

MRS. W. F. HILL DIED AT CAPITAL

Was Taken Dangerously Ill While on a Visit to Her Stricken Father at Cambria, Iowa.

WAS ILL SEVEN WEEKS

Was Taken From Her Father's Home to Des Moines Hospital, But the Disease Would Not Yield.

The sad intelligence was received early yesterday morning by Mrs. Henry M. Kirby, 819 North Eleventh street, of the death of her sister, Mrs. W. F. Hill, of Mitchell, S. D., who died at the Murphy hospital, Des Moines, Iowa, at 11:30 o'clock Friday night, after suffering several weeks of peritonitis, undergoing an operation hoping for relief.

Mrs. Hill was well known to many people in Keokuk where she had visited with her sister Mrs. Kirby, several times, her last visit here being about two years ago. She was born at Cambria, Iowa, and would have been forty-eight years of age had she lived until the 17th of March. Several weeks ago she came to her old Iowa home, called there by the serious illness of her father and shortly after arrival was attacked with the fatal disease. About five weeks ago she was taken to Des Moines where every effort was made for her relief. Several eminent physicians were brought into the case but her condition proved beyond the skill of the medical profession.

Mrs. Hill was a bright, lovable woman of refinement and culture. She was a graduate of the Allerton high school and bountifully supplied with all that could be desired about a happy home. Her husband is president of a large seed company at Mitchell, and is also president of a bank at Alexandria, from which place the family had recently removed to Mitchell. They had the foundation laid for an elegant new brick residence and had prepared to continue its construction just as soon as spring opened. But death entered the happy family, exemplifying the words, "Man proposes and God disposes."

Mrs. Hill was an exemplary member of the Presbyterian church at Mitchell, always active and earnest in her work for the cause she espoused. She will be sadly missed in the congregation and community in which she lived and her death will cause a pang of sorrow among those in Keokuk whom she met during her several visits here.

She is survived by her husband, W. F. Hill, and six sons, ranging in age from nineteen to eight years. She is also survived by her parents Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Kellogg and one brother Edward Kellogg all of Cambria, Iowa, and one sister Mrs. Henry M. Kirby.

YOUNG MAN THOUGHT TO BE A SUICIDE

Son of Prominent Druggist Found Dead With Revolver Lying Close.

CENTER, Mo., March 1.—Rex Clark, 29-year-old son of Thomas L. Clark, well known druggist, was found dead in his father's barn last evening, with a bullet wound through his heart. A revolver lying close to the body supported the theory of suicide, which is generally accepted.

No reason can be given for the deed, as the young man was of good habits and in no difficulty of any sort, that is now known. The body was found in the loft of the barn by a man who had some goods stored there, and but for his visit would probably have remained undiscovered for days, as the barn was not in use. No inquest was held.

The Nauvoo Gate City

Nauvoo, Ill., March 2, 1913

Suppose you were to select the first fifty persons you encounter on, say, Mulholland street, and ask them to form an opinion on opening said street west to the river. Have you Nauvoo people any notion of what answers you would get? Perhaps not, except that the result would almost certainly be open it at once.

It is too early, anyway, to look for harbingers of spring. The Nauvoo city council members will meet in regular session next Monday night.

Occasionally parties in Hancock county leave to make their abode in other states. Their idea so it is understood, was to better themselves. Every once in a while we read of such migrations from this section. Within a year we also read that many have returned and that Hancock county is the only place to comfortably live in, only folks have to travel to other states, live in them a while and come to themselves before they find it out.

The best thing Nauvoo ever had is a Commercial club. Everybody in Nauvoo and civic enthusiasm ought to run high. For 1913 a long list of improvements is contemplated and every member ought to pledge themselves to make good before winter months again make their return.

Geo. Schmidt, a former Nauvoo boy who has been making his home in Keokuk for several years has taken charge of a saloon in Keokuk and will dish out grape, hop and corn juice. George has many friends in Nauvoo who wish him success.

Some of Nauvoo's citizens are away ahead of the times. They have their summer wood cut ready for the stove.

The ladies of the M. E. church held a market day in the Benson Sister's ice cream parlors Saturday.

John Reimbold, our mail and express agent, is having a neat little cottage built on Knight street.

Karl Bros. have the contract for erecting Wes. Schneider's new residence on Knight street.

Our fire laddies were called out on Saturday evening of last week to the Herman Schenk residence near the Catholic church where a chimney fire was raging. It didn't amount to much. There is no keener brand of disappointment to some folks than when the fire bell rings out a false alarm.

There are few residents of Nauvoo who have lived in one place as long as Uncle Paul Bechtum. He has lived here for many years and bids fair to reach the 100 notch. His many friends in Nauvoo sincerely hope that he will be here when Gabriel blows his horn for the resurrection.

It is reported that hen roost robbers are making visits to our poultry yards.

Subscribers to the Nauvoo library fund were called together to decide on the best plan to organize an association last Tuesday evening. Committees were appointed to formulate plans to organize.

Any of you people who want a particular favor, right now is a good time to get busy on the matter, and the party to get concerning the same is Mr. Geo. Hart. The reason for the sudden display of liberality on the part of Mr. G. H. is the mention of the fact that along about 7:30 and 8:30 a. m. last Sunday the stork got to fooling around his comfortable "nice homes row" and left twin girl babies at his respective place of abode and domicile. Mrs. G. H. and the "young twins" are doing splendid. Mr. George Hart is now a life-sized, full-fledged member of the community of the "Biggest Little Nauvoo."

The doctor is the first person we meet when we come into this world, and unless we go out by accident or other unexpected summons, he is the last with us when we leave it. Such devotion is worthy of the highest praise, and that is often about all the doctors gets for it. Still, he keeps at it because practice makes perfect, and a doctor without practice isn't worth much.

