

Clothing Goodness

WE'VE been printing some pretty strong arguments recently about the clothes we sell and why you should wear them, but after all is said about them which can be said, the strongest argument in their favor is

Weil Clothes.

No man can examine them, critically, without being convinced of their goodness, and when compared with other clothes—the better the clothes used for comparison the better the test—the verdict rendered is sure to be in favor of

Weil Clothes.

But the best test possible is the test of service. For thirty-two years under the present management (the business started 61 years ago) we've been selling better clothes each season. For thirty-two years our business has shown an increase in volume each year. Men who wear the clothes we sell are the best advertisers of Weil Clothes.

Yet there are men in and near Keokuk who have not learned of the advantages we offer in larger assortments, wider variety and better values. If you are one of them, we want to say to you, with all the earnestness we can put into words

You Ought to Wear Weil's Clothes for Goodness Sake

We sell men's suits as low as $7.50 and as high as $30; spring overcoats from $7.50 to $22.50; raincoats from $5.00 to $22.50; boy's suits from $2.50 to $8.50—and put into every garment all the value possible for the price.

The Man of Good Clothes Judgment Knows There is a Big Difference in Tailoring.

The men who demand the most, who investigate thoroughly, who satisfy themselves on every detail, who insist upon the highest quality of fabrics and absolute reliability as regards style are the class of men we cater to.

It takes more than a tape measure to be a merchant tailor, you can't get good clothes without paying for what good tailoring is worth.

We don't make cheap clothes for the reason we don't handle that class of woollens or labor. Our garments are not sent out of town and made in a factory such as so-called tailoring. Our garments are made in our own workshop by the most skilled of tailors.

Our patrons have the advantage of making their selection out of a large stock of high grade woollens such as shown only by recognized first-class tailors.

For Summer Wear

We are showing a line of high class fabrics, the newest for summer wear. Light weight materials in greys, tans, and blues, also a swell line of outing fabrics for two-piece garments, Imported Wool Crashes, Flannels and White Serges.
