Col. Roosevelt Entertains Newspaper Men With a Lecture on the War President of the Country.

LETTERS FROM LINCOLN

Called the Reporters in on Promise to Talk and Then Did Not Say Anything About Politics.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] NEW YORK, Feb. 8.—Referring to the famous war president as a "progressive with a bridge on," Colonel Roosevelt pointed out extracts from speeches and letters of President Lincoln which he said had a peculiar significance in their application to his own position at present.

"The colonel assembled the newspaper men in the main office of the Outlook and remarked: "This is the first class in applied decent politics. "You have noticed, young gentlemen," he said, "on frequent occasions I have told you I had nothing to say for publication. I want to read you the following from a letter written by Mr. Lincoln in 1859 to C. F. McNeill: "I have made this explanation to you as a friend; but I wish no explanation made to our enemies. What they want is a squabble and a fuss, and they can have it if we explain and they cannot have it if we don't."

DOCTORS GAVE HER UP

Mrs. Stuart Finally Saved By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—Her Story Interesting.

Elmo, Mo.—"I think your Vegetable Compound is wonderful for it has helped me. I had four doctors and they said I had female troubles and a tumor and nothing but an operation would help me. I could not sit still long enough to eat, and could sleep hardly any I was in so much misery with pains in my side and back.

"A year ago last spring my doctor gave me up, and he was surprised to see me this spring and to see my condition. I give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound the praise wherever I go for I know I would not be here today or have our fine baby boy if I had not taken it."

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the standard remedy for female ills.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

you. I have not decided that I will not do substantially what you suggest. If I do finally abstain, it will be because of apprehension that it will do harm. For the good men of the south—and I regard the majority of them as such—I have no objection to repeating seventy and seven times. But I have had men to deal with both north and south, men who are eager for something new upon which to base misrepresentation; men who would like to frighten me or at least to fix upon me the character of timidity and cowardice. They would seize upon almost any letter I should write as being "an awful coming down." I intend keeping my eye upon these gentlemen and to not unnecessarily put any weapons in their hands."

that if they would bring to him a certain history of the "life of Abraham Lincoln," he would point out to them certain places in which he and Lincoln had been in similar positions. In further reference to capital and labor, Roosevelt quoted Lincoln as follows: "Capital has its rights, which are as worthy of protection as any other rights. Nor is it to be denied that there is, and probably always will be a relation between capital and labor, producing mutual benefits."

Mrs. John Drew Better.

McLeansboro, Ill.—"About five years ago," says Mrs. John L. Drew, of this place, "I was afflicted with pains and irregularity every month. I suffered continually, was weak and despondent, and unable to do my housework. I took Cardui, and in one month, I felt like a new woman and worked hard all summer. I am now in perfect health, and recommend Cardui to all suffering women." Every day, during the past 50 years, Cardui has been steadily forging ahead as a result of its proven value in female troubles. It relieves headache, backache, womanly misery and puts fresh strength into weary bodies. Try it.

eny as bailer. Quillin was freed when the court quashed the first indictment but the banker was immediately arrested on a secret indictment containing the new charge. He gave bail.

While it is often impossible to prevent an accident, it is never impossible to be prepared—it is not beyond one's purse. Invest 25 cents in a bottle of Chamberlain's Liniment and you are prepared for sprains, bruises and like injuries. Sold by Wilkinson & Co., and J. F. Kiedaisch & Son.

The Kimmel Case. [United Press Leased Wire Service.] ST. LOUIS, Feb. 8.—An attempt to prove that George A. Kimmel had only $210 instead of $20,000 to his credit as alleged, and that he owed $52,000 when he disappeared in 1908, will be made during the third trial of the identity mystery case now on here.

Attorneys spent the most part of the day in outlining the case they expect to lay before the jury. Attorneys for the insurance company against which suit is being brought, expect to prove the long missing Kimmel was mentally unbalanced.
