CITY NEWS.

—For rent, desirable rooms for single gentlemen. Baker R. E. Co.
—Ed. S. Lofton, Jr., who has been seriously ill of typhoid fever, is progressing favorably toward complete recovery. While the hot weather of the past few days has been hard on him, his temperature has been steadily reduced and he is now about out of danger. He will be confined to his home for a couple of weeks.
—Have harness repaired at Sherwood's.
—There is great demand for labor all over the country and the indications for heavy fall and winter business was never better. In Keokuk labor can find employment in plenty and in this issue appears an advertisement from the Atlas Portland Cement Co., of Hannibal, Mo., offering high wages to American and foreign labor for eight hour shifts.
—Children's all solid glazed kid blucher school shoes for $1.25 and $1.50, at Miller's.
—Wm. Holland has bought the entire new stock of Tony Connors & Co. at 805 Main street, including household goods, a fine line of brass beds, chiffoniers, felt mattresses, china closets, etc. Having bought the stock at 25c on the dollar will sell them at a very low price to close out. Will sell or trade. What have you?
—Everybody in Keokuk should see Keokuk horses go at Kahoka fair next Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. They are: Jimmie Hirst's Bob Heir, H. E. Alton's Everett B., and M. J. Cahill's Lill McWood.
—Rev. R. W. Lilley of the First Christian church, goes to Centerville, where he will make the Labor Day address. A number of the towns in the vicinity of Centerville are to have a joint celebration, and Rev. Lilley will talk to those people on "The Relation of the Church to Organized Labor."
—Schmidt, Keokuk's best electrician, 18 South Eleventh. Phone 655.
—The Knights of Columbus from the three councils in Keokuk, Fort Madison and Burlington are to meet in the annual tri-city meeting held the first Sunday in October in Fort Madison, when the higher degrees will be conferred on a number of candidates from the three cities. There will be in the neighborhood of a dozen candidates from this city.
—Buy a new buggy cheap at Sherwood's.
—The Unitarian Woman's Alliance meeting will not be held Monday, Sept. 3. Postponed until Sept. 9. The Unitarian Sunday school will open Sunday, Sept. 8, instead of Sept. 1.
—William Ertel, a former bartender in the Klingbell saloon, was arrested yesterday in Hamilton and brought back to this city to face a charge of robbery. The Klingbell saloon safe is said to have been robbed of $60 in broad daylight, and Ertel is thought to have known something about the disappearance of the money. Chief Schevers and Officer Wilson went to Hamilton after Ertel yesterday.
—Buy all driver's articles at Sherwood's.
—Quincy Journal: Hugh L. Cooper has written the Chamber of Commerce that he expects to be in Quincy next Tuesday, when arrangements will be made with the Quincy people in regard to the power that is to be furnished by the Cooper dam when it is completed. This will be one of the first steps taken in Quincy that will give definite information of what inducements and advantages the dam has for this city. The Chamber of Commerce authorities will know more fully after Mr. Cooper's visit what offers they may make to manufacturers who may desire to locate here.
—Union made clothing, gloves, etc. at Connables.
—The following patents were granted to Iowans for the week ending August 27, 1912, as reported from the office of Wilfred C. —The hotel soliciting committee held a meeting Saturday afternoon at the Elks club and canvassed the work done during the past few weeks toward raising the $75,000 toward the $300,000 hotel. The committee, composed of L. A. Hamill, Wells M. Irwin, Asaph Buck, John Nagel, B. B. Hobbs, H. R. Calkin, F. A. Wilmering, Myrie Baker and Al Kindsch has performed valiant work and so far as the Keokuk end of the proposition is concerned they will be able to report success when the time comes. A meeting will be held in Milwaukee between J. P. Allen and Frank J. Matchette when the Keokuk proposition will receive further discussion and consideration. It is expected that plans and other features connected with the proposition will receive careful consideration. One thing is assured—that Keokuk will get the $300,000 hotel and get it in time to take care of the

Smart New Clothes

The Fall Hat Show here is of surpassing interest to men who know. All the new things are here in dependable qualities—and invariably more value, for the price you pay, than others give.

for the High School Fellow

Nobody knows better what's what in clothes than the high school fellows. The new fall models we are showing were designed with such fellows in view. The styles have snap, cleverness and individuality. But there is dignity in the complete harmony produced by the artistic designing combined with skillful tailoring.

