CITY NEWS.

—Auto robes at Sherwood's.
 —Try Larsen's canned beets.
 —A force of men were at work today clearing the snow off the crossings on Main street.
 —Larsen's canned boiled cabbage. Can't be beat.
 —Be comfortable with an auto robe bought at Sherwood's.
 —If I were seeking for the best coffee and nothing but the best would do, I would seek until I found "Hamilton's Steel-Cut."
 —Elgin Jewelry Co.'s auction sale continues daily, 2:30 and 7:30 p. m., at 502 Main street. Don't miss it. Everything must go.
 —Rev. M. C. Hutchinson returned to his home in Burlington last evening after finishing a three weeks evangelistic meeting for the First Christian church.
 —Some people claim theirs is the best because they think so; others claim theirs is the best when they know it is not so, but if you will try a can of "Hamilton's Steel-Cut coffee" you will prove to yourself that it is the best.
 —The local merchants who are in the fair-refunding agreement will meet tonight at the Hotel Keokuk for a banquet and following the supper there will be a meeting at which general affairs of the merchants will be considered.
 —Charles Griffin of 721 South Fifth street, was injured yesterday when a delivery team which he was driving became frightened at a street car and started to run away. Griffin was thrown against the street car railing and suffered a fracture to two of his ribs. The horses and wagon were not damaged. Griffin was slightly improved today.

CITY NEWS.

—Ask for Larsen's sauer kraut.
 —Blanket your horse at Sherwood's.
 —A marriage license was issued today to William Brennan, 21 and Miss Nellie G. Graley, 18, both of Keokuk.
 —Auction sale of Elgin Jewelry Co., 502 Main street, 2:30 and 7:30 p. m. daily. Everything must go to close out business.
 —Regular meeting Loyal Order of Moose, Keokuk lodge No. 704, tonight at 8 o'clock in Moose hall. Visiting brothers cordially invited. A. L. Laubersheimer, dictator. Ed. S. Lofton, secretary.—Adv.

—Most of the walks about the city have been cleared of snow. In some places, however, ice covers the walks and much danger is thereby occasioned to pedestrians. Ashes sprinkled over the ice removes the danger.
 —Regular meeting Morning Star lodge No. 5, K. of P. at Castle Hall Tuesday evening at 7:30 sharp. Work in first rank. Visiting brothers invited to attend. N. J. Montague, C. C.
 —The city ordinances say that sidewalk walks should be cleaned within 12 hours after the snow ceases to fall. A penalty is provided for those who do not obey this ordinance. Many of the good citizens of Keokuk have cleaned their sidewalks, but there are a number who would suffer, were the ordinance to be enforced.

—John Grigsby was sentenced to a term not to exceed five years in the reformatory at Anamosa, Iowa and to pay costs of prosecution. In the district court today, Grigsby is charged with having set fire to a dwelling house. He pleaded guilty to the charge. Arrangements were made whereby the man could be paroled however, and he will be given a chance not to serve his term in the reformatory.

—The regular passenger service on the K. and W. line on which train number 40 was wrecked yesterday morning, is expected to be restored by this evening. No trains were run over this line from here this morning, passengers being taken on the C., B. and K. C. through Viele. No further injuries of a serious nature were reported and the officials of the road expect to have the track cleared up by this evening, and the regular passenger service restored at once.
