

SCORE PRESIDENT FOR PANAMA TOLLS

lengthen debate from fifteen to twenty hours. Revolt among republicans, progressives and democrats, even some of those intending to support the president against alleged "gagging" developed. The revolt even threatened to defeat the tolls. The insurgents, mostly new members, insisted upon having plenty of time for speech-making.

WHAT Will Clark Do? WASHINGTON, March 26.—Speaker Clark as a possible candidate for president in 1916 against Woodrow Wilson was the "big politics" which loomed up today in the free tolls repeal fight. The speaker had to solve one of the most troublesome political problems in his spectacular career—whether he should come out openly against the president and precipitate a wide breach in the party on the tolls repeal with an eye to making a campaign issue of the 1916 democratic contest. Although Clark voted for "free tolls" in 1912, and was expected to vote against its repeal, his friends today predicted that he would not break with the administration by openly fighting the president's plan. It was reported that he would content himself with making a brief statement, explaining his vote against the repeal, but would refrain from taking the floor for a set speech in the opposition.

STRIKERS ATTEND BOY'S FUNERAL

Peaceful Settlement of Labor Trouble at Depew Seems Probable Today.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] BUFFALO, N. Y., March 26.—Seven hundred strikers from the Gould Coupling company's plant marched in funeral procession, escorting the body of Stanislaus Skolonski, to the Depew Polish Roman Catholic church today. Skolonski was killed in Monday's riot when a mob attacked a work train. Soldiers lined the route from the victim's home to the church, but there was no disturbance. Trains from Buffalo, carrying strike breakers to the plant, arrived on schedule today, the cars being well filled. There was a slight demonstration made against the strike breakers at the Lackawanna depot before the train started but it was quickly quelled by the Buffalo police.

A peaceful settlement of the labor trouble at Depew seemed probable today, although the problem of reconciling the policy of the corporation for an open shop and the principle of the striking union men is an extremely difficult one. The state board of arbitration today conferred with the strikers and employes.

Blame on the Woman.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] CHAMPAIGN, Ill., March 26.—Maude Klemick, 20, who confessed in police court four years ago to being a prostitute, was held on bond today, charged with contributing to the delinquency of Dwight Kaufman, 20, son of G. S. Kaufman, a Sunday school teacher in the University Place Christian church, following young Kaufman's suicide at midnight last night. The couple recently had been arrested together at Centralia.

Young Kaufman's troubles with the woman had made him despondent. Yesterday his father, a large land owner, bought a set of agricultural implements, intending to install him on a farm in the hope of improving his health.

Western Oil Men.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] WASHINGTON, March 26.—A large delegation of California and Wyoming oil developers appeared today before the house public lands committee, advocating passage of the administration bill providing leases for development of oil, coal and other mineral resources of the public domain. They asked, however, that preferences be given those already on the ground because of expenditures for development already made. The oil men also said the bill gives the secretary of interior too much discretionary authority and that rentals from such

Increase in Rates. [United Press Leased Wire Service.] CHICAGO, March 26.—All public utility companies in Illinois that have advanced their rates since July 1, 1913, must revert back to their former rates until they show cause why the increase is being made, Chairman James E. Quan of the Illinois public utilities commission announced today. The ruling is said to affect many public service corporations. Numerous complaints have been made to the commission that companies have advanced rates since July 1, 1913, without first appearing before the commission to show cause, said Chairman Quan. There is a section of the utilities law instructing all companies to file petitions asking for rate increases after that date. If these increases are to be allowed, officers of the companies must appear before the commission and show that they are justifiable.

The decree is far reaching in its effects. The Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph company, the Sunset Telephone and Telegraph company and fifty other defendants are affected.

ELVASTON, ILL.

March zephyrs were blowing yesterday with dust in the air, and according to an English saying, it means a good year, as a peck of March dust is worth a crown of gold, but most farmers are saying we need plenty of copious showers to insure a good crop, the sub-soil being very dry and as the sun has crossed the line with no rainfall they are fearing another dry season is upon us, which would seem disastrous in many respects; the automobiles are running all the time and the roads are fine.

MEXICAN NEWS COMING SLOW

erals displayed a strength at all points that astonished the rebels and that the fight is still raging on all sides of Torreon, with the battle center at Gomez Palacio.

A dispatch from Mexico City stating that the constitutionalists had been routed at Torreon after the federal garrison had been reinforced by 800 federals under command of Generals Joaquin Maas and Javier De Mouré is not taken seriously by General Chao or other constitutionalist officers. In retort, they say if the rebels were in full retreat, they could scarcely have filed their latest despatches from El Verjel, only five miles from Gomez Palacio. The rebels also deny it would be possible to transport 800 men in fifty armored autos in one trip 139 miles over rough roads from Hipolito to Torreon, as stated in the Mexico City despatch. A number of unofficial reports of desperate fighting and constitutionalist victories were also received, but were not endorsed by General Chao. One story was that out of one federal company of 300, 200 had been captured and 50 killed. Another was that Gen. Eugenio Benevides had summarily executed 200 federal volunteers.

Huertistas here circulated a wild report that the rebels had been driven out of Gomez Palacio but had been pursued by federals as far as Corralillos, 125 miles north of Torreon. An American army officer ventured the opinion that "that would be some pursuit for a single day."

Money Saved by Making Your Cough Syrup at Home. Takes But a Few Moments, and Stops a Hard Cough in a Hurry.

Cough medicines, as a rule, contain a large quantity of grain syrup. If you take one pint of granulated sugar, add 1/2 pint of warm water and stir about 2 minutes, you have as good syrup as money could buy.

