Y. W. C. A. NOTES

Vesper Service.
The vesper service yesterday was a most inspirational service. Miss Grace Strickler proved a rare leader for just such a type of meeting. Her subject was "Personality," and she made all of her hearers listen as she suggested four virtues, the practice of which would build an attractive personality, sincerity, sympathy, sunny-ness, and service. Next Sunday's service will be addressed by Miss Emilie Pence and special music will be given.

Meet Tonight.
Membership committee will meet tonight at supper.

St. Patrick Day Party.
Tomorrow night the St. Patrick party will be given to the entire Tri-State Business college by the Tri-State Girls' club.

Y. M. C. A. ITEMS

Sunday Meeting.
The Sunday afternoon meeting held at 3 o'clock yesterday was fairly well attended, though there were not so many present as the able, entertaining and instructive address by Rev. Dr. Irving Johnson deserved. He fully demonstrated that he truly merits the high place he holds as one of the ablest divines of the middle west, a biblical student of large learning and a finished and attractive platform orator. Those who heard him were much pleased with his address.

"CATCH-MY-PAL" PATTERSON COMING

Originator of Unique Temperance Movement to Speak Next Sunday.

The Y. M. C. A. and the Ministerial association are working together for the appearance in Keokuk next Sunday of Dr. Robert Patterson, of Ireland who has achieved international fame as the organizer of a new temperance movement. His motto is "Catch-My-Pal," suggesting its leading idea of work by men, with and for men, as an individual, personal and friendly motto. The success of the work in Ireland, where it began, has been remarkable, and it is extending to other countries.

Dr. Patterson will spend next Sunday in Keokuk. In the morning he will preach at the Congregational church, which is now without a pastor. In the afternoon he will address a Hippodrome meeting for men and boys, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. In the evening he will speak at a union meeting in Westminster church under arrangement of the Ministerial association.

SUGGESTS MEMORIAL TO CONRAD EIMBOCK

Would Have Proposed New Gateway at Rand Park Honor Man Who Platted It.

Mrs. James B. Diver, who always has an interest in keeping history straight, has suggested that the new park gateway to be erected under the supervision of a committee of the D. A. R. be a memorial to Conrad Eimbock, the landscape gardener who many years ago laid out Rand park.

He was an engineer and a landscape gardener who was far ahead of his time. He came to Keokuk from Devenport during the time Judge Yeager was mayor. He was a finely educated German from the Heidelberg university, a man of unusual culture and ability. From here he went south to Mexico and later to South America, where he died a few years ago.

Many people feel that this would be a fitting way to keep in memory a man who did a peculiar public service and who might easily be forgotten, even though the artistically laid out park will through many generations be a public comfort and pleasure ground.

AMUSEMENTS.

Election Returns at the Grand. City election returns will be shown at the Grand tonight just as soon as they are received from the several precincts. This service will be in addition to the regular program which is always up to date and entertaining. The election returns will be an interesting addition to the regular program. Go to the Grand and enjoy the pictures which are always of a high class and get the election returns as quick as they are sent in from the precincts.—Advertisement.

GATE CITY WILL SHOW ALL RETURNS

Primary Results Will be Bulletinized on Screen in Front of The Gate City Office Tonight.

EVERY ONE IS INVITED

Same Service Will be Afforded to the Patrons of the Grand Opera House Also.

Returns from the primary election today will be displayed on a screen in front of The Gate City office tonight, and the citizens of Keokuk are invited to make this office their headquarters and get the figures as fast as they are picked up at the various polling places. The Gate City will have the returns on the screen as fast as the votes are counted.

The same service will be furnished the patrons of the Grand opera house tonight, and the opportunity is offered not only to see a good picture show at the Grand, but also to get the latest election news bulletins.

The popularity of this service was attested to in November two years ago at the time of the national election when The Gate City made arrangements to give the returns in this manner. In spite of inclement weather The Gate City screen proved to be the most popular place in town.

The Gate City office will be open during the evening and the official figures as they are given out at the polling places will be immediately phoned to this office, and will be given to the operator of the stereopticon which will throw the returns upon the screen.

As usual The Gate City will furnish its friends and patrons with live, up-to-date returns, and the election bulletins tonight will no doubt be appreciated by many of the citizens who always like to get the latest figures from the polling places.

The opportunity to get the same service at the Grand Opera house, will also no doubt be appreciated, as the patrons of the popular moving picture house, will be able to see the latest bulletins on the screen there, as well as the pictures.

