CANADIANS DROP LAST GAME 12-4

Indian Recruits Make It Three Straight in the Series With the Fort Williams Club.

CALL GAME IN THE SIXTH

Cold Weather Responsible for Loose Contest—Indians Clout Ball Hard for Twelve Safeties.

Twelve hits in five innings, aided by six errors, gave Abb's tribe the third straight win over the Ft. Williams, Northern league club, by a score of 12 to 4. It was rather a ragged contest all the way through, the weather being far too cold for good baseball. Keith Crown, a local boy who is trying out with the Indians, started the game and pitched the first three innings. He allowed four hits, passed one man, and struck out five. Cook pitched the fourth for the Indians, giving two hits and striking out two batters. Sanknop finished the game, pitching the last two innings. He held the visitors to one hit in each inning.

The Indians opened the scoring in the first when Hensing was safe after polling a long fly to Comer which he dropped, Hensing reaching second. Giffen whiffed and Hensing stole third, scoring when Rogerson laid down a grounder to short. Schauer elected to try for Hensing but failed and Whitey scored while Giffen was safe at first. Herring fouled out to Chapman, but Sweet singled, advancing Rogerson to second. Stewart singled, advancing Sweet to second, while Rogerson scored from that place. Fox doubled, scoring Sweet. Massa popped out to De Rusa, ending the period.

The Canadians counted twice in their half of the third on errors by Stewart and Hensing, a single by Collard and a double by Chapman. They counted twice more in the next inning, taking the lead by one run over the Indians. Comer walked and went to third on Schauer's single after Elliot flew out to Herring. Collard reached first on a safe bingle, but De Rusa whiffed and Chapman flew to Herring, ending the scoring for the visitors.

The Indians again took the lead in their half of the fourth. Massa was safe when Schauer booted his grounder and reached third on Hensing's single after Cook fanned. Giffen rapped out a three bagger to the fence, scoring Massa and Hensing. Rogerson grounded out, Schauer to De Rusa. Giffen counting on the put-out. Herring whiffed, ending the stanza.

The tribe touched Holstein, the Indian Ft. Williams' pitcher, for six safeties and as many counts in the last half of the fifth. Sweet lead the charge with a single. Stewart flew out, but Fox singled to center, reaching second on the throw which caught Sweet off third. Massa grounded to Schauer who booted the ball as he had in the preceding inning. Fox taking third. Fox scored and Massa reached third on Sanknop's long double. Hensing singled, Sanknop and Massa scored. Whitey then stole second, and a few minutes later potted on third and grinned after having placed that sack also. He scored on Giffen's double. Rogerson lined a grounder to the fence which Randall muffed and then threw wild. Rogerson completed the circuit without a pause. Herring walked, but Sweet rolled out, Collard to De Rusa.

Jeffries Calls Game. This ended the scoring. The visitors failed to count in the first half of the sixth and Jeffries called the game on account of cold, darkness, wind and snow, but mostly cold. The game demonstrated one thing and only about one thing, that being that the tribe could hit the ball. Twelve hits in five innings, even against second string pitchers is not a bad record. Half of the Ft. Williams club left for Burlington Sunday morning and played the Manushers that afternoon. The score:

Egan Has Big Leaguer.
A sure big leaguer is what Catcher Hruska, the Boleman on the Ottumwa team is considered by Manager Ned Egan. The Ottumwa pilot said yesterday that Hruska will go to the big league in a short time. Egan also said, "I have a bushel of big league stuff among these youngsters. There is a great demand for players this year, and I intend to supply some of that demand."

Cards at Clinton.
The Clinton baseball association has booked an exhibition game with the St. Louis Cardinals for May 5 at Clinton. This will be on the day before the Central association season opens, and interest will be intense enough for the feature game to draw a big crowd.

Cubs at Muscatine.
Muscatine simply can't get along without having a game with the Chicago Cubs. The Muskie have booked a contest with Hank O'Day's men for July 7. Last year the Boyle outfit beat the Cubs. The Cub game will force Muscatine to postpone a regular Central association game, the same as last year.

Pitcher Sent Back.
Boss Boyle of the Muskies has released Pitcher Maple who was purchased by Muscatine from the Kearney club of the Nebraska State league. Maple recently underwent an operation for appendicitis and will not be able to play this season.

Hayden Fires Two.
Grandpa Tom Hayden has released two Burlington phenoms. They are infielder Lewis and Pitcher Herman of Kansas. Hayden explains that both have ability, but lack experience.

Ned Has Some Brother.
Ned Egan the Ottumwa baseball pilot, comes from a musical family. Ned's brother, Thomas Egan, the famous Irish tenor, made the Egan family famous in Europe and America. Ned is a devoted lover of music. Last Wednesday Thomas Egan and Mme. Lillian Breton, dramatic soprano, gave a concert in Davenport. Boss Ned took a lay off and made the trip to Davenport, where he heard his brother sing.