Last Sunday evening Mr. Ellis Daugherty, our butcher, was treated to a very pleasant surprise party by a bunch of two dozen of his friends, it being his twenty-ninth birthday anniversary. All who were fortunate enough to be present report a scrumptious time. Mr. Daugherty was presented with a fine rocking chair as a remembrance of the day. His good wife prepared a fine birthday cake for the occasion.

The Nauvoo city primaries will be held Tuesday, March 11, and the following candidates have announced themselves to be placed on the ticket of the democrats: L. B. Hobbs and George Hart, mayor; Wm. Hemmy, city attorney; Jos. Nelson, Jr., city clerk; Jos. W. Wglter, treasurer; Geo. Buckert, alderman first ward; W. H. Bicker and Geo. Dachroth, aldermen second ward. Frank Kerl will run for alderman in the second ward on the socialist ticket and Milton Morrill for mayor. There has been no one selected for alderman in the third ward.

Eight members from Nauvoo and vicinity were admitted into the Eagles at Keokuk at a recent meeting. There will be enough Eagles in Nauvoo and vicinity to organize a lodge here at no very distant day.

An old log house on the Lange property said to have been erected by the Mormons in the early forties has recently been razed. We are sorry to hear of these old landmarks disappearing one by one and would like to see some of them preserved and become a fixture in Nauvoo.

Nauvoo will soon open its public library and when all arrangements are completed the fast-arriving books will be catalogued and placed upon the shelves. The new institution will be maintained by the annual dues of a large membership. This new enterprise is one of the many that Nauvoo is boosting for and getting, too, the moment it puts the shoulder to the wheel of civic uplift.

Rumor has it that a meat market may be established in the third ward at no far distant day. It will be started for the accommodation of the third ward residents.

Mr. Ellis Daugherty and your reporter took a business trip to Warsaw last Tuesday going by the overland trail.

Sleighing at this time in Nauvoo is good and many citizens and farmers are enjoying this pastime.

The Reimbold variety store goods are being moved into the building vacated by Jeweler Russell. The Reimbold people lose one of the best business stands in Nauvoo.

Three weeks from Sunday is Easter and the Nauvoo ladies are wishing for a fine day which will give them an opportunity to exhibit their new suits.

Nauvoo's saloonkeepers will be allowed to enjoy three holidays in March and April. The primaries will occur in March and the township and city elections in April. And on the last evening in April occurs another very important time for them. They are compelled to liquidate $1,000, the annual license which must be paid into the city treasury. All Nauvoo saloons must be closed on the above election days.

GREAT INCREASE OF GERMAN ARMY

Fortune to be Used This Year to Put Kaiser in Position to Fight.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] BERLIN, March 1.—Germany will appropriate $250,000,000 for an army and navy increase, according to the Lokal Anzeiger and the Cologne Gazette today. Both newspapers are inspired organs of the kaiser.

An extraordinary summer session of the reichstag will be held, it is said, for the purpose of voting the appropriation.

The war lord himself is quoted as saying that Germany needs a larger army, better equipment for it, and more warships and a high percentage close to the kaiser was quoted in the newspapers as saying:

"The year 1913 was a year of sacrifices. Let 1913 be the same. Conditions are now grave."

EIGHTEEN BODIES BROUGHT TO SURFACE

Miners Were Entombed on October 12 and Corpses Are Just Recovered.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] HOBART, Tasmania, March 1.—Pitiful scenes were enacted at the mouth of the North Mount Lyell mine today when eighteen bodies of miners who were entombed in the disaster of October 12, were brought to the surface. Scores of widows and mothers gathered at the top of the shaft in an endeavor to recognize and claim the remains of some member of the family.

The recovery of these bodies brings the death total to forty-five. Further search has been abandoned because of the fierce fire which still rages in portions of the mine.

Judge Lindsey Is Ill.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] DENVER, Colo., March 1.—Judge Ben B. Lindsey of the juvenile court is seriously ill at his home here. He is suffering from a complication of ailments, principally a nervous breakdown. He also caught a severe cold during the recent commission form of government campaign. His nervous breakdown is the result of overwork. The physicians have warned him that unless he abandons all work for a time his condition may become dangerous.

TEACHERS ANNUITY BILL PLEASERS

Members of Iowa Legislature Speak Well of Measure Just Introduced.

DES MOINES, March 1.—The teacher's annuity bill, introduced in the house by Representative Hazen, and in the senate by Senator Cowles, has been very well received by the members of the legislature and by the friends of educators. It is a state-wide bill, including all city, town and rural teachers. It contains no new or untried features but does follow, in important matters, the most approved sections of laws now in successful operation in other states.

The sub-committee in the house has revised the bill to meet the only serious objections that have been raised to the original bill. The permanent fund has been safeguarded. The bill as revised will apply to all teachers who may hereafter begin teaching or enter the state, but no teacher now in the service will be compelled to accept its provisions and "no teacher shall be discriminated against on account of refusal to come within the provisions of this act in renewing his or her contract.

IN SUCH PAIN WOMAN TORE HER CLOTHES

Testifies She Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Malone, N. Y.,— "Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has certainly done me a lot of good. I first heard of it when I was a girl and I always said that if I ever had female trouble I would take it."

"I suffered from organic inflammation and would have spells when I would be in such pain that I would tear my clothes. One day my husband got the neighbors in to see what the matter was but they could not help me. My first thought was for Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I sent my husband out for it and took it until I was entirely cured. I am a woman of perfect health and my health and happiness came from Lydia E. Pinkham's medicine. You may rest assured that I do all I can to recommend your wonderful medicine to my friends."—Mrs. FRED STONE, Route No. 3, Malone, N. Y.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the standard remedy for female ills.
