

KEOKUK DOCTORS WERE ENTERTAINED

Fifteen went to Fort Madison on Friday afternoon as guests of Physicians Society There.

FINE PROGRAM GIVEN

Banquet Which Closes Day's Events is a Big One and is Greatly Enjoyed.

Fifteen Keokuk physicians went to Fort Madison Friday afternoon to attend the meeting of the Fort Madison Medical society which was held at the Hotel Anthes and was followed by a reception and banquet at 6 o'clock. The meeting was most enjoyable for both the Fort Madison and Keokuk doctors. Some of the best medical talent not only in the two cities was secured, but doctors from Chicago, Ottumwa and Galesburg and Peoria were invited to participate in the interesting program.

The following attended from Keokuk: Drs. Coral R. Armentrout, Henry A. Gray, R. M. Lapsley, L. C. Howe, F. B. Dorsey, Sr., F. B. Dorsey, Jr., W. M. Hogle, H. R. Courtwright, C. A. Dimond, Bundy Allen, B. L. Gillfillan, Frank M. Fuller, F. C. Smith, G. J. Hall and W. Frank Browne.

Dr. Frank M. Fuller of Keokuk was on the program to respond to the welcome which was extended the Keokuk doctors by Dr. R. S. Reimers of Fort Madison.

The following is the program as arranged by the Fort Madison society:

Address of Welcome—Dr. R. S. Reimers, Fort Madison.

Response to Welcome—Dr. F. M. Fuller, Keokuk, Iowa.

"Intestotomy for Ileus following Suppurative Appendicitis"—Dr. John D. Freeman, Topeka, Kansas.

Discussion opened by M. L. Bischoff, Fort Madison, Iowa.

"Some Points in the Surgery of the Bladder"—Dr. Clifford U. Collins, Peoria, Illinois.

Discussion opened by Dr. H. F. Steale, Burlington, Iowa.

"The X-ray Diagnosis of the Lesion of the Right Upper Quadrant"—Dr. James T. Case, Chicago, Illinois.

Discussion opened by Dr. James F. Herrick, Ottumwa, Iowa.

"A Discussion of the Newer Diagnostic Methods in Upper Abdominal Affections"—Dr. Roger T. Vaughan, Chicago, Illinois.

Discussion opened by Dr. Jas F. Percy, Galesburg, Illinois.

In the invitations and notices of the meeting which were mailed out, the Fort Madison doctors said that they expected the meeting this year to be the best ever, and the Keokuk doctors reported yesterday that the expectations of their hosts on Friday had been realized, both as to program and banquet.

Building in Constant Motion. There are many in New York who regard the Flatiron building not only from the standpoint of a curiosity, but from that of beauty, as the eighth wonder of the world. In the top stories of this building the pendulum of office clocks sways so far over that it cannot come back of itself, only when aided by the return movement of the great structure. It is spliced from the walls with this ceaseless movement, for, like the prow of a ship, the "Flatiron" sways and gives with the elements.

Plays Favorites. Opportunity knocks once at every man's door, and even follows some men out to the ball park.

The Winner

In order to do things—to succeed—you must have health, and this means taking care of the digestion, the liver and the bowels. For this particular work is well adapted. It soothes and tones the tired stomach and promotes bowel regularity. Try it.

HOSTETTER'S Stomach Bitters

When the sculptors at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition began their work they had as an inspiration a task which has appealed to the imagination of the world for centuries, the cutting of the barrier between the Atlantic and Pacific oceans in the Panama canal, and so they have reproduced in the sculpture figures of the early explorers, pirates, the adventurers of the seas, the pioneers, pathfinders. The picture above shows "The Pirate" by Allan Newman, the brilliant American sculptor.

CITIZENS SEEK TO FORCE ROAD SALE

Allege Keokuk and Western Branch of "Q" Operates in Violation of the Anti-Trust Law.

INDIGNATION MEETINGS

Several Towns Along 300 Miles of This Railroad Send Out Protests Against It.

Action to compel the Burlington route to sell the line running from Shenandoah to Keokuk by way of Centerville, known as the Keokuk & Western, and the Humeston & Shenandoah, alleged to be operated in violation of the Sherman anti-trust law, will be taken by residents of the towns along the route. Organization was perfected for this purpose at a meeting held at the capitol by Attorneys H. H. Stott of Clarinda and E. R. Ferguson of Shenandoah with Dwight Lewis, assistant commerce counsel.

The attorneys will present the facts to the legal department of the government at Washington, with the request that suit be filed immediately in the federal court.