Abbott Works with Pitchers.
Abbott expects to spend the greater part of his time during the next few days in working with his pitchers. Most of them are good men, with plenty of speed, good curves, and good control, but they are all young and have many things to learn about the fine points of their art.

Ft. William Players Released.
Six members of the Ft. Williams squad that played here yesterday were released after the game by the manager of the club. Both pitchers who worked against the Indians yesterday were among those given the blue slip. Randall, who pitched in Saturday's game was also among those released.

Massa and Johnson Released.
Abbott released Massa and Johnson after the game yesterday. Massa is a likely looking lad from St. Louis, where he played semi-pro ball last summer. He worked in a part of all three games in the series with Ft. Williams, playing at second in the first and at third in the other two games. His main trouble was that he lacked experience. He played in pretty form and gives promise of becoming a good baseball player before very long, and would, no doubt, make a valuable addition to a club in a weaker minor league. Johnson did not get in any of the games of the series.

Brooklyn is prominently on the map today. The city of rubber plants is being represented by leaders in both the National and Federal leagues. They'll have to do better in the Fed league than St. Louis and Indianapolis did if they want to class with the majors. The latter team made eight errors and Billiard gave ten passes.

Old man Wagner is a pretty live mummy. In his last two games his record stands: Ten times at bat, six hits, five put outs and eight assists and no errors.

Those Feds had another extra inning game yesterday. Catcher Wilson of the Chiffids tied it up in the ninth with a home run and it took Kansas City until the 15th to win, 7 to 6.

Kahler of Cleveland guessed wrong when he passed Bush, Cobb and Crawford in the ninth with the scores tied. Veach scored the three with a drive into the crowd.

The Cubs had their batting clothes on against St. Louis. In the eighth they smote Griner hard enough for seven runs.

FAMOUS FIGHTERS PAST AND PRESENT

What They Are Doing With All the Coin They Made in the Squared Circle.

HAVE SPENT FORTUNE

Some Have Saved Their Money and They Have no Fear of the Wolf Getting Them.

What has become of the old timer of the ring? Here is a little dope that will be of interest to those who have been followed the boxing game for the last decade:

Pedler Palmer—When last heard of was working as a movie actor.
John L. Sullivan—Living on his farm near Boston; is spending his retirement in ease, with no fear that the wolf will ever reach his door.
Jack Kilrain—Well fixed in earthly goods; owes much to his old rival, John L., who used Jack as his stage partner for many years.

Ad Wolgast—Reputed to be worth over $100,000; is still boxing ten round bouts in Wisconsin.
Battling Nelson—Lives at Hedge-wich, Ill. Invested the bulk of his savings in real estate, and is looked upon as being "land poor."

Jack Root—Doubled his ring earnings by clever theatrical investments. Has retired from active business.
Jack McAuliffe—Still on the vaudeville stage. Looks good for twenty years more of stage life.
Billy Papke—Following a business career in Illinois. He saved every dollar of his earnings and is independent for life.

Jack Johnson—Eking out a primrose existence in Paris by engaging in doubtful ring and mat affairs. Also appears in vaudeville. Is an exile from the United States with a federal court charge hanging over his head.

Young Corbett—Lives in New York. Is practically penniless.
Terry McGovern—Works in one of the theatres controlled by Cohan and Harris. Practically broke.

Bob Fitzsimmons—Trying to induce the eastern promoters to allow him to box. Declares that he will starve unless allowed to re-enter the ring.
Jim Corbett—In vaudeville. It is his proud boast that he earns $300 a week as an entertainer, and will command this salary for years to come.

Jim Jeffries—Los Angeles cafe owner. The richest of all the veterans. It is estimated that Jeff is safely over the $200,000 mark. Spends most of his time in hunting and fishing.

Abe Attell—Although one of the shrewdest boxers of his day, is reported to have less than one-tenth of the money he earned in the ring. Is living in New York, where he is an inveterate poker player.
Jimmy Britt—Still following the theatrical game. Here is another man who will never ask for a benefit. James Edward has earned several fortunes. He has them all.

Tom Sharkey—Runs a cafe in New York. It is an open scandal that the sailor cuts his hair to save the barber fee.

Grand Forks Next.
There are no more exhibition games scheduled until the end of the week when the Grand Forks club of the Northern league comes here for a series of four games, starting Friday. This club has been training in the northern cities of this league and has won a big share of the exhibition games played.

Cubs Sell Allison.
[United Press Leased Wire Service.]
ST. LOUIS, Mo., April 20.—Pete Allison, Cub outfielder purchased from Green Bay, Wis., last fall is enroute today to join the Memphis Southern association team. He was sold last night.

