MRS. HAGANDER'S DEATH AT NAUVOO

Had Been Ill for Seven Years—Went to Texas for Relief and Returned to Nauvoo.

Wednesday of last week, The Gate City announced briefly the death of Mrs. Alfred Hagander at the home of her father, Michael Baumert at Nauvoo. She had many friends in Keokuk who esteemed her highly in life and deeply mourned her death. She had been ill for seven years and even to the last bore her illness with calm resignation, typical of her beautiful life.

A writer in the Nauvoo Independent this tenderly refers to her last hours: "Toward the end when she began to realize that she must go, she was perfectly resigned, and faced the 'Great Destroyer' in the serene and unshakable belief that the almighty hand of God would uphold her in her journey to that 'beautiful place' beyond. It was thus our Emma peacefully sank into her last sleep."

What a calm and trustful life of faith this young wife and mother must have lived to meet the hour of death so serenely and beautifully.

The following biographical story is gleaned from the Independent: Emma Cecelia Baumert was born at Nauvoo, Ill., July 21, 1891, being the youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Baumert, Sr. In that city she grew into womanhood. She was graduated from the Nauvoo high school in the class of 1900. She was married to Alfred Hagander of Keokuk, September 21, 1902. They resided in Keokuk after their marriage, until February, 1911, when the family went to Houston, Texas, for the benefit of her health, being a sufferer from heart and lung trouble. After a short residence at Houston, they went to Waco. When a year's residence in Texas gave no evidence of being beneficial to her health, she and her son Ralph returned to the home of her father at Nauvoo, where she had the tenderest and most loving care until the hand of death was laid upon her.

She is survived by her husband of Waco, Texas, son Ralph, aged seven years, her father and sister Mary Baumert of Nauvoo two other sisters, Mrs. Julia Boquet and Miss Anna Baumert of Keokuk and two brothers, George and Michael Baumert, Jr., of Nauvoo.

FALLS ON SIDEWALK; FRACTURES SKULL

William Holt Collapses While Listening to Band; Fractures Skull and May Die.

While standing on the steps of the Grand opera house listening to the band of the Nell O'Brien minstrel show Friday night, William Holt, who lives over a store on Fourth street between Main and Johnson, suddenly collapsed and falling, fractured his skull so severely that he may die. He was removed to the fire department station across the street where it was seen that his injuries were of a serious nature. An ambulance was called and he was taken to the Graham hospital where he was attended by Dr. Frank Brown and Dr. C. A. Dimond.

An operation was necessary to remove the pressure of the fractured skull from the brain. It was found that the fracture extended from the top of his head to the back of his left ear and was seven and a half inches long. He had not regained consciousness last night and his condition was said to be very serious.

Holt has been employed as a carpenter on the T. P. & W. bridges for some time. He lived by himself and it is not known whether or not he has any relatives in this part of the country. It was said that he was intoxicated when he fell.

THRILLING TRIP INTO THE WEST

Old Stage Coach is Used in Keokuk to Make the Journey From Fifth and Main Westward.

It's a thrilling trip these days from Fifth and Main streets, to West Keokuk. Part of the journey is made in the street car, part by stage coach and then the street car is again used. Boarding the car at Fifth, there is a thrilling three blocks ride. Passengers are then transferred to an excursion car and taken around by the dumping ground and railroad coal yards, several blocks and brought back to the car line again.

The stage coach side trip costs nothing extra and is made necessary by the repairs being made to the line, new rails being put down and the track improved.

DISTRICT COURT CONVENES MONDAY

Judge W. S. Hamilton Will Preside at the September Term of Court—Grand Jury Summoned.

The September term of the district court will open tomorrow, with Judge W. S. Hamilton presiding. The court docket has been printed and contains nearly 100 appearances on it. Many of these cases, however, will not be heard this term. There are few of much importance that appear on the docket.

The grand jury will report Monday. There are several cases of justice of the peace courts that will come before the jury but unless there is some investigation not known of at the present time it is probable that the work of the jury will not be nearly so heavy as at the fall term last year when it was in session six weeks.

TERRIBLE ITCHING OF SKIN TROUBLE

Small Red and Yellow Spots on Leg. Covered with Dry Scale. Had to Walk Floor Nights. Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment Cured.

R. F. D. No. 3, Clarkfield, Minn. — "My trouble was of long standing. It started with some small red and yellow spots about the size of a pin head on my leg and every morning there was a dry scale on top covering the affected part and when those scales were falling off the itching was more than I could stand at times.

The first year I did not mind it so much as it was only itching very badly at times, but the second year it advanced all around my leg and the itching was terrible. I had to be very careful to have my clothing around the affected part very loose. At night time I often happened to scratch the sore in my sleep. Then I had to stand up, set out of bed and walk the floor.

"Then I read the advertisement of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and I wrote for a sample and got it. To my surprise I was feeling relief after the second application. So I got a cake of Cuticura Soap and a fifty-cent box of Cuticura Ointment and when I had used them I was nearly over the itching. So I got another box and that healed it all up so it looked smooth and fine, but I kept on with the Cuticura Soap for six weeks and the cure was complete." (Signed) S. O. Gordon, Nov. 20, 1912.

Cuticura Soap 25c. and Cuticura Ointment 50c. are sold everywhere. Liberal sample of each mailed free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address post-card "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

*Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

for the jury but unless there is some investigation not known of at the present time it is probable that the work of the jury will not be nearly so heavy as at the fall term last year when it was in session six weeks.

STATE MAY REST IN BIXBY'S CASE

Levy Girl's Testimony Probably Not to be Used Against the Wealthy Scamp.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] LOS ANGELES, Calif., Sept. 20.—The state probably will rest its case against Geo. H. Bixby, Long Beach capitalist, charged with contributing to the delinquency of Cleo Helen Barker, if the corroborative testimony of Marie Brown-Levy, her chum, is ruled inadmissible, according to a statement tonight by Prosecutor Keyes.

The entire conduct of the remainder of the case it appears, rests with the Levy girl's testimony. If it is excluded, it is likely the testimony of half a dozen other girls held ready by the prosecution will meet the same fate. In this event, all the testimony adverse to Bixby will have been presented.

Judge Bledsoe will spend Sunday considering the protest of the defense against the admission of Miss Levy's testimony on the ground that it is not pertinent to the specific relations of Miss Barker and Bixby. He has refused to forecast his decision.

It is admitted tonight that the prosecution is seriously considering the trial of Bixby on a similar charge involving Marie Brown-Levy, in the event of their failure to convict on the Barker charge. Should Bixby be convicted on the latter count, however, it is believed the Levy charge will be dropped.

Folk and the Chautauqua.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 20.—That he is sacrificing a $5,000 yearly income from chautauqua lectures alone to become solicitor of the state department was the statement of former Governor Joseph W. Folk when he returned here from Washington. His new salary is $5,000 a year. He said he was undecided whether he would do any chautauqua work while he holds that position but added that he did not see any impropriety in Secretary Bryan's lecturing during his vacation time.