We are proud and enthusiastic over our display of the new tans, browns, grays and blues. It's a marvelous show of fine Suits and Overcoats.

$10.00 to $30.00

thousands of visitors who will be here next year. However, the work of the local soliciting committee is not finished and the members will call on those who have not subscribed.

—For electrical work go to Schmidt.

—A. D. Lindsey formerly with the Lindsey Tailoring Co., has opened a tailoring establishment at No. 11 North Fourth street where he extends an invitation to the men of Keokuk and surrounding territory to visit him and look over his brand new stock of woolsens that he has for the fall and winter wear which includes all the latest of the most attractive patterns ever gotten together in one stock. Mr. Lindsey knows how to please the well dressed men and he is going to do it in goods, material, style, fit, workmanship and prices. You can have a tailored to order suit for a little money at his establishment, No. 11 North Fourth street. Special attention given to cleaning, pressing and repairing of men and women's clothes.

Plan Children's Saving Banks.
The Hampshire (England) county education committee has under consideration a scheme for teaching thrift among children by establishing in the lower and infant schools a savings bank on the lines of the post office. All sums deposited will remain untouched to the end of school life, to be used for helping the children when starting work.

FASHION HINTS

A new model in Fall tailor-made suits shows the semi-belted effect that bids fair to be popular. Skirts keep to their trim and slender outlines in spite of plaits that peep from beneath front and back panels.

FUNERAL RECORD

Charles L. Carpenter.
The funeral services over the remains of Charles L. Carpenter were held at the family residence near Sandusky yesterday morning at 10 o'clock and were conducted by Rev. Dr. Ezra B. Newcomb of the First Westminster Presbyterian church of Keokuk, and were very largely attended. The burial followed at Oakland cemetery.

Joseph Bode.
The funeral of Joseph Bode was held at the parental home, 1427 Fulton street, at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Rev. James Connor officiated at the services, after which the burial took place at Cedar cemetery, near Summitville.

The pallbearers were Edward Renard, Earl Dowell, Robert Loewenstein, Will Chink, H. H. Vanauld and H. J. Hill.

Justice Carter.
ELECTED PRESIDENT
American Institute of Criminal Law and Criminology Finished Annual Convention.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] MILWAUKEE Wis., Aug. 31.—Orlin N. Carter, chief justice of the Illinois supreme court, was elected president of the American Institute of Criminal Law and Criminology at the close of the annual convention here late today.

Eugene A. Gilmore, Madison, Wis., was elected secretary and Bronson Winthrop, New York, treasurer.

The following vice presidents were elected: Charles A. Derouche, Lawrence, Mass.; Franklin A. Randall, St. Cloud, Minn.; Charles R. Pederson, Chicago; Robert W. McLaughrey, Ft. Leavenworth, Kas.; Jane Addams, Chicago.

Worked Hatchet Overtime.
[United Press Leased Wire Service.] CENTRAL CITY, Ky., Aug. 31.—Fearing that his wife might get the divorce which she was making arrangements to secure, after two months of married life, C. O. Dutsinger, a tailor, made a vicious assault on her and her attorney, James Stroud, with a hatchet. Dutsinger probably fatally wounded his wife and injured Stroud severely, then went back to his tailor shop and set fire to it. Not satisfied, he tried to hang himself and when he was unsuccessful, attacked himself with a hatchet and had almost ended his life when the officers arrested him.

Guest Room Slate.
One of the greatest conveniences which a hostess can devise for her guests is a clearly written card set on the bedroom writing table detailing the hours of meals, the times of incoming and outgoing posts, the principal trains and other useful information.

It was someone's clever idea to provide a small china slate in each room, on which might be written instructions for the housemaid. It is often difficult to find her during the day in order to ask for the hot bottle, the glass of warm milk, the necessary help when dressing for dinner, or other needs that may be required, and to ring for her often is not desirable.

Story of Chicago Physician.
A prominent physician tells this story: A poor woman went to a nearby dispensary to ask aid for her little son who had one of his fingers smashed with a baseball bat. At the first room where she applied a curt attendant told her that the boy could not be treated there. "Wrong place," he explained, "this is the eye and the ear department." "Vere is der thumb and finger department?" inquired the woman, simply.
