OUR stocks for spring were made up with a view of pleasing intelligent men—men who know style and value, men who appreciate quality in fabric and workmanship. The young man seeking novel design will find unequalled opportunity for gratifying his taste because of the unusual variety in models, fabrics and shades, while the values we offer will more than satisfy the economical man.

Twenty distinct models are shown in the new fabrics and colors for spring—styles to suit the young man as well as the man of conservative taste.