Held Indignation Meetings. The line of action was determined upon after indignation meetings had been held in a number of the towns along the Keokuk & Western, called for the purpose of protesting against the alleged poor service for so long that the business of the line has dropped off so that the line hardly pays operating expenses. The people who depend upon the line say that because the Burlington operates a main line across the state a short distance to the north, the branch is neglected.

The people hired as their attorneys, H. H. Stott of Clarinda and E. R. Ferguson of Shenandoah. They determined that it will be best for southern Iowa if the Burlington is compelled to let go of the Keokuk & Western. If another company secures the property it will come into direct competition with the Burlington and therefore the service and business will be greatly improved, they assert.

Nearly 300 Miles Long. The line which is sought to be separated from the C., B. & Q. system is nearly 300 miles long. It extends almost across the state in the southern tier of counties of the state. It is ordinarily a rich territory and originates a large volume of business for local lines as well as for interstate lines, the attorneys assert.

It is declared that the feeling against the poor service provided by the operating company is running high in the towns affected.

PERSONALS.

CORN CONTEST IN HANCOCK COUNTY

Boys Are Offered Rewards for Growing Best Crops Between June and October This Year.

ELIGIBLE AGE 16 TO 20

Prize Will be Based on Results of One Acre Cultivated—Many Rules Govern.

Hancock county, Illinois, boys are to have a corn growing and exhibiting contest, for which the following awards have been provided by Leon Chavillon, a resident of Carthage: First, No. 99 John Deere corn planter, $41; second, John Deere rider cultivator, $26; third, 90-tooth, all-steel harrow, $19.50; fourth, 14-inch John Deer steel beam plow, $14.50.

Rules of Contest. The following rules will govern the contest:

1. Any boy who is 16 and not over 20 years of age on April 1, 1914, and is a resident of Hancock county, shall be eligible to enter this contest.
2. All judging of exhibits must be done according to the rules and scorecard of the Illinois Corn Growers' association.
3. All corn shown must be grown in Hancock county by the exhibitor, and must be of the crop of the current season.
4. The contest shall be on the basis of one acre. The acre used may be of any shape most convenient to the grower. It must contain no more or less than 160 square rods. It must have a border row of corn on each side and each end which shall be the same distance from the first corner row of the acre proper as in the distance between the rows in the acre.
5. The name of the contestant and name and type of seed corn used must be recorded on or before June 15, 1914.
6. The planting and all the labor of the acre shall be done by the contestant.
7. An account of the time required for each of the various operations shall be kept. These include fertilizing, plowing, pulverizing, planting, cultivating, and any others not enumerated, as well as the manner of planting, hills, drills, listing, distance apart of hills, stalks per hill, stalks not having ears.
8. If fertilizers are used, kind and amount applied and cost shall be given.
9. Final measurement of the area and the husking shall be done only under the supervision of the committee of judges.
10. Samples of the corn that are representative of the acre shall be taken by the committee, and the percent of dry matter determined according to the oil process. (Process optional with committee.)
11. The yield per acre shall be calculated to the water-free corn.
12. In determining profits of the acre of corn, a ground rental of $5 per acre, 12 cents per hour for work of each boy, 8 cents per hour for each horse and $1 per load of stable manure shall be charged, and the value of the corn shall be calculated by taking the price of corn delivered in Carthage on Oct. 31, 1914.
13. Contestants shall be held in Carthage on Oct. 31, 1914.
14. Contest is to be judged by the following scorecard: Best yield, 30; best showing of profit, 30; best exhibit of ten ears, 20; best written report, "How I Made My Crop of Corn," 20. Total, 100 points.
15. In the opinion of the judges item 12 has not been accurately kept, and injustice will result, it may be excluded and the contest judged on the other three.

DELEGATES RETURN FROM OSKALOOSA

Keokuk's Representatives at T. P. A. Meeting Report Fine Time—Yates is Delegate.

Representatives from Keokuk to the T. P. A. of a convention at Oskaloosa returned last night. They report a very harmonious and successful meeting, with 110 representatives from various parts of the state present. H. M. Yates of this city was elected at this meeting as one of the national delegates to the convention at Houston, Texas, in June.

The delegates who represented Keokuk were: Carl Lichtenberg, George W. West, H. M. Yates, B. S. Andreeson, Edgar Wright, J. W. Frank and J. R. Irwin.

The delegates all speak in the highest praise of the enthusiastic and cordial treatment accorded them by the entertainment committee of the Oskaloosa order.