TWELVE THOUSAND VOTES BEING CAST

City of Des Moines Holding Primaries Today Under Commission Form.

[By United Press.]
DES MOINES, Iowa, March 16.—Over 12,000 votes are being polled today in one of the hottest and most sensational city campaigns in the history of Des Moines. With six candidates for mayor and thirty-two candidates for councilmen in the race, oratory and campaign literature has flowed over the city in a constant stream the past month.

Mayor Hanna and Councilmen Needham, Myerly, VanLew are candidates for re-election while Councilman Roe is a candidate against Hanna for mayor. Hanna is running for a third term and despite this and his apparently endorsement of the VanLew-Jenny police scandal he appears certain of nomination, not because of his strength but because of his opponent's weakness. Roe backed by union labor because he allowed the strikers and friends to do as they please in the street car riots three years ago, will also be nominated.

Under the provisions of the Des Moines commission plan of government party lines are blurred and at the primaries today two candidates will be named for mayor and eight for councilmen. Then on March 30 will come the election proper at which one mayor and four councilmen will be elected.

In the councilmanic race it appears as though Fred German, formerly deputy county treasurer, would lead with Myerly second.

It is hard to forecast the others because of the entry into the race at the eleventh hour of two candidates of the business men's association, W. F. Mitchell and R. M. Galbraith.

Union labor has for years had its candidates for office but this is the first time that the business men's association has openly entered the field. Money is being spent freely by the backers of these two men and should they be nominated it will mean that the next two weeks will see a bitter war between capital and labor for control of the council. Hanna, Mitchell and Galbraith would make the three votes to give capital control while Roe would lead the labor forces with possibly German as a running mate, although German has so far managed an independent campaign.

BELIEVE FIRE WAS OF INCENDIARY ORIGIN

Barn Belonging to Wiley Ray Damaged by Flames at About 8:30 Last Evening.

A fire believed to have been of incendiary origin occurred at 8:30 last evening in a barn at Fifth and Morgan streets, belonging to Wiley Ray. The fire was first discovered by C. S. Abell who was passing along the street. A still alarm was sent in and the blaze extinguished by means of the chemical engine. Although there was no positive proof, members of the fire department were unanimous in the opinion that the fire was of incendiary origin. The damage amounted to about $30.

Beware of Imitations

PRIMARY VOTE IS HEAVY THIS YEAR

Bigger One Cast at Two O'clock Today Than Same Time Two Years Ago.

RESULT PROBLEMATIC

Little Talk by Candidates' Friends Gives Small Basis on Which to Forecast Results.

The primary vote will be a heavy one, if the vote up until two o'clock this afternoon can be taken as any criterion. A total of 1,895 votes had been cast in the seven precincts of the city at two o'clock, against 1,515 cast two years ago at the same time. That the total vote will be heavier than two years ago was freely predicted about the polling places.

All of the wards excepting the second and sixth were running ahead of the figures for two years ago, this afternoon at 2 o'clock. Clerks at the sixth ward, however, said that their heaviest vote would come just before closing time tonight.

Following is the comparison of the vote this year and in 1912 at 2 o'clock:

1914	1912
First ward	262 240
Second ward	268 300
Third ward	326 306
Fourth ward	126 98
Fifth ward	269 214
Sixth ward	271 357
Seventh ward	173

The voting in the fifth ward seemed to be about the heaviest as compared with the registration. By noon the votes this year had run 100 or more ahead of the usual noon vote.

There seems to be little indication of the way the votes are going. The political situation this year in peculiar in this respect. There seems to have been considerable "gum shoe" work carried on by the friends of the candidates. There has been little open forecasting of results. Just what effect this silent work and this quiet vote will have on the result is problematic.

From early indications the north side vote is slightly ahead of the south side. What this gain means to the tickets is hard to guess.

The polls will close tonight at seven o'clock. Results will be received at The Gate City office, and will be posted on the big screen in front of the building.

Daily Stock Letter.

[Copyright, 1914, by the New York Evening Post.]

NEW YORK, March 16.—Business on the stock exchange fell to such small dimensions today as to be almost negligible. The market's attitude in fact resembled that which it assumed at intervals last year, closely enough to start Wall street itself conjecturing as to the significance of the halt, as regards the stock exchange's own attitude towards values.

The revival of the New Haven controversy at Washington caused some weakness in that stock and the fact that a number of recent incidents have adversely affected certain low priced stocks appeared to have some depressing influence on similar shares of other companies. But taken as a whole the day's market did little more than drift. Europe was a seller here at the opening in fairly large amounts.
