LADIES! SECRET TO DARKEN GRAY HAIR

Bring Back Its Color and Lustré with Grandma's Sage Tea Recipe.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant; remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing a out 50 cents a large bottle, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," thus avoiding a lot of fuss.

While wispy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance; and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger.

CHANGE IN QUINCY RATE IS PROTESTED

Parity With Upper River Towns is Not Desired According to Action of That City.

The interstate commerce commission recently ordered rates from Quincy, Hannibal and Louisiana, Mo., put on a parity with the rates just secured by Keokuk and the Upper Mississippi river cities. According to advices received by the industrial association from the Burlington railroad offices, this change has been protested by Quincy and the rates are now held up pending hearing.

The Quincy rate has been about two cents lower than the new rates secured by the upper river cities. When the commission put these rates on a parity with the upper river cities, it increased them one or two cents difference. The railroad printed their tariffs and everything was ready.

The protest from Quincy has checked the change, and until the hearing is had and decision made, the old rates will be in force.

AMUSEMENTS.

"Evangeline."
Those who were fortunate enough to see the opening number of the new serial photo-play, "The Perils of Pauline," at the Grand last evening were delighted with the production. It would be hard to find cause for criticism. The story is not overdrawn as in many of the serials. The photography is perfect and it is bound to become a very popular series of photo-plays. It will be presented at the Grand every two weeks. Tonight will be presented the great five reel feature.

SKIN TROUBLES FROM SCROFULA

Among the many manifestations of scrofula are eruptions on the face and body. These are both annoying and disfiguring. How often the complexion would be perfect if they were not present!

Other manifestations are bunces, inflamed eyelids, sore ears, wasting of the muscles, and general debility.

Ask your druggist for Hood's Sarsaparilla. This great medicine completely eradicates scrofula and builds up the whole system. Get it today.

ture, "Evangeline." There will be two performances at 7:30 and 9:15.—Advertisement.

FATHER CLAIMS SON NOT OF LEGAL AGE

Parent of Boy who Took Out Marriage License, Here to See Records.

When Truman H. Futey and Miss Alma M. Miller of Augusta, Ill., applied for a marriage licence Tuesday they were accompanied by Mrs. James M. Miller, who swore that Truthy was 21 years old, and gave her written consent to his marriage with her daughter who is only 16. Today the father of young Futey came to the court house and declared that his son was only 18 years of age and asked what could be done toward annulling the ceremony. He was referred to the county attorney.

According to the records of Clerk Hart, Mrs. Miller made an affidavit to the effect that her prospective son-in-law was 21. She said her daughter was under age and gave her consent in the usual form. The seal of the court has been affixed to the affidavit which is usually signed by the witness accompanying the couple, and in this she says that Truthy is of legal age. The couple were married by the Rev. R. W. Lilley.

The father of the young groom after a conference with County Attorney McManus left for home. He is not decided whether he will take any action in the matter.

UNION LABOR TO FIGHT ROCKEFELLER

Money is a Powerful Weapon But It is Not the One and Only Thing.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] NEW YORK, April 9.—Union labor is willing to fight John D. Rockefeller's millions at any time, Ernest Bohm, secretary of the central federated union said here. His statement was provoked by Rockefeller's testimony at Washington in which the oil king's son declared his father was willing to spend his $34,000,000 investments in the Colorado coal mines to maintain an open field for laborers.

"We are going to maintain the labor unions," said Bohm, "no matter how many millions of dollars Mr. Rockefeller and those associated with him spend in trying to destroy them. Money is a powerful weapon but it is not omnipotent."

Bryan Back at Office.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] WASHINGTON, April 9.—Wearing a black silk skull cap to protect the sparsely thatched crown of his head, Secretary of State Wm. J. Bryan today reappeared at his office after an absence of five days on account of sickness. The secretary appeared still to be weak and remained seated in his chair while receiving callers. While he was absent, suffering from grippe, the secretary transacted departmental business at his home. Because of the uncertainty of his ability to come to his office, the formal reception of the new Chinese minister was postponed until tomorrow afternoon.

CITY NEWS.

