Just Half in Bed

Clyde, Ky.—Mrs. I. A. Decker, writes from Clyde: "I recommend Cardul, the woman's tonic to any woman in need of a remedy. For five years, I was unable to do my own work. Half my time was spent in bed. At last I tried Cardul. Now I am well and happy, and can do my own work."

strength, and makes their work seem easy. It overcomes that tired feeling. A Clear Brain and healthy body are essential for success. Business men, teachers, students, housewives, and other workers say Hood's Sarsaparilla gives them appetit and

RIVER MEETING IS TO BRING RESULTS

C. F. McFarland, Delegate From Keokuk, Feels Sure That With State's Backing Something Will Be Done.

TERMINALS DISCUSSED

Need for Uniform Ones Is Pointed Out—Keokuk Is Ready, Convention Is Told.

The shore terminals conference which was held at St. Louis yesterday, and which was attended by C. F. McFarland who represented Keokuk, launched a program which will bear results for the reason that it calls for the cooperation and backing of the states, the governors and legislatures of the eleven or twelve states which are adjacent to the Mississippi.

A resolution was passed just before the close of the conference putting the matter of terminals and waterways in the hands of the three governors, Eberhardt of Minnesota, Major of Missouri and Dunne of Illinois, who will act as advisory committee to organizations already formed, and who will push the proposition of a uniform movement for shore terminals from Minneapolis to the gulf.

The specific duties of the organization to be formed are to "formulate a plan for a comprehensive inland waterway and terminal improvements by all the states and shipping points touching on the Mississippi river and its tributaries."

Cooper Wakes Keokuk.

During the meeting talks were made by various delegates who expressed the sentiments of their communities. Mr. McFarland said that Keokuk had been sleeping for decades when Hugh L. Cooper, builder of the dam, had "kicked it out of bed."

Co-operate with Others.

The proposed work of which the committee of governors will be directors will in no way interfere with the work of the Upper Mississippi River Improvement association.

"The Upper Mississippi River Improvement association well officered and thoroughly competent, will not be interfered with in the least in its work," Mr. McFarland said.

"It was pointed out," said Mr. McFarland, "that the Upper River association work extended to the mouth of the Missouri. Some organization from the cities south of here may be formed to work along with the states in the work which the governors are to be back of."

Need Uniform Terminals.

The need for uniform terminals at all river towns was emphasized at the meeting yesterday. It was pointed out that the terminals must all be the same or steamboats will lose lots of time and energy and need a hundred different pieces of machinery for loading and unloading if terminals are not alike. A ten foot high sea wall at Keokuk and a sloping levee at Alexandria would mean that steamboats would have to use two entirely different sets of machinery for loading and unloading.

The luncheon at the business men's league was an inspiring sight, Mr. McFarland said. He spoke of the keen interest manifested by the members. A contest has recently closed for the best article of 150 words on the good of this organization as seen by the members. The winners were announced yesterday.

Business Men's Essays.

It may be of interest to local business men to see what the St. Louis men do in literary lines, and the following prize essays are attached:

"In this period of highly organized competition, success would be hopeless in the case of making a great city, without concentrated effort of most efficient character."

"The Business Men's league represents the highest development of such concentrated effort, and I believe I can accomplish one hundred times as much for the benefit of the city, by contributing fifty dollars a year to the league to help them carry their plans, than I could do in any other way. With this belief I joined the league and the results obtained have justified my action."

Yours very truly, EDWARD S. LEWIS, "President."

First prize winner. "For less than fifteen cents a day you can get the services of the leading commercial organization in your city, and the co-operation of the brains and efforts of 2,360 of your city's foremost business men."

"V. L. PRICE, Chairman, "Subdivision 55-Candies" Winner second prize. The prize was a gold plated knife.

Those Who Attended.

The delegates to the river terminals conference were guests at the luncheon. They were Howard Strong Douglas A. Flisks, W. F. Decker and A. L. Crocker, Minneapolis; J. W. Cooper, St. Paul; C. F. McFarland, Keokuk; A. F. Frudden and J. J. Schreiner, Dubuque; Irving C. Norwood and A. M. Compton, Davenport; E. E. Egan, Burlington; Charles H. Williamson and C. F. Perry, Quincy; S. O. Osterhaut and A. O. Brown, Hannibal; C. H. Degehardt, Mayor J. C. Faulstich, E. M. Dorsey and Eben W. Rodgers, Alton; John H. Wiles, Kansas City; F. M. Ducker and P. T. Langan, Cairo; John H. Bernhard and R. H. Dowman, New Orleans; President Sam D. Capen and Col. J. A. Ockerson, St. Louis Business Men's League.

Found a Cure for Rheumatism. "I suffered with rheumatism for two years and could not get my right hand to my mouth for that length of time," writes Lee L. Chapman, Mapleton, Iowa. "I suffered terrible pain so I could not sleep or lie still at night. Five years ago I began using Chamberlain's Liniment and in two months I was well and have not suffered with rheumatism since."

