday and the Keokuk high school will meet Jacksonville, Illinois on Saturday. Saturday night the Keokuk Club will enjoy its annual coon hunt. If on top of this there would be a few murders, the newspaper boys would be joyed.

Clarence Weismann, former high school football star, is making good with Knox this season. He is playing one of the halfback positions and is considered one of the whirlwinds of the state. Knox has a classy eleven this season and is doped to win the state championship outside the conference members. Saturday Knox lost, 12 to 0, to Washington University at St. Louis. Weismann weighs only 145 pounds, but has rapidly picked up the new style play.

The Keokuk high school was thrown into mourning today on account of the defeat at Quincy Saturday. Those who saw the game are trying to satisfy themselves as to how it all happened. The result came like a nightmare. The boys will be worked to death this week to avoid a repetition here Saturday against Jacksonville.

Dawn R. Porter will make his bow to the Keokuk wrestling public Thursday night when he goes against Charles Hennemann, one of the shiftest wrestlers this city has ever produced. Hennemann has met few defeats during his career as a mat artist, but Porter is confident he can pin his shoulders to the mat.

Burlington Hawk-Eye: Kewanee appears to be the northern Mecca of baseball players and umpires. It is not usual that ball players remain in the city of the team to which they belong, but in Kewanee's case a number of its men are on hand for the winter. Three of its pitchers are there—Bill Pressy, Jack Ashley and Tommy Drohen. A fourth pitcher, Louis Wagner, the sensation of the Southern league, is also wintering there. Other players spending the winter in Kewanee are Catcher Ray Hawley, a crack of the Blue Grass league, Infielder Davy Milligan, Shortstop Hubbard of the Kewanee team, and Fielders Jess Cornhill and Ernie Williams. The latter are from Wisconsin independent leagues, but their homes are in Kewanee. Two umpires, John Pollack and John Boswell, are on hand to keep the boys straight.

Pollock's work during the last two seasons has placed him in close touch with such renowned baseball men as Ban Johnson, Silk O'Laughlin and Edward Barrows, to say nothing of the many other friends that he had. A Steam Radiator club has been formed by these players and other baseball fans of Kewanee, and hot air discussions will add much to the winter life of the boiler-making city.

Jaw Broken in Football. CARTHAGE, Ill., Nov. 6.—In a game here Saturday afternoon between Augusta and Carthage High school elevens, Gaylor Michol, one of the Augusta players, was badly hurt in a scrimmage. One of the players either stepped on his face or kicked him there, crushing his jaw bone in two places, and knocking out a number of teeth. The injured lad was carried from the field and after being given medical treatment, was taken home in an automobile. The game was a fierce one, although one-sided fight, resulting in a victory for Carthage by a score of 23 to 5.

Bicycle Races. BUFFALO, N. Y., Nov. 6.—Frank Kramer, American bicycle sprinting champion, defeated Jackie Clarke, of Atarphia before 3,000 people at the 74th regiment armory in straight heats. Time 2:39 and 2:54. The one mile handicap professional, was won by Walter De Mara, San Francisco. Sharples Stein, Brooklyn, second, and Percy Lawrence, San Francisco, third. The five mile open professional was won by Jackie Clarke, Joe Fogler, Brooklyn, second; and J. Bedell, Long Island, third.

COBB BATS .422 FOR 1911 SEASON

Detroit Star Captures Honors for the Fourth Successive Year—Also Lead in Runs and Base Stealing.

FOUR TIGERS ABOVE .300

Philadelphia Leads in Club Batting With .297—Browns of St. Louis. Weakest in Base Stealing.

CHICAGO, Ill., Nov. 6.—Falling short two points of equalling Lajoie's record of .422, made while a member of the Philadelphia club in 1901, Tyros Cobb of Detroit topped the 1911 American league batters for the fourth successive year with an average of .420, according to official averages announced today by President Ban Johnson of the American league.

Second to Cobb is Joe Jackson of Cleveland, whose average is .408. Jackson played in 147 games while Cobb took part in one game less. Napoleon Lajoie of Cleveland, who gave Cobb such a close race for batting honors in 1910, has an average of .365. Last year Cobb finished with an average of .385 and Lajoie with .384. The world's champion Philadelphia club has seven men in the select .300 class, Collins leading with an average of .365. Lapp hit for .353; Baker, the home run hero of the world's championship series, for .334; Murphy, .329; McInnes, .321; Coombs, .319, and Lord, .310.

Four Hitters on Tiger Team. Detroit had four men hitting above .300, including Cobb. Crawford is fourth among the league batters with an average of .378, while Delehanly made .339. Gains has an average of .302.

In club batting Philadelphia leads with .297, with Detroit second at .291 and Cleveland third with .282. Cobb is also champion in home runs, having eight to his credit, while Jackson of Cleveland and Crawford of Detroit are tied for second with seven each.

Cobb also scored the largest number of runs, scoring 147 times, and made the largest number of hits, 248. Of these, 47 were two base and 24 three-base hits.

Cobb's nearest rival in base stealing was Milan of Washington. He stole 58, while Cobb stole 83. Frank Laporte was the only regular member of the Browns who managed to line up with the top notch swatters. Laporte took part in 136 games, was at bat 567 times, scored 71 runs, and was credited with 159 hits, giving him an average of .314.

Rowan at the Top.

Rowan, who played first base for the Browns during the summer for a short time, taking part in eighteen games, is right up at the top of the list with the leaders, having an average of .384.

