Otto Hess is Come Back. [United Press Leased Wire Service.] CLEVELAND, Ohio, May 10.—Pitcher Otto Hess, of the Boston Nationals, is one of the season's come backs. It was thought he had ended his major league career in 1908 when, after four years with the Naps, he was sold to New Orleans. He pitched good ball in the Southern league, and Boston acquired him this year. Hess' work is being watched. He held the Cubs to one hit yesterday in Chicago but has already been knocked out of the box once.

TRACK TEAM GOES TO IOWA CITY

Five Men Will Represent the Local School in the Inter-Scholastic Meet To Be Held Tomorrow.

TEBEAU IS NOT GOING

Keokuk Lad Was Counted on for Sure Points in the Broad and High Jumps But Cannot Go.

Keokuk High school will attend the inter-scholastic track meet held at Iowa City Saturday. The athletes left this morning in charge of Arthur Morgan, manager of the Tri-State meet, who will manage the team at Iowa City.

Only five men are representing Keokuk out of the bunch who are eligible for entrance. Tebeau, who was counted on for sure points in the broad and high jumps, is unable to go. The men who will try to lower the colors of the other schools in this state are Jenkins, Hawkes, Robertson, Bowly and Heineman. Jenkins is entered in the 440 yard run and the relay race. Hawkes in the shot put and discus. Robertson in the relay, Bowly in the relay, 220 low hurdles, broad jump and 100 yard dash and Heineman in the 100 and 220 yard dashes and the relay.

Heineman Big Man.

Heineman is the man depended upon for the points more than any other. If the first men get away to any kind of a good start, he is almost sure to capture the relay race. He is also one of the best bets in the 100 yard and 220 yard dashes.

Hawkes has a good chance in the weights and should capture some points. Jenkins, on past performances is in line for points in the 440 yard run and Bowly should make a good showing in the low hurdles.

Thirty-Two Schools.

Thirty-two schools are reported to have entered in the meet and some hot competition is looked for. Many of the records established at previous meets are expected to be broken as all of the schools are paying a great deal of attention to track athletics.

Bad Start in Relay.

A great deal of talk has been occasioned in the past week over the way in which the relay race was pulled off at the tri-state meet last Saturday. It is said that the starter, Ratcliffe, did not give the timers a signal when the men were started and that the time was not taken for the Keokuk men, who led all the way around and won the event easily. A protest was entered but no attention was paid to it by the officials. Had the race been given to Keokuk, where it rightly belonged, it would have given the local school first place in the meet. No time was taken at all for the leading teams. The third team that crossed the line was the only one that any record is found of.

Captain Bowly of the High school team is in Muscatine, where he was called by the death of his grandfather, but will go to Iowa City Friday in plenty of time to take part in the meet. The absence of Tebeau is the thing that has taken more confidence out of the hearts of the supporters of the local school than anything else.

CROSS, SICK, FEVERISH CHILDREN NEED GENTLE, THOROUGH CASCARETS.

Most of the ills of childhood are caused by a sour, disordered stomach, sluggish liver and constipated bowels. They catch cold easily become cross, listless, irritable, feverish, restless, tongue coated, don't eat or sleep well and need a gentle, thorough physic—but don't try to force a nauseating dose of oil into the little one's already sick stomach—it is cruel, needless and old-fashioned.

Any child will gladly take Cascarets which act gently—never gripe or produce the slightest uneasiness—through cleanses the little one's system, sweetens the stomach and puts the liver and bowels in a pure, healthy condition.

Full directions for children and grown-ups in each package. Mothers can rest easy after giving this gentle, thorough laxative which costs only 10 cents per box.

May go to Court.

NEW YORK, May 10.—Steps were taken today to bring to Attorney General Carmody's attention the action of Referee Patsey Haley in declaring Jim Stewart, of Brooklyn, the victor over "Gunboat" Smith of California, in ten round bout at the National S. C. last night. The state athletic commission has decided that the granting of a decision is a violation of the new Fraylaw law. Haley's act was the first decision granted in this city in ten years.

Sporting Views

By the Editor

That Colman is badly in need of pitchers is now well known. Yesterday he wired Bob Roberts, who tried out with the Indians, to report to Muscatine for a try-out. Roberts is a pitcher and the only reason that he was turned loose by the Indians is the fact that he could not find the plate. He has worked out every day, however, and is now in shape to get into the game. If he pitches in anything like his real form, Colman will have one good pitcher at least.

Davy Moore is getting along nicely and with the exception of a slight stiffness in his knee, is ready to jump into the game. His shoulder, which was hurt as the result of a collision with McGrath, second baseman for the high school team, is also healing nicely and will give him no more trouble. He will not join the team on the road, though, but will wait for them here and open with them in the series with Hannibal.

