W. C. Reimbold, Well Known Nauvoo Man and R. M. Scott of Hamilton Comprise Newly Formed Company.

BEST OF INSTRUMENTS

Stock Carried by Partners Will Include High Grade Makes of Pianos and Player Pianos.

A new piano company has located in Keokuk. It will be known as the W. C. Reimbold Piano company and will open a store at 903 Main street. This is a new firm and will handle the best makes and grades of pianos and piano players now on the market.

The firm is composed of W. C. Reimbold, a well known business man of Nauvoo, Ill., who is no stranger to Keokuk and whose business integrity and experience in dealings with the public will stand him in good stead in his new venture.

The new firm will handle all the popular and high class makes and grades of pianos. In this collection of instruments on the floor, and in transit are the following makes: Emerson, Haddock, Schiller, Clarendon, Bachman and several of the player pianos.

The new firm is ready for business and the patronage of Keokuk and the surrounding territory is solicited. Discriminating buyers will find in this new stock the kind of instrument they are after, and will find that the price is right. Experience in the business such as Mr. Reimbold and Mr. Scott will give, will assure patrons of fair dealings and will be a guaranty that they are purchasing the best possible.—Advertisement.

BLOOD TO FLOW IF VILLA WINS

had fallen led to the rioting. As the government successfully prevented the publication of any reports of the battle, every hint of information was grasped eagerly by throngs in the streets. When rumors that Torreón had been captured were circulated, the students set up their cries against the dictator. Reports that General Velasco had committed suicide added to the fury of the throng. Soldiers fired shots in the air as they endeavored to disperse the crowds. A fusillade of shots attracted greater crowds to the park but no one was wounded.

War Minister Blanquet admits he has received no word from the front for hours. Business was practically at a standstill today.

People are Hungry. JUAREZ, Mexico, March 28.—General Manuel Chao, military governor of the state of Chihuahua, received a dispatch tonight from General Francisco Villa, ordering him to rush a train-load of provisions to Torreón for distribution among the suffering inhabitants of Lerdo, Gomez Palacio and such portions as are under rebel control. Villa said famine prevailed among the people of the cities named and that while he was doing his best

FOR THE GRIP

Peruna Is Sometimes Used With Good Results

Mrs. Jane Gift, the after stages. Many people take it after they have had the grip. Their convalescence is slow. They have suffered along for a month or two, without any signs of complete recovery. Then they resort to Peruna as a tonic, with splendid results.

Mrs. Jane Gift, R. F. D. 1, Athens, Ohio, whose portrait appears above, writes: "I think I would have been dead long ago if it had not been for Peruna. Six years ago I had the grippe very bad. The doctor came to see me every day, but I gradually grew worse. I told my husband I thought I would surely die if I did not get relief soon.

"One day I picked up the newspaper and accidentally found a testimonial of a woman who had been cured of grip by Peruna. I told my husband I wanted to try it. He went directly to the drug store and got a bottle of Peruna. I could see the improvement in a very short time and was soon able to do my work. I continued using it until I was entirely cured."

Mr. Victor Patneau, 328 Madison St., Topeka, Kas., writes: "Twelve years ago I had a severe attack of la grippe and I never really recovered my health and strength, but grew weaker every year, until I was unable to work."

"Two years ago I began using Peruna and it built up my strength so that in a couple of months I was able to go to work again. This winter I had another attack of la grippe, but Peruna soon drove it out of my system. My wife and I consider it a household remedy."

Those who object to liquid medicines can now obtain Peruna Tablets.

to relieve the distress from the stores of the army, he did not wish to risk running short. Forty thousand pounds of coffee were secured from coffee importing houses for delivery Sunday morning. Roasters are being operated all of tonight. Two carloads of sugar have been obtained this far and others will be procured before morning. Packing house people here and at El Paso are filling large orders for cured meats of all kinds.

Carranza is Greeted. JUAREZ, Mexico, March 28.—After greeting General Venustiano Carranza, first chief of the Mexican revolutionary forces, at Baral today, General Manuel Chao, military governor of the state of Chihuahua, started back to Juarez by special train. The original program for Carranza's reception had bringing him to Juarez this afternoon. After a conference with Chao, however, it was decided to wait until tomorrow when Carranza hopes his entry into Juarez will be signalized by the final capture of Torreón.