AMUSEMENTS.

"September Morn" Tomorrow Night. Theatre goers of Keokuk should not make the same mistake that Quincy people did and remain away from the "September Morn" musical comedy that is billed for the Grand tomorrow evening. There is an impression prevalent that the performance is on the burlesque order but this is not the case. Manager Dodge assures his patrons the performance is entirely proper. It was the LaSalle opera house attraction in Chicago for several months and one of the most popular musicals of the season. If it proved such a big success in Chicago for several months—and it did—there should be no timidity from Keokuk theatre-goers as to patronising the performance. And being a musical comedy it is naturally all the more a favorite in this city. The Quincy Whig said of the play:

A great many Quincy people refrained from going to see "September Morn," being under the impression that it was something like a burlesque show. Just why anyone should form such an opinion is more than we can see, because "September Morn" has been the season's greatest success in Chicago. And the production that was seen yesterday afternoon and last night at the Empire Hippodrome was without doubt the most interesting, the most wholesome and the best gowned musical comedy that has ever been in Quincy. This is going some, too, but we believe we are safe in saying this, because the attraction is meritorious from every point of view. The music was catchy and tuneful, although some of the voices were not especially adapted to chorus work. But the scenic effects and the costumes were superb.

The amusement lovers of Quincy certainly overlooked one of the treats of the season by staying away from the Hippodrome last night. As it was there was a fair sized audience and everyone was more than delighted.—Advertisement.

Al. G. Fields Minstrel.
Al. G. Fields will make his annual visit to the Grand next Thursday. This is one attraction that is looked forward to from one year to another by a great many patrons of the Grand and the first announcement brings a rush of orders for seats. The show is all new this year and is receiving some very complimentary press notices. The following appeared in the Rocky Mountain News of Denver on April 13:

Something more than the average minstrel show is the production offered by Al G. Field at the Tabor this week. In "Field's Greater Minstrels" there is minstrelsy and vaudeville combined—an unlimited amount of fun, excellent music and dancing.

A capacity house laughed, shouted and applauded and "thoroughly"—a la Bert Swor—enjoyed every minute of the first performance yesterday. The entertainment is not too deep for children, nor is it too frivolous for older people, as was demonstrated when a baby of 2 years in the front row gave cries of delight and white-haired men and women were not ashamed to be amused at the antics of the minstrels.

Traditional "First Part" Musical.
The opening scene, which is quite different from the cut-and-dried Part I. of the ordinary minstrel show, is laid in Panama when United States officers are celebrating the opening of the canal. English, French, German, Irish, Russian, Scotch, Chinese and "colored gentlemen" are gathered together in their holiday clothes.

Bert Swor and Billy Clark, who are always favorites, were endmen. Their jokes included everything from politics to matrimony and from suffrage to alcoholism.

To look at Swor is to laugh; to hear Swor talk is to scream. He had little to do in the first act, but he made up for it during the rest of the performance, for he was the center of attraction in "The Aviation Meet" and "In Panama."

Johanne Dove, "the Scotch minstrel" gave some soft shoe dancing and some tango steps assisted by Denny Ryan, who was gowned in the height of fashion, including a much-alauded skirt.

Walter Sherwood, tenor of ability, sang two ballad selections. Herbert Willison won success with his yodeling.
"The Aviation Meet" gave Swor as "Eclat," a chance to be an aviator and a monologist and he scored.
Old Dances Revived.
The minuet, Virginia reel, hoe down and the dance of life as danced in "The Days of '61" was the third act. The three Lyres, late from their European triumph, H. L. Harvey, F. C. Henderson and S. E. Lewis, with their "tinkling tunes to tickle theatre-goers" made a triumphant appearance in Denver. Their selections were medleys of popular songs.
"In Panama" was a burlesque on the movies. Swor as "Dyonius All-spice," and Clark as "Nathanial Cawthern," were motion picture actors in Panama who were trying to obtain their salary of $4 from their manager, W. H. Hallett, as "Film Film." Their troubles ended when Dyonius was explaining and demonstrating gunpowder to Nathaniel.
There will be a matinee next Thursday at 2:30. Prices 60c for adults and 25c for children. Night prices, 25, 50, 75, $1.00. Seats can be reserved for either matinee or night performance.—Advertisement.

DR. WALDRON'S METHOD OF DIAGNOSIS is the best in finding the true cause of the disease. He learns the exact condition of all the pelvic organs, and when indicated he tests the blood and excretions of the body. This is very important, as many of the troubles of the stomach, liver, bowels and kidneys are really caused by the condition of the blood or some pelvic lesion or disease.

Dr. Waldron has cured where others fail because he makes a careful and searching examination. He learns what to do. He knows how to do it. He uses modern or up-to-date methods.
