BANKER KILLED BY ROBBER

Died in Arms of Friends While His Assassin Was Being Captured.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] CENTRALIA, Wash., Dec. 30.—President Lawrence Bar, 73 years of age, of the Farmers' and Merchants' bank of Centralia, was shot and instantly killed here tonight in a desperate encounter with an unidentified highwayman, who attempted to rob the bank. The robber was captured a short time after the shooting, by Claude Kretff, a bank clerk, and several bystanders, who ran to the aid of the banker who had grappled with the fellow. Bar died in front of his bank in the arms of friends. He was shot three times through the body. The bandit was hurried to the county jail at Chehalis, three miles away, as it was feared he would be lynched. Two companions of the highwayman, who refused to give his name, were waiting outside the bank when the attempted robbery took place. They escaped and a posse was immediately organized to hunt them down.

Welcome to Cardinal. [United Press Leased Wire Service.] NEW YORK Dec. 30.—The plans for welcoming home Cardinal Farley on January 16, were completed today. It is estimated that 250,000 persons will line Broadway and Fifth avenue, while the procession of Catholic societies and organizations escort the cardinal from the battery to the cathedral. Several special steamers will meet the liner Berlin down the bay to welcome the returning churchman. Ninety thousand Catholics will be in line.

LABOR LEADERS UNDER ARREST

Until a late hour this afternoon United States District Attorney McCormick was in conference with Under Sheriff Brain and Detective McLaren of the Burns agency. It is believed that this conference had something to do with the removal of McManigal to Indianapolis, but neither McLaren, Brain or McCormick would talk. Immediately after the conference, McLaren and Brain hurried to the jail where McManigal is confined.

Arraigned Wednesday.

The preliminary arraignment of Tveitmo, Johanssen and Munsey will probably take place Wednesday morning, the United States district court having adjourned until that time.

E. A. Clancy, former vice president of the International organization of Iron Workers, also indicted, is ill in San Francisco. District Attorney McCormick said Clancy would have to face a charge of contempt of court as well as possible imprisonment under the indictment for returning to his home without permission.

The penalty for the offense with which the labor leaders are charged is a fine of not more than $10,000, nor more than two years imprisonment in a federal prison, or both. The alleged offenses are all under the jurisdiction of the Southern District of California, declared District Attorney McCormick. It is alleged in the indictments that the conspiracy has existed since January 1, 1910.

Speakes for Itself.

"The indictment speaks for itself. It was passed upon by a grand jury of exceptional standing and intelligence. It is not deemed improper, however, to say that, notwithstanding emphatic protestations on the part of certain so-called labor leaders of opposition to the dynamiting practices indulged in by the McNamaras, not one of them has lifted a hand to aid the officers of the law in their efforts to discover the truth. On the contrary, there has been exhibited a decided disposition to impede such efforts."

"The name of organized labor has been prostituted by a band of criminals and it seems to those conducting the investigation that, until labor leaders who have said that they were deceived by the McNamaras publicly demand from the later and all others a full and complete exposition of every detail of their dastardly operations, let whoever may be implicated thereby, and thus demonstrate a genuine respect for the law which has been so ruthlessly violated, doubts as to the good faith of such assertions are amply justified."

Decline to Discuss it. WASHINGTON, Dec. 30.—Beyond asserting that the American Federation of Labor, as an organization, was not in any way interested in the indictments returned today by the federal grand jury investigating the Los Angeles dynamiting, Secretary Morrison declined to discuss any phases of the matter.

"The only information we have is that furnished by the press," Morrison said. President Gompers left for New York tonight. He would not discuss the case.

the working classes. The institution of a board of public affairs of which the governor is chairman has entered into the work of investigating the high cost of living and other phases of public concern.

The executive calls attention also to the saving of the sum of $940,235 to tax payers of the state by proper use of funds in the state treasury.

BEN MARKS IS NOT GUILTY

Jury Brings in Verdict in His Favor After an Hour and a Half.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] COUNCIL BLUFFS, Iowa, Dec. 30.—"Not guilty" was the verdict of the jury at 11:30 tonight in the case of Ben Marks, millionaire political boss of Council Bluffs, on trial for the past month on a charge of conspiracy to defraud in giving alleged police protection to the Mabray gang, while it operated in this city.

All day attorneys argued the case and Judge Arthur gave his instructions at 10 o'clock.

