

PLANS BEING MADE FOR FINE EXHIBIT

"Everywhere" at St. John's Next Week Will be Staged With Greatest Attention to All Details.

SEVERAL FINE SPEAKERS

Committees Have Secured Persons Who Are Well Versed on Subjects to Make Talks.

Preparations are being made for the presentation of "Everywhere," the great mission exposition at St. John's parish house, May 12 to May 16. "Everywhere" is an educational exposition for the instruction of mission work in the church.

The exposition comprises a general exhibit, consisting of illustrated charts, colored maps, posters, placards, models of schools, church and mission buildings, curios, native clothing from everywhere in the world and a multitude of other interesting data and material gathered from every mission field under the sun.

Stewards garbed in the costume of the country they represent, will circulate about the rooms ready to impart to the visitor information as to the habits, mannerisms, religious beliefs, etc., and the work of the missions of any country that one may care to ask about. The stewards will also distribute to visitors very interesting literature pertaining to missionary work. This literature has been prepared by the board of missions and will be given away free of charge.

Magnificent Spectacle.

Within the parish house will be a magnificent spectacle. Booths, representing Japan, China, Philippine, Alaska and our American Indians line the walls, each one an accurate reproduction of some typical scene from foreign shores. Suits of armor, curios, wearing apparel, snow sledges, Filipino huts, Japanese cottages, Chinese shrines, Indian villages, Alaska igloos, war weapons, household utensils, etc., complete the illusion that one is miles from Keokuk. Tableaux or demonstrations as they are called, faithfully depicting events in the daily lives of the inhabitants of far off lands will be enacted every evening and afternoon.

Three evenings a dramatic representation of missionary work among the Indians will be presented under the title "The Great Trail." A thoroughly coached and costumed cast of more than seventy-five characters will enact this mystery play.

On two of the evenings a most unique mystery play called "The Gift of Self" will be given.

All through the exposition, children in native costumes will play games just as they are played in their own countries.

Many Fine Speakers.

During the exposition a number of speakers, prominent in the lines of work they represent, will be heard. The following have been secured by Dr. Sage to make addresses during the exposition.

The Right Rev. Theodore N. Morrison, bishop of Iowa; Bishop Sylvester Tuttle of Missouri, the Right Rev. Sydney C. Partridge, bishop of Kansas City, formerly bishop of Kyoto, Japan and for twenty years a missionary in China; H. F. Parshall, arch deacon of the Indian work, diocese of Duluth; Rev. Samuel H. Bishop, secretary of the American church institute for negroes; Miss Bertha R. Babcock, representative of the Iowa branch of the Woman's Auxiliary in Japan; Miss Mary C. Collins, for twenty-five years Congregational church missionary among the Indians in the Dakotas.

On Tuesday night the exhibit will be formally opened with Bishop Morrison as the speaker, and a pageant of nations, followed by a mystery play, "The Great Trail." There will be on subsequent days and nights: West night, Negro night; Indian night; Japanese afternoon; Alaskan and Philippine afternoon;

Chinese night, Children's afternoon, Saturday, May 16 and Hawaiian, Mexican and Haiti afternoon.

No Effort Spared.

This exposition will be a faithful reproduction of that given at the time of the recent general convention in New York; except that in many respects efforts have been made to surpass even the New York exposition in scenic and costume effects, wonderful as that great demonstration was. Throughout each evening and afternoon, a splendid corps of trained stewards, dressed in the costume of the country that they represent, will be in attendance at the various booths to give intelligent information about the countries they portray, particularly as to the work of the missions of the church.

The native games of the various countries will also be repeated during each exhibition as opportunity will permit. At each booth in the general exhibit there will be distributed free of charge a series of pamphlets published by the general board of missions which contain very interesting and instructive information regarding the work of missions both at home and abroad.

ABUNDANT FRUIT CROP INDICATED

That is the Optimistic View Taken by a Prominent and Successful Fruit Grower.

Friday afternoon Mr. Homer T. Brown, a prominent citizen of Hamilton, Ill., just across the Mississippi river, was in the city and casually dropped in on The Gate City. Mr. Brown is an extensive grower of fruit in this locality and is well-read in all matters pertaining to fruit growing, which he studies with intelligence and pride. Only a few weeks ago Mr. Brown gave a talk to The Gate City on the matter of fruit prospects in this locality which have been accurately verified up to this time. He is now very optimistic in reference to the present outlook, especially in the matter of pears, apples and peaches, each of which are presenting fine prospects for a bountiful crop this season. He spoke especially of pears, of which he has already engaged for the marketing of one thousand bushels and he is equally sanguine as to his peach and apple yield.

This will be gratifying to the people of this vicinity, the fruit and berry harvests being important factors in bringing about valuable commercial and industrial results, furnishing a season of glad prosperity.

Biggs, suddenly and without the slightest warning dropped dead on the street. It is said that she was on her way to church and to all appearances was in her usual health when she left her home, not the slightest thought being entertained that she was suffering from any ill health. Her death is attributed to heart failure. Mrs. Biggs before marriage was Miss Jennie Herrick. She was born

Ladies! Look Young, Darken Gray Hair

Use the Old-time Sage Tea and Sulphur and Nobody will Know.

Gray hair, however handsome, denotes advancing age. We all know the advantages of a youthful appearance. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just a few applications of Sage Tea and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred fold. Don't stay gray! Look young! Either prepare the tonic at home or get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." Thousands of folks recommend this ready-to-use preparation, because it darkens the hair beautifully and removes dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair; besides, no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear younger.

In Missouri May 19, 1890, and in December, 1888, was married to Mr. J. H. Biggs, since which time she has been an esteemed resident of Montrose, always a kind and generous neighbor and friend.

She was a faithful and loving wife and a loving and indulgent mother, and her presence will be sadly missed in the family circle and among her many neighbors and friends in the social circles of Montrose who extend a heartfelt sympathy to the bereaved ones, her husband and five motherless children.