One noticeable feature regarding the Browns' playing during the past season was the small number of bases stolen. Wallace's men are credited with only 126 stolen bases. In a great way, this helps to explain the poor showing made by the team, as there was less than one base stolen on an average for the season.

worth announces that a corporation is about to be formed with a capital stock of sixty-five million dollars, fifteen million dollars will be preferred stock and fifty million dollars common stock, and this new corporation will take over the business of F. W. Woolworth & Co., of New York City, N. Y.; S. H. Knox & Co., of Buffalo, N. Y.; F. M. Kirby & Co., of Wilkesbarre, Pa.; the E. P. Charlton & Co., of Fall River, Mass.; C. S. Woolworth of Scranton, Pa.; W. H. Moore, of Watertown, N. Y.; W. H. Moore & Son, of Schenectady, N. Y.; Goldman Sachs & Co., of No. 60 Wall Street, N. Y. are the bankers in the transaction who will market the stock. The name of the new company will be the F. W. Woolworth Co.; and will probably be incorporated under the laws of the state of New York, and will own over 600 five and ten cent stores throughout the United States, Canada and England.

AMUSEMENTS.

It's interesting to listen when a man knows what he's talking about.

By giving a series of three lectures Rev. Geo. C. Williams will assist the choir of the First Congregational church in raising its pledge for the new church.

These lectures commence Friday evening of this week and the first will be illustrated with eighty views of the British Isles over which Mr. Williams has traveled several times. His lecture is expected to be interesting and instructive, basing this expectation on the several interesting addresses with illustrations made by him last year and the year before.

Be it said here that a trip to the British Isles with the Rev. Williams will bring the hearer and see a great deal nearer those historical shores than one would think. Scenes of castles, abbeys, rural districts and other places of world wide interest will be shown.

It is naturally supposed that the audience at the first of the choir's benefit lectures will be largely attended Friday night. The seating capacity of the church is between three and four hundred. A very reasonable charge of fifty cents will be made for the lecture and one may obtain a season ticket for a dollar. It is safe to say that should one find it convenient to attend all three of the lectures that they will be repaid five times the price of admission for their presence.

Indian Fight at the Grand Opera House Tonight.

The "Sitting Bull" photo-play which appears at the Grand opera house this evening contains 150 scenes, depicting incidents of early western life at a time when dangers from attacks by Indians beset the traveler on every hand. By consent of the government officials, a troop of cavalry and a tribe of Chippewa Indians were placed at the disposal of the producers of "Sitting Bull" motion pictures and this force was augmented by famous rangers, cowboys and actors numbering one thousand. For the proper coloring the company traveled by special train to the far western plains where the famous Indian chief made his last stand against the inevitable advance of the white man.

Rugged, country, mountains and streams form a picturesque background for the most thrilling story yet told with motion pictures, and present it in a manner more pleasing and interesting than the mere telling by character actors could possibly obtain.

Two shows, 7:30 and 8:30. Price only 10 cents for any seat in the house.

Madam Sherry.

Owing to the wonderful popularity of the score of "Madame Sherry" and to the fact that many of its songs hits, especially "Ev'ry Little Movement Has a Meaning All Its Own," have been played, hummed and sung everywhere for months, the impression is current that the appeal of this sensational success is chiefly musical. But such is not the case, for its lyrical qualities are quite as engaging as its musical score. An idea of the comic possibilities of "Madame Sherry" may be gained from a glance at its list of characters, which include a fussy old uncle and his pleasure loving niece, a New York man about town, a Spanish beauty, a temperamental South American, a French janitor and his Irish spouse, a lively dancer and several others.

At the Grand opera house Wednesday evening, Nov. 8. Seats now selling.

Coming Wrestling Match.

Arrangements have been completed for the preliminaries at the Hennemann and Porter wrestling match at the Grand opera house, Thursday evening, Nov. 9. Buck Hicks and Doc Porter, two local amateurs of bakery fame, will contest for the bakers medal. They will appear on the mat at 8:30. This will be very amusing, as the boys wish to apologize in advance by stating that they will show the people what they don't know about wrestling.

The second bout of the evening will be between two very clever wrestlers, Russell Mill, champion lightweight of Oklahoma and J. Allen, Farmington's favorite, which will be followed by the main event of the evening, Hennemann vs. Porter, in best two falls out of three for the lightweight championship of southeastern Iowa. Dick Latta, of Montrose, Ia., will act as referee. Ladies will be welcomed at the match.

Musterole Means Mustard Oil—

Combined with other simples used in home medicine.

It is a clean, pure, white ointment that does all the work of the good old-fashioned mustard plaster—but does it better and without the blister.

MUSTEROLE GIVES ALMOST INSTANT RELIEF FROM ACHES, PAINS AND SORENESS, AND NOT A BLISTER REMAINS.

Instead, it has a delicious, comforting, soothing effect.

You simply rub MUSTEROLE on briskly and the pain is gone!

MUSTEROLE is so penetrating that it enters the pores at once, stops the sharp twinges—brings ease and complete relief—and breaks up the congestion.

Mustard has been a family remedy for centuries.

PERSONALS.

Charles Bates of Knox College, Galesburg, visited in Keokuk Sunday with friends.

Altogether, the bishop is the best product of the American church, and his duties have called him from one end of the land to the other; and wherever he goes he is warmly greeted and much beloved. His parishioners have a rare treat in store for them in his coming to that parish next Thursday, when he delivers two addresses, one for women in the afternoon, and the other at the men's dinner in the evening.

Land + Water = Good Crops Land - Water = Failure

The Big Horn Basin and Yellowstone Valley Have an Abundance of Water for Irrigation Purposes

The government has made ample provision to supply each and every farmer under its canals with sufficient water during the crop growing season to cover each and every acre of his farm two feet deep. This is equal to twelve heavy rains of two inches each. Just think what it would have meant to your community during the crop growing season, just closed, if your farmers could have turned on twelve two inch rains at will. You can do this next year and every year thereafter as long as you are farming, if you will go to Powell, Wyoming, and file on one of the government irrigated homesteads, now ready for entry.
