FOR MEN
 The Men's class in the Sunday school, taught by C. R. Joy, is studying the "Social Significance of the Teachings of Jesus," by Dr. Jenks. The second lesson Sunday deals with the preparation of Jesus for the social work that He did. It will consider His social and political environment. The fact that He wrought as a workman will be taken into account. The sympathy He would thus receive as He looked forward to His work and the fact that out of this He came to understand the needs and aspirations of the common people. The whole of the early training of Jesus as recorded in the Gospels will be reviewed.
 The Young Men's class under the leadership of A. W. Hulson is studying the Life of St. Paul. Other classes are arranged in the Sunday school at 9:45 suitable for all who can attend.
