

THE WINNER WILL BREATHE DOLLARS

The Driver Who Carries off 500 Mile Auto Race at Indianapolis Will Get Enormous Salary for Time.

TO BE A GREAT EVENT

International Character Promised—Why Racing Game Has Come to be an Extensive Proposition.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 22.—Who wants a salary of $26,280,000 a year?

The figures almost stagger the average person who figures that a salary of $2,500 a year is good, yet the use of a little calculation shows that the winner of the second annual 500-mile international sweepstakes motor race on the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, Memorial day will be drawing a salary of that rate for the time consumed in the driving contest.

The figures would amount much higher if the side money which will be given along with the $50,000 purse is considered. The winner will receive $20,000 from the speedway, while the makers of various accessories will contribute about $5,000 additional to his pot of gold and donate liberally to the winners of the other eleven prizes offered, which brings the total to $50,000.

On a mileage basis, the winner will receive $40 for every mile driven, and the rate of travel maintained in the race will be more than seventy-five miles an hour. This is the richest offer ever made in the history of automobile racing and will prove a magnet for the greatest pilots in the world. True, the race will be one of the toughest battles ever fought in the cylinder conflict world, for 500 miles is a test supreme of both men and metal, but the gold and glory are greater than the hardships which will be undergone, and danger is not an element of consideration by the fearless masters of the motor.

The international character of the event is assured, as the French, German and Italian makers are as much interested as the Americans. From the standpoint of the spectator this contest will be one of the most thrilling in the annals of motordom. Seven hours of a speed battle royal is what they will see, and the motoring public today demands more from men and machinery than any other class of people. That demand is to be satisfied at the cost of thousands of dollars.

And yet perhaps the reader wonders why the speedway should hang up the purse of $50,000.

The manufacturer does not enter the racing game simply to see his car whirl round and round the track. He enters the game for the benefits that he receives from the publicity attached to the event, to study his car while subjected to the test of high speed and to learn its possibilities.

The racing game is an expensive proposition. The drivers do not care to compete in events where sufficient prize money is not offered. Neither does the manufacturer care to race for charity. Thus the speedway by hanging up this great purse, setting the date of the race almost at the opening of the season, and with its specially constructed track, will be able to give the public not only a long race but it will bring the best cars in America and possibly several from Europe to the track for the five-century grind.

The Point of View. The power of fortune is confessed only by the miserably, for the happy impute all their success to prudence or merit.—Dean Swift.

CASCARETS SURELY STRAIGHTEN YOU OUT

No Headache, Biliousness, Upset Stomach, Lazy Liver or Constipated Bowels By Morning.

Are you keeping your bowels, liver and stomach clean, pure and fresh with Cascarets, or merely forcing a passage through these alimentary or drainage organs every few days with Salts, Cathartic Pills, Castor Oil or Purgative Waters.

Stop having a bowel wash-day. Let Cascarets thoroughly cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the undigested, sour and fermenting food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the decomposed waste matter and poisons in the intestines and bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will make you feel great by morning. They work while you sleep—never sicken, or cause any inconvenience, and cost only 10 cents a box from your druggist. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never have Headache, Biliousness, coated tongue, Indigestion, Sour Stomach or Constipated Bowels. Cascarets belong in every household. Children just love to take them.

BUSINESS FLOURISHING

Cellars Well Stocked for the Winter by Prudent Housewives Who Are Always Prepared.

NAUVOO, Ill., Nov. 22.—Carl Weiler of Rock Island, Ill., who visited his grandmother, Mrs. John Hauptmann, here for a few days last week returned Monday morning. Carl is one of Uncle Sam's valued products and has charge of a recruiting office at the above place.

Fred Wolf of Omaha, Neb., who has been visiting his parents here for several weeks, returned to his home the fore part of the week.

The Nauvoovian has gone into winter quarters and now we will do our transportation in launches and skiffs.

Henry Hall and son Harry and their families will soon depart for Alabama to make their future home. They will do agricultural work.

Jacob Haessig has returned from his work as engineer on the steamer J. M.

Quite a lot of sickness is reported around Sonoro, the township below Nauvoov.

Jos. Welter, Nauvoov's popular tonorial artist, went out duck hunting and returned without a feather, although he claims he killed one, but the water was too deep to secure it.

It is said now that work will begin soon on the clearing of the islands of the large amount of timber. An army of choppers is asked for.

Miss Violet Koechley of Nauvoov, and Mr. Pete Martin of Niota, were married last Thursday.

Mrs. Jos. Welter was a Fort Madison visitor last Thursday.