Muscatine has released Adams, Anderson, Baker, Painter, Milan and Koepfer. Adams is the man who pitched the second game of the series here and was turned loose on account of his wildness. Anderson did not have the class that was shown by Fletcher around the second base territory and was unloped. Painter was also superfluous with Fletcher in the lineup and is a free agent. The others were all unavailable material and were let go because Colman had to come down to the limit of thirteen men.

Quiesser will have to let two men go before Saturday as he is now carrying fifteen men. The limit is thirteen men including the manager and is supposed to be cut down by May first. In view of the unfavorable weather this spring, though, President Justice allowed the managers ten days longer in which to look their men over. This extension of time has been of great benefit to all of the teams for some of them have developed men in the last few days that looked like almost anything but ball players at the start of the season.

The sport writer on the Muscatine paper puts it this way: "Without apology to B. L. T. of the Chicago Tribune, we desire to assert that our own irrevocable conception of zero in occupations is being a baseball reporter on a Muscatine newspaper just now."

It is barely possible that he figures it a little better after yesterday's game.

Hannibal has released Fred Bishop, a catcher who signed a contract with the Herrites some time ago and developed into one of the speediest backstops in the league. The salary limit is given as the cause for turning him loose.

AMUSEMENTS.

Aldome Opening a Great Success.

People flocked to the Aldome last night to attend the opening, making the largest crowd at any opening thus far. This popular summer play house has been tastefully redecorated and presents the coziest place imaginable. Everything, even to the seats is painted snow white and it occurs to the writer, a better name for this comfortable theatre would be the White City, after the great amusement park in Chicago by that name.

The excellent opening went off remarkably smooth for an opening night and each number made a decided hit especially Knapp and Murray, the two clever comedians in their own comedy sketch "The Millionaire and the Ice-man." They kept the big audience in a roar of laughter from start to finish and no one can help but pronounce them the greatest team of comedians ever in vaudeville in Keokuk.

Harry Mayer the musical tramp is a whole show within himself. He plays on the piano, cello, bells, etc., and although his tramp appearance would not indicate it, he is an artist on each instrument.

Too much praise cannot be given Harvey G. Hull, who has always been popular here as a singer. It is commonly known he can sing any kind of a character song, Dutch, Irish, Scotch, etc., and make a hit with it, but never had he been heard before in a "sissy" song. But he is there in that line, too, for last night he sang "Whoops, My Dear," in great "sissy" style, and received tremendous applause.

The opening pictures consisted of an Indian Pathé and a comedy Esanay, both of which were fine. Arthur Hull announced an expert operator arrives today to take charge of the moving picture part of the program insuring the very best in that line.

All in all the opening was the grandest success yet. The three piece orchestra was fine, the show is great and the large crowd left with praises on their lips for Keokuk's great summer theatre—the Aldome.

Compared With Paderewski. Mrs. Hillberg, who went to Cedar Rapids to play with the New York Symphony orchestra at the May music festival held there on Wednesday, won great praise for her work at the piano. The Republican of Thursday said of the gifted Keokuk artist:

The afternoon program yesterday was made distinctive, and given distinction by two features, the singing of Mr. Middleton and playing of Mrs. Wilma Hultgren Hillberg, the concerto creating a veritable sensation. There was applause enough for half a dozen encores, but the player, tired after her strenuous work, contented herself with bowing her thanks to her audience. Even her bows had something distinctive about them—they were like her playing, individual, personal and distinctive. Not since Mr. Paderewski has played the piano in Cedar Rapids has such an artist at that instrument appeared here. Those who missed yesterday afternoon missed one of the rarest of all the infinite variety of treats that have been given the people during this wonderful festival season. Mrs. Hillberg's manner at the piano is that of the artist who loves the instrument. There was nothing stagey, or conventional. She looks good sitting before the keys and the moment she touched her fingers to the keys they began to speak a language that moved all who heard her. The wonderful music poured from the instrument as naturally as the song pours from the throat of the bird that sings because it doesn't know how not to sing.

She with the orchestra, played the Concerto in B flat minor, by Tschalkowsky, in three movements, Allegro maestoso, andantino and finale. The work of the orchestra was delightful, in connection with the piano and Mr. Damrosch, who believes in Mrs. Hillberg's art, took a keen delight in conducting for this number. The conductor, himself showed that he was charmed with the playing. The one regret with this number was that it was not long enough.

Quite a few from this place were enroute to Davenport Thursday to visit relatives in that city. Elder Miller will conduct a few days meetings at the Latter Day Saints church.

Mrs. Louie Johnson accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Ella Johnson to her home at Milan, Iowa where she expects to remain permanently. The memorial sermon will be delivered at the M. E. church Sunday, May 26th, by Elder James McKernan of Farmington.
