CITY NEWS.

—Rabbit and squirrel hunters are abundant.
 —Aluminum and nickel plated ware at Merriam's.
 —Only seven more shopping days until Christmas.
 —J. W. Markley is sick at his home with erysipelas.
 —Call phone Black 1949 for prompt parcel delivery. L. Hardesty.
 —Edison concert at Edison shop tonight at 7:30 o'clock. 512 Main.
 —See our fine mixed candies at 25, 20, 15 and 10c per pound at Schouten's.
 —Cut out the candles—see our Christmas tree outfits. King Plumbing Co.
 —The public school vacation will begin after next Friday and continue for two weeks.
 —Don't worry. That snow and ice will probably arrive in time to make Christmas natural.
 —Puritas dark lager is something new and brewed in Keokuk. Order a case and give it a trial.
 —Most of the stores will be open evenings this week in order to accommodate the Christmas shoppers.
 —N. A. S. E. No. 15 regular meeting Wednesday, Dec. 17, Hall, Sixth and Blondeau street. E. S. Cushman, secretary.
 —Sherwood's is the place to buy him an auto robe, set of new harness or drivers' articles for a suitable gift. 703 Main.
 —This will be the big week for holiday trading. You can make your shopping easier if you trade during the early morning hours.
 —The body of Miss Letitia Ingram whose death was announced in The Gate City yesterday afternoon, was sent to Illinois last evening for burial.
 —Do not fail to hear the Edison concert tonight, 7:30 o'clock at the Edison shop, 512 Main.
 —Sent those packages away? Better get them in this week so as to be sure they reach their destination in time for delivery Christmas morn'g. In any event if they are too early in arriving it will do no harm. You can label them—"do not open until Christmas."
 —Sleds, skates, wagons and barrows at Merriam's.
 —Property owners are complaining that small boys with rifles are doing considerable damage to property by breaking windows. There is a city ordinance against the use of rifles in the city limits. They are a dangerous weapon to place in the hands of small boys.
 —The following from the Quincy Herald will be appreciated by those who heard "Robin Hood" in this city last Friday evening: There still is some comic opera that is worth while. There still is some music on the stage that is not all froth, foam and fizzle. There still is some comedy that is not slapstick. There still is a joke that doesn't make a decent woman blush. And there still is—only one indeed—but there still is old man Frothingham! The writer, as you probably have surmised, saw and heard "Robin Hood" Saturday.
 —Attend Piggott's victrola concert tonight. Come and go when you like.
 —Advertising is the light of commerce—the torch of thrift. It clears up the dark places and sounds the death knell of sham and shoddy. It puts before you in your favorite paper every day the statement of the world's goods and their prices. Advertisers meet in the open in friendly and fair competition. They are playing the business game with cards face up and on the table. If you buy imprudently or ill-advisedly you have no one to blame but yourself. The mercurial information is part of the service you pay when you buy your favorite newspaper. P. S.—If you have not "shopped early" you can shop quickly by consulting the Christmas offerings in The Daily Gate City.

SENSIBLE CHRISTMAS PRESENTS

Are in vogue. People no longer burden their friends at the Holiday season with useless and gaudy knick-knacks. The Spirit of Christmas goes hand in hand with Common Sense.

CITY NEWS.

—Only seven more shopping days until Christmas—get busy.
 —Fechstein & Nagel Co. are brewing the dark lager beer. Try a case of it.
 —Nothing so good at the price as our 30c per pound mixed chocolates at Schouten's.
 —There is a strong temptation to delay Christmas shopping. Don't yield to the temptation. It will be easier for every one concerned if the purchases are made early.
 —Christmas tree lighting outfits—the safe way. King Plumbing Co.
 —Contractors are hoping for a continuation of warm weather while the coal men are hoping for the old time winter variety. Up to date the contractors have the best of the hope.
 —Keen Kutter scissors, knives, carvers, and tools at Merriam's.
 —Beginning next Monday evening the dry goods, shoe stores and clothing stores will be open evenings in order to accommodate the Christmas shoppers. It was decided not to keep open but a few days before Christmas in order that the work of the clerks would be considerably lessened and in the hope that most of the purchasers would buy during the regular hours. But beginning Monday the stores will be open evenings for those who do not find time to shop during the regular hours.