Four ballots were taken, the first and second standing 8 for acquittal and 4 for guilty, the third was 9 to 3 and the fourth gave the aged politician his freedom. Only a few men were in the court room when the verdict was returned.

Attorney General Cosson, who prosecuted the case, says the failure of A. P. Fair, of Lincoln, Neb., to appear as a witness for the state caused his defeat.

State Fair Buildings. [United Press Leased Wire Service.] LINCOLN, Neb., Dec. 30.—A bill, providing that congress shall appropriate $100,000 to erect a federal building on the state fair grounds in every state supporting their faiths by public appropriation has been proposed by Secretary Mellere of the Nebraska Fair board and will be introduced in congress by a Nebraska representative in the near future.

Pool Ball in Mouth. [United Press Leased Wire Service.] PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 30.—To win a wager of $1 that he could put a pool ball in his mouth, Robert Wilson lost five teeth tonight. He succeeded in cramming the ball into his mouth but was unable to remove it. Doctors worked for five hours but were unable to get the ball from between the youth's jaws until they had extracted five of his front teeth.

Help is Sent. [United Press Leased Wire Service.] MADRID, Dec. 30.—Serious reverses suffered by the Spanish troops in the war with the Rif tribesmen in Morocco resulted tonight in the dispatch of a section of the Lusitania regiment and two gunboats to Melilla.

ECZEMA

Also Called Tetter, Salt Rheum, Pruritus, Milk-Crust, Weeping Skin, Etc.

ECZEMA CAN BE CURED TO STAY, and when I say cured, I mean just what I say—CURED, and not merely patched up for awhile, to return worse than before. Remember I make this broad statement after putting ten years of my time on this one disease and handling in the mean-time a quarter of a million cases of this dreadful disease. Now, I do not care what all you have used, nor how many doctors have told you that you could not be cured—ask just a chance to show you that I know what I am talking about. If you will write me TODAY, I will send you a FREE TRIAL of my mild, soothing, guaranteed cure that will convince you more in a day than I or anyone else could in a month's time. If you are disgusted and discouraged, I dare you to give me a chance to prove my claims. By writing me today you will enjoy more real comfort than you had ever thought this world holds for you. Just try it and you will see I am telling you the truth.

THE WORLD'S MARKETS

The Grain Market. [United Press Leased Wire Service.] CHICAGO, Dec. 30.—The last business day of 1911 was marked by no unusual stress on the board of trade. Prices of all commodities held firm, trading was brisk and there was no great change in prices, although in some cases shorts found they had held their commitments too long to get out at agreeable prices. Many will have to pocket losses for holding their contracts until the last day. A break in December wheat at the close saved many.

The week was one of bullish tendencies in the grain trade. Operators all along watched developments in Argentina and conditions in the northwest had a great deal to do with sustaining the boom.

May wheat ranged from 95% to 99% with July from 94% to 98 1/2%. Snow and rain over the corn belt during the last few days brought a strong start to the market and December shorts found themselves hemmed in. The market was of fair volume with moderate activity, the inclination was general for an advance on weather conditions. Short before the close had sent the December crop up 3 1/2c. The other months were firm with small changes, May ranging from 63% to 63 1/2% and July from 63% to 63 1/2%.

Oats opened very strong but before the close the strength was largely lost but it did not react to prices of the previous day's final figures. May ranged from 47 1/2 to 47% and July being almost stationary at 43% to 43 1/2%.

The day's business in provisions commenced at a lower figure because of the reports of a lower hog market in the yards. The market reacted, however, and the tone became firmer. Much of the trade in the provision pit was in transferring the January trades to more distant futures.

YORK, Dec. 30.—That the end of the year found the stock market in a chaotic condition will be the assertion of Financial America, in its issue of Monday. Strength and weakness alternated, it will say with the tone at the end of the last day showing a fair degree of strength. The outlook for the early part of the new year, it will say, is for a period of extensive dullness with the tendency toward narrowness in all lines of business because of the imminence of the political campaign.

The steel trade, it will say, is on the upward move with pronounced improvement indicated in all of its lines. The insolvency of the Wabash Railway and the Allis-Chalmers Co., it is asserted, will work benefit to the business world in that both properties will be reorganized on a stronger plane. There is also much comfort to be gained, according to the paper, from the rehabilitation of the Third Avenue and Metropolitan street railway properties, and their turning back to the stockholders in the reorganized companies.