Some of our farmers are almost through husking corn, while others are only partly done.

The Taber Lumber Company of Keokuk has one of the best equipped stocks of boards, shingles, etc., in Hancock county. Mr. Nick Wise, who operates the auto-truck for the company, was an untiring worker to transport the lumber from our Nauvoov boat landing that was on barges to the yards in Nauvoov. Mr. McGroom, the gentlemanly manager in the yards here is an industrial worker and is gaining many business friends. The Taber company of Keokuk has made a good selection by engaging Mr. McGroom.

Mrs. Herman Berger, Jr., who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Chas. Falk, at St. Louis, Mo., returned home last Sunday morning.

Our barbers are scraping a large number of bearded customers and cutting crops of hair now before the cold weather sets in. After awhile these customers will be again more economical.

Mark Hudson has purchased the balance of the bankrupt stock, fixtures, etc., of the remains of the A. C. Mills drug business. George and Mark Hudson have purchased their father's grocery business and our people predict for them a successful business career. The boys are popular among the consumers and business world in Nauvoov and vicinity. Marshal Louis Hudson will now devote his time in his official capacities and business matters in which he has profitable interests.

Miss Rachel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Parker of Nauvoov, who is attending high school in Keokuk, will spend Thanksgiving at the parental home and will return to her studies on the following Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McCandless, her uncle and aunt, of Keokuk, may also eat turkey and other good things in this hospitable home.

The holiday trade is now on in Nauvoov and on Monday and Saturday nights our stores are crowded with sightseers and purchasers. The early birds catches the cream of selections in the stock of holiday goods.

Nauvoov hunters are bagging a number of quail, rabbits and ducks. A small number of nimbros last Sunday afternoon brought home seventeen rabbits and it wasn't a very good day for the bunnies, either. They caught them on the islands opposite Nauvoov.

There was a scenic painter in Nauvoov last Monday and in company with one of our influential merchants went among our business men to secure advertisements on the drop street scene curtain which will be placed in Nauvoov's opera house. The ads were sold at from $5 to $10 apiece.

A. C. Mills, a former druggist in Nauvoov, is ill at his home here with pneumonia. He is on the mend.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Jibbins of near Elvaston, Ill., and near the Montebello township line, were Nauvoov visitors last Monday. George came up to see the sights and said he saw one of the finest sights in his recollection while here. Mr. Jibbin was a former Nauvoov business man. This popular couple were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Boyer while in the city.

Nauvoov's residents have their cellars well supplied with the necessary commodities to carry them through these long winter months. Our people always make arrangements for the inner man at every fall season of the year to have the cellar well stocked for the winter's use.

A shooting match will be given at Montrose next Tuesday by Fred Barber and a number of Nauvoov's sports will attend.

On Thursday of next week occurs the annual Thanksgiving day and the people in this section are very thankful for the bounteous crops that we were blessed with this season. The dining room table will be loaded with good things to eat.

Our butchers are now busy killing porkers for domestic purposes. Many families raise hogs for their own use for the season until the new crop comes in.

Miss Nellie Graley, our milliner, on her return trip from Keokuk last Monday, lost a pocket book containing about $12, which was found by "Fatty" Long, who is the hack driver, for Frank Weisinger. The lady was well pleased to recover her purse and the honesty of the finder.

The Germans are Hearty

German cooking is the kind you sometimes walk miles out of your way to get, and you relish it when you get it. Nudels are a great German dish. The Germans use them plentifully for the haus-frau knows their food value. She knows they are economical.

FAUST BRAND NUDELS

are the German home-made kind, produced after German recipes in a big factory kitchen where cleanliness is the countersign. They are made from Durum wheat, the best wheat for nudels, richest in gluten. Faust Nudels are dried in dust-tight rooms that revel in sunshine. Here they grow crisp, tender and tasty. They come to you in odor-proof, damp-proof, dust-proof packages that keep the contents fresh and pure for your enjoyment.

Woman's Greatest Trouble.

Big Sandy, Tenn.—Mrs. Lucy Cartrell, of this place, says: "Every two weeks, I had to go to bed and stay there several days. I suffered untold misery. Nothing seemed to help me, until I tried Cardul, the woman's tonic. Although I had been afflicted with womanly weaknesses for seven years, Cardul helped me more than anything else ever did. It is surely the best tonic for women on earth." Weakness is woman's greatest trouble. Cardul is woman's greatest medicine, because it overcomes that weakness and brings back strength. In the past 50 years, Cardul has helped over a million women. Try it for your troubles today.