Carranza was also expected to have his escort of troops neatly attired when he arrived here and for that purpose, six hundred new uniforms were dispatched from here on a special train, Sunday morning a special train will go to Baral from here, carrying Chao and other constitutionalist officials who will formally escort the rebel chieftain to this city. Carranza will establish headquarters here, at least temporarily.

Gathering Around Tampico. VERA CRUZ, March 28.—With General Villa keeping the main body of federals occupied at Torreón, reports from Tampico tonight declare that rebels are congregating there in great numbers. Constitutionalist sympathizers here have received confidential advice that strenuous efforts will be made to capture Monterey as well as Torreón.

The United States gunboat Dolphin sailed for Tampico today.

tional problems as they are, it is an entirely different proposition. "The most humiliating duty of my life was listening to the president ignore his publicly uttered pre-election opinion, repudiate a fundamental plank in the platform of his party and instruct congress to stultify itself and repeal the section of the law granting free tolls to American coast-wise shipping, and thus definitely acknowledge to the world that this country has surrendered the moral right to exercise absolute sovereignty over its coastwise shipping."

Curry intimated that hard times caused President Wilson to change his viewpoint since election and hinted that the executive not only desired to give an advance in freight rates, but also desired to minimize water transportation with transcontinental lines.

"Or," he added, "it may be accounted for as a state of mind due to pique and public temperament and to his scholastic training and habits of thought. He has frequently changed his mind on many fundamental pieces of government."

Representative Stephens, a republican of California, also opposed repeal of tolls exemption. He held that passage of the Sims bill would mainly benefit British ship building companies and manufacturers who would undersell American producers.

Steenerson of Minnesota urged that the house acquiesce in the request of President Wilson. Representative Gillett, of Massachusetts, republican, flayed the president for making the appeal a necessity from foreign affairs pressure.

"History scarcely records so complete and spectacular a somersault as the president has made on this subject," he said. "I think it is understood that he didn't dare risk it on loftier ground. But that he knew a majority of the democrats to whom he was appealing."

Representative Hawley of Oregon, opposed the bill.

Will be Tie Vote. WASHINGTON, March 28.—A poll tonight showed the senate inter-oceanic canals committee to which the bill repealing the exemption of tolls to coast wise American ships will be referred, following its passage by the house, will vote 7 for and 7 against the bill. The arrival in the city of Senator Crawford, who has been sent since before Christmas, makes the line up as follows: For the bill: Chilton, Shields, Owen, Simmons, Brandegee, Page and Thornton.

Against — O'Gorman, (chairman), Thomas, Walsh, Borah, Crawford, Perkins and Bristow.

As a result, it is expected the bill will be reported out on the floor without resolution. Senator O'Gorman indicates he prefers to fight the battle out on the floor. As an indication of the floods of oratory expected on the measure, leaders said tonight that nearly one third of the senate entire membership had given an intention to speak.

He Does Not Worry. WASHINGTON, March 28.—The white house today showed no anxiety concerning the free tolls controversy in the house. The president remained away from his office all day, golfing and motoring. None of the administration lieutenants in this branch of congress put in an appearance at the executive offices during the day. If the president obtained any direct information of the doings of the house, it was by way of telephone. Secretary Tumulty was away in the morning for an auto ride and left again early in the afternoon. Altogether it was nearest to a holiday that has occurred during the Wilson tenure.