If you will then put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (fifty cents worth) in a pint bottle, and fill it up with the Sugar Syrup, you will have as much cough syrup as you could buy ready made for $2.50. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours. It keeps perfectly. You will find it one of the best cough syrups you ever used—even in whooping cough. You can feel it take hold—usually conquers an ordinary cough in 24 hours. It is just laxative enough, has a good tonic effect, and the taste is pleasant.

This is a splendid remedy, too, for whooping cough, spasmodic croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma. Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in quinine and other healing pine elements. No other preparation will work in this formula.

This plan for making cough remedy with Pinex and Sugar Syrup is now used in more homes than any other cough remedy. The plan has often been imitated but never successfully.

A guaranty of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded, goes with this preparation. Your druggist has Pinex, or will get it for you. If not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

D., bishop of Minnesota. Bishop Edsall is one of the leading prelates of the Episcopal church, and his lecture on "The Contributions of the Episcopal Church to American National Life" is one which should interest not alone the parishioners of St. John's but christian people generally, all of whom are invited to attend this free lecture. Bishop Edsall comes from one of the largest dioceses in the country, including Minneapolis and St. Paul, over which he has presided since the death of the famous Bishop Whipple, the apostle to the Indians.

Plants Have Affinities Same as "Affinity Earle."

WASHINGTON, March 26.—To the uninitiated it would seem that more than the Atlantic ocean and a few hundred miles of land separated "Affinity Earle" in Paris and a field of cow peas in Arkansas, but the bureau of plant industry has just proven that forage crops have affinities just as marked as the notorious artist. Cow peas in particular have an affinity for oats.

It has long been known to scientists that some plants are benefits and some injured by association, and recent experiments have demonstrated that leguminous plants, including peas, clover and alfalfa, when planted with certain cereals show a mutual increase in productivity. It appears that the leguminous plants not only gather nitrogen from the atmosphere by means of their root-tubercle bacteria and are therefore able to make a large growth, but that some of the nitrogen so gathered is passed on to the non-leguminous plant associated with it.

The affinity of the stalwart timothy for the blushing red clover has long been understood by farmers in a general way, and now it has been demonstrated that timothy has another affinity in alfalfa. Needless to say clover and alfalfa do not get along very well together.

The increased growth of plants in combination over that of single crops, together with the improved composition of the former, has resulted in some cases of an increase of more than 30 per cent in the production of protein per acre. This increased value probably extends to the roots and the stems left in the soil and means much in the production of food for stock and in soil improvement.

There Must Be Some Play.

WASHINGTON, March 26.—Senator Martine, of New Jersey, thinks the American people don't consider the balance of expenditures when they talk about the high cost of living. "Why, city people kick like steers at paying thirty cents a pound for a very good quality of butter, but they are perfectly willing to pay five dollars to hear Madame Somebody-Other sing," he asserted several days ago. "City folks spend more every year for amusements and travel than for food. The farmer doesn't get too

TUBERCULOSIS IS INFECTIOUS

Social Contact Spreads the Disease and Dr. Keptord Says Segregation is Important.

DES MOINES, March 26.—It seems almost incredible in the face of the great reduction of tuberculosis made by the educational propaganda, carried on throughout this country, that there should be any question as to the infectious nature of this disease," says Dr. A. E. Keptord. "The reduction throughout the registration area of the United States was more than 18 per cent in the decennial period ending 1910. Even casual observers have noted that tuberculosis is spread by personal contact. Families have been destroyed by it and every community has had its object lesson. No age or condition is exempt from its attacks. No one can say that he is immune against tuberculosis infection. There are, however, differences in the resisting power of bodies and at different ages. A large proportion of the population would show a positive reaction to the tuberculin test although a small number would show the clinical signs of disease. It is generally believed by those skilled in diagnosis of tuberculosis that infections take place early in life but that the infection is quiescent, and unless contact infection takes place by social contact the infection disappears. Tuberculosis is a great social malady. It is transmitted by intimate social contact and it will require no argument here to convince thoughtful people that adequate hospital care for the advanced cases is the most efficient method of controlling the disease. Efforts to secure isolation and humane care and intelligent treatment of consumptives should not be relaxed. Every community in Iowa should apply itself diligently to the unfinished task of regulating this dreadful scourge. The decrease from mortality from tuberculosis in Iowa is known to be very encouraging and there can be no doubt that if the battle is pushed to the gates, the enemy will finally be subdued."

LATEST MARKET QUOTATIONS

United Press Associations Telegraph Market Report Over Gate City Leased Wire.

Grain Review. [United Press Leased Wire Service.] CHICAGO, March 26.—Action of a leading firm—the Cudahys—in buying 250,000 bushels of wheat shortly after the market opened today, bolstered up a sagging market and in the buying that followed wheat futures advanced 1/4 for May and 1/2 for July. Previous to this action, the market was easier, on account of an easier cable from Liverpool.

Corn—Shaded easier at the start today but several leaders who were on the selling side yesterday, turned buyers in the fractional dip after further decline was halted.

Oats were firm and a shade higher for July today with good demand for both months. The market, for the first time in several days, acted independently of corn.

Provisions eased off from the start on account of a weak hog market.

Protest Against Torturing Exiles. ST. PETERSBURG, March 26.—The recent sufferings of the political exiles at Narym has been made the subject of a formal protest to the minister of the interior by the labor group in the duma. A letter describing conditions there says the exiles are in danger of starvation, their appeals to the governor for relief remaining unheeded.

Among the complaints, the commissary of police is charged with having dispersed a group of exiles who were boarding together, declaring that such a gathering constituted an unlawful assembly. An exile named Mme. Solovyonoff was recently incarcerated in a "punishment cell" for a week, together with her child, for the offense of teaching the little one to read.