—Will leave for the season, one Arabian and one draft stallion at Hamilton, Ill. B. W. Elder.

—The members of the city council this morning went out to the new Home park, Belknap place additions, to look over the ground where new sewers will probably be put in this summer. The old city council agreed to extend the sewers into this district, and the new council is simply investigating the conditions there in order that they may be familiar with the territory involved.

—An application for a saloon license was placed before the city council today by Henry Hime. The application is to be effective at any time the council may have the power to issue such license.

—Frank M. Ballinger has filed suit against Ada H. Bowman for $95 alleged to be due as attorney's fees for defending her husband, James Bowman, at two different times. In his petition Ballinger claims he defended Bowman once in the district court and secured his release from custody. The reasonable value of this job was $100, he states. Two cases in the superior court would amount to $20, he figures. There was a credit of $25 given, and he claims $95 is due him. In a suit in Justice Burrows' court from which appeal is taken, the plaintiff was judged to have no claim against defendant.

HIGGINS MAY PLEAD GUILTY

Will be Arraigned Either Tomorrow or Saturday on Murder Charge.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] GALESBURG, Ill., April 9.—Robert Higgins, indicted with his step daughter Julia Flake as accessory, for the murder of his wife, will not be arraigned in the circuit court at Aledo today, according to the statement of States Attorney Wilson. It is his expectation to have the prisoner arraigned for plea either tomorrow or Saturday and it will be done quietly. Wilson still insists that Higgins will enter a plea of guilty and that he will throw himself on the mercy of the court, after his attorneys have made pleas of extenuation.

Julia Flake will not be brought back from Aledo at present, but may be some time next week. The states attorney declined to say whether in her case he would urge clemency, but the general belief is that he will.

Y.W.C.A. NOTES

Talks on Business.

The first of the series of talks on things about business which every girl should know, is called, will not be given until a week from Friday night, due to tomorrow's being Good Friday, and the many engagements that are scheduled for the evening. At the date when this lecture will be given, it will be followed by a hair dressing demonstration which every girl who wants to see a new way "to do her hair" will be very eager to see. It will be a very pleasing and instructive demonstration.

THE FURY OF WOMAN SCORED

Strauss Gets Bullet in His Back When His Love Grows Cold.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 9.—Mrs. Etta Cook, a handsome divorcee, walked into the dental office of Drs. H. Unterberg and George S. Heuman, Frisco building, at noon today, and fired two shots from a revolver at Carl Strauss, president of the Meyer, Strauss and Raus Clothing company, 1508 Washington avenue. One bullet entered Strauss' back. He was said to be badly wounded and was taken to St. John's hospital.

Mrs. Cook told the police she was

The Warsaw Gate City

Warsaw, Ill., April 9, 1914.

The election Tuesday was a quiet one and satisfactory to the majority of voters as to its results. For the first time in the history of Warsaw the women voted, polling 104 votes, a good showing for the first time; next election there will be at least twice that number. On the town ticket, C. E. Wallace, democrat, had 226 majority over O. E. Anderson, republican, for assessor; Mr. Wallace held the office before and gave good satisfaction; he received 96 of the 104 women's votes. John Padburg, democrat, was elected collector by 55 majority over George Kleinert. The vote stood for Padburg: male 264; female, 73; total 337. Kleinert: male, 255; female, 27; total, 282; majority 55.

John Berlin, republican, for town clerk, had no opposition and received 249 votes. There were no other off-

Daily Stock Letter.

NEW YORK, April 9.—The further fractional declines on the stock exchange today were again merely a reflection of the general mood of Wall street—which, in its existing state of mind, is much more disposed to look for something unfavorable to occur over the holiday than for something favorable. To an extent no doubt the news of unseasonably low temperatures in the southwestern wheat belt may have had its part in inducing hesitation; the wheat is fast advanced but telegraphed information from Chicago and the crop belt did not give grounds for apprehension. It is still pretty early in the winter wheat crops growth for that information to damage it. After opening at variations of 1/4 or 1/2 from yesterday with Canadian Pacific and New Haven as weak features, the stock market be-