Another Complication. WASHINGTON, March 28.—A bill permitting foreign ships to engage in the coast-wise trade of the United States and repealing the tolls exemption to American coast-wise ships introduced by Senator Reed this afternoon further complicated the canal tolls fight. The measure provides that the president could fix from time to time, tolls for coast-wise ships seeking to determine the amounts so as to defray the actual cost of transporting the ships through the canal, but without imposing any charge based on interest on the original cost of the canal. By means of this bill its friends pointed out any discrimination against foreign ships would be removed and at the same time competition would be furnished not only to the transcontinental railroads but to the alleged coast wise monopoly.

due to misunderstanding, his situation is still admittedly tense. Sir Edward Richard Rossell, editor of the Liverpool Post, a strong liberal today declared in a signed article in his paper: "It is a positive fact that when he visited the war office early this week, Field Marshal Lord Roberts had in his pocket a list of nearly 900 officers of the army who were ready to send in their papers." As a result of the dissatisfaction in the army and the threatened retirement of General French, chief of the general staff, the possibility of the calling of Field Marshal Lord Kitchener

WOOLTEX the highest type tailored coats and suits

Men as a rule don't know clothes details, but they do know the general effect of what you wear. They do appreciate the smartness—the style—the trimness of your appearance. Above all else, the men you know can tell at a glance whether your coat or suit is good style or not. The air of quality that is the indefinable attribute of a custom-tailored suit of the highest type they recognize at a glance. This is the air—the indefinable but very definite something you find in a Wooltex coat, suit or skirt. If it is worth while to dress in a way that will please the men of your family and your social circle— In a way that will cause them to comment on the attractiveness of your appearance and your good judgment in the selection of clothes, choose and wear this spring a Wooltex coat, suit or skirt. The infinite amount of painstaking work given to each Wooltex garment begins with the selection of the most advanced fashions by Mme. Savarie at the Paris Branch of the Wooltex Style Bureau. It goes from there with equal singleness of purpose to the selection of desirable and fashionable fabrics. Then to the choice of linings and interlinings of known strength and durability— And then to the hands of the tailors trained to produce only garments of the highest type. When you purchase a Wooltex coat, suit or skirt this spring you will become one of the many well-dressed women who chose Wooltex coats, suits and skirts each succeeding season.

They believe the slayer immediately attacked her, rendered her unconscious after a struggle and then dragged the body to where it was found, where he inflicted mutilations.

THE SPECTRE OF THE FLOOD

(Continued from page 1.) and the Erie trains were routed over New York Central tracks. A vast expanse of territory has been covered by the raging waters. The greater part of the residential section of Binghamton is under water. Residents were taken from their homes in boats. Hundreds are preparing to flee from their homes in Syracuse. In the Genesee valley, all low lying ground is flooded. The crest of the flood is not due to reach Rochester until tomorrow or Monday when serious damage is feared.

Reports from throughout the Hudson and Mohawk valleys say that canal locks, railway tracks, telegraph lines and other property has suffered serious damage. The crest of the flood was expected Sunday at Albany after a further rise of eight feet. This is but four feet under last year's flood stage. The Hudson was ten feet above the normal water line tonight. Rain continued to fall throughout many sections today. All small towns reported serious damage.

Pennywit Says no Danger.

HARRISBURG, Pa., March 28.—Hundreds of families in the northwestern and central sections of Pennsylvania were vacating their homes tonight in anticipation of disastrous floods. The Susquehanna and the Allegheny and their tributaries were out of their banks. The situation was most acute in Warren, where the Conewango rose three inches an hour and late this afternoon was nearing the fourteen foot stage. It was feared tonight that all factories in the city were flooded, along with many dwellings and stores in the flats. In the central sections of the state, traction systems were put out of commission and hundreds of homes were threatened. Warned by a bulletin issued by the state water supply commissions, thousands of residents of Towanda, Wilkesbarre and other cities and towns on the Susquehanna were seeking safety. At Pittsburgh, the Allegheny will reach 20 feet at noon tomorrow and possibly 22 feet on Monday. Fears of a repetition of last spring's flood were dispelled by a bulletin issued there late tonight by Henry Pennywit, Pittsburgh forecaster, that there would be no flood.

ANOTHER PLEA FROM GUNMEN

Wireless Injunction. [United Press Leased Wire Service.] NEW YORK, March 28.—United States District Judge Veeder, in Brooklyn today granted a suspension of injunction secured by the Marconi wireless telegraph company against the National Electric Signalling Co. The injunction was suspended after the petitioners had agreed to bring appeal before the court and was granted with permission of the Marconi Co. The United States government is conducting experiments with the signalling company at the Arlington station at Washington and these experiments would have been seriously interfered with unless the injunction had been temporarily suspended.