Mexican Prisoners Escaped.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] SAN DIEGO, Calif., April 28.—Fifty-seven Mexican federal soldiers held prisoners at Fort Rosecrans, near here, escaped early today, taking advantage of a small guard and a heavy rain storm to flee. Troops were sent in pursuit and eleven were recaptured. The Mexicans dug a tunnel seventy feet long from their tent to the yard of the quarantine station.

SALTS IS FINE FOR KIDNEYS, QUIT MEAT

Flush the Kidneys at Once When Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia. It has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications.

Society

Pretty Dancing Party.

Society was out in its brightest and best at the dancing party given last night in the armory under the patronage of the house committee of the Country club. The guests were received by Mrs. D. A. Collier, Miss Anne B. Davis, Mrs. I. J. Chapman, Mrs. Eugene S. Baker, Mrs. Theodore A. Craig, Miss Alexina Reid and Miss Mary Irwin. The grand march was formed at half past eight and was led by Major Montgomery Meigs and Miss Frances Meigs. Agne's orchestra furnished a delightful program of music for the dances. Six table were spread for bridge in the rooms adjoining the ball room and many enjoyed cards who did not care to dance. Four very attractive favors were given. Punch was served during the evening and the party was a success in every particular, which was expected by all who knew the personnel of the committee in charge.

Regular B. U. Meeting. The board of directors of the Benevolent Union will hold its regular monthly meeting at the Birge B. U. home on Friday morning at 10 o'clock.

Entertain Choir and Committee. Mr. and Mrs. James Young delightfully entertained the choir and music committee of the First Westminster Presbyterian church last night at their home, 1102 Grand avenue. An impromptu musicale was followed by refreshments. The chorus choir under Mr. Young's direction, is made up largely of young people who do not only know how to sing but how to have a very happy time socially.

Hostess to Reading Club. Mrs. J. A. M. Collins was hostess to the Wednesday Reading club today, and will entertain the Mentor Reading club tomorrow.

Honor for Mrs. Bushnell.

The many admirers in this city of Mrs. Drayton W. Bushnell of Council Bluffs will be pleased to know that she was elected honorary vice president general of the national society Daughters of the American Revolution, a few days ago at the national G. A. R. congress being held in Washington, D. C. This is considered a very high honor in D. A. R.; it is a life office and only thirteen in the United States hold this office. It is one of the laws of election that the candidate must be nominated in her own state and Mrs. Bushnell was nominated at the conference here last fall, one of the Keokuk women making the speech of nomination.

To Entertain Church Society.

Miss Julia B. Schmidt of 1408 Exchange street, will entertain the Young Ladies' Aid society of St. Paul's German Evangelical church on Thursday evening, April 30. The following ladies will assist: Misses Emma Wirtz, Sarah Temme, Madeline Volters, Carrie Off, Lulu Linnenburger, Kate Hilpert, Beulah Utley.

Co. A, I. N. G. Ball.

Company "A," 54th I. N. G. of Fort Madison, Iowa, will give their first annual ball at the armory hall Friday evening, May 8, 1914, in Fort Madison. There will be a banquet, camp fire, etc. in connection. Among the patrons and patronesses whom the guards will be pleased to honor are Captain and Mrs. Robert Richardson of Keokuk. The occasion promises to be a social feature in Fort Madison history.

Swedish Aid Society.

The Swedish Aid society of the Swedish Lutheran church will be entertained tomorrow afternoon by Mrs. August Johnson at her home, 1605 Franklin street.

Will Meet Prominent Knight.

Supreme Knight James H. Flaherty of New Haven, Conn., will pay an official visit to the Burlington council, Knights of Columbus, this evening. It is expected that several local knights will go to Burlington to meet the distinguished visitor from the east.

SUDDEN END OF INVESTIGATIONS

Judge Discharged Grand Jury When the Case Began to Get Too Warm.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] TERRE HAUTE, Ind., April 28.—Chalmers Hamill who was special prosecutor, investigating election frauds here until Judge Fortune suddenly dismissed the grand jury, issued a statement today in which he implicated Crawford Fairbanks, millionaire brewer and democratic politician.

"Fairbanks was to have been subpoenaed before the jury thirty minutes after he returned from his vacation abroad," said Hamill. "Judge Fortune learned of this shortly before he consulted Fairbanks, Mayor Donn Roberts, now on trial and Thomas Taggart, in Indianapolis."

"The day after this consultation, Fortune dismissed the grand jury," Hamill also said that Thomas Beggs, partner of Fairbanks, was to have been indicted this week and that Judge Fortune knew of this. Several judgments have been dismissed by Fortune since the grand jury was discharged. Rumors have it that other dismissals will follow.
