BURLINGTON GRABS THIRD GAME 8-5

Swatting Fast Good for a Total of 27 Hits Goes to Tom Hayden's Pathfinders.

RED SOX START EARLY

Rout O'Byrne From Box in the First Round—Cook to Rescue, is a Trifle Wobbly.

[Special to The Gate City.]

BURLINGTON, Iowa, May 21.—The Burlington Red Sox grabbed the third and last game of the series with the Indians in this city after a swatting fest in which a total accumulation of twenty-seven hits were made. Although the Indian visitors had the odds on the hits, 14 to 13, the locals gathered in the big end of the score which ended 8 to 5.

Double plays were in a large part responsible for the small score of the Indians. On several occasions the bases were cleaned up and the side retired by fast fielding of the locals.

McCoy started the game for the Red Sox, working fine until the seventh inning. Here he struck a snag in the form of four hits, two of them good for a pair of bases each. Three runs were counted by the Abbots in this period before the side was retired. They came back for more runs in the next two innings, getting one count in each. They were unable to overcome the early lead piled up by the home guards, however, and the game went the same way fifteen others have gone this year.

O'Byrne started the slab work for the visitors but was driven to cover in the first round. Cook replaced him, doing more effective work, although he was a trifle wild and wobbled enough to spill five more runs.

Strong at the Bat

Singleton and Lunte both made fine showings at the bat, each getting three hits out of four times at bat. Harmon got his customary home run yesterday although he did not smash the ball over the fence as is usually the case. He hit a dandy far into center field, however, which struck the ground at the side of the club house and rolled outside of the grounds. It was a neat four bagger and it is no discredit to him that it did not go over the fence. Harmon evidently likes candy better than some of the other players.

The umpire, according to general opinion, has not yet found his eye-sight, as many of his decisions were severely criticised. Manager Abbott of the visitors, was especially sore and gave vent to his feelings on several occasions.

Many Double Plays

Double plays were a feature of the game yesterday, three being made by the local squad. All of them were fast and well executed, which just further the general opinion that Burlington has about the best little infield in the league.

Started Early

Burlington started scoring in the first inning. Five hits and two stolen bases turned the trick and three runs were brought in without much trouble. In the middle of the inning Keokuk replaced their pitcher and he did little better. In the third and sixth the locals also scored one run, while in the seventh three more were batted in. It was in this last inning that Harmon made his four bagger amid the cheers of the crowd, which brought in Singleton, who had previously hit a two bagger.

Visitors Rally

The visitors were held scoreless until the seventh, when they also had a batting rally. Four hits were made off McCoy in this frame, two of them being two-baggers, and as a result three tallies were chalked up. All doubt of the game was over, however, when Burlington batted in three in their half of the inning.

In the eighth and ninth the visitors tried hard to overcome the local's lead, but were successful in getting but one run in each.

ABB SENDS MACK ON SLAB TODAY

Plays Best Bet of Pitching Staff in First Fame of Series on the Home Grounds.

NEW FACES IN LINE-UP

Marshall, New Outfielder and Catcher, and Pennington to be Seen in Game Today.

With McCullough, the only pitcher that has defeated the Burlington Red Sox this year, on the mound, Abbott played his best bet in the opening game of the series with the Pathfinders here today. Several new faces were slated to appear in the lineup today. Marshall, a new man secured from Davenport, was being figured on to work in right field. Marshall is a promising young player that tried out with Davenport this season and worked in a number of the early games of the Blue Sox schedule. He is doubly accomplished in that he can do the receiving when occasion demands.

Clarence Jack left after the game at Burlington yesterday for Princeton, Ill. He will be back in a couple of days, probably in time to work in Sunday's fray. Jack's trip to Princeton is for the purpose of getting things ready for the opening of the season there where he expects to manage a semi-pro club this summer. Hunter will hold down second during Jack's absence. Another new face to local fans will be that of Pennington, who was signed by the boss while the club was on the road. Pennington will cavort in the left garden in today's set-to.

Dale, another outfielder, is expected to report within a few days. He was in the Kansas State league last year, where he batted a grand average of .330. Abbott is making these shifts among his outfielders in the hope of strengthening the club's offense. During the road trip, just concluded, the outfielders have been very weak on batting, a fact which accounts for the most part for the loss of seven games out of the nine played. The infield has been doing practically all the hitting while the team has been away from home.

O'Byrne and Adams, two men who reported while the club was on the road, were released following the Burlington game yesterday. O'Byrne did the hurling in part of the game yesterday, being relieved by Cook. Adams is a catcher, but failed to show anything in practice and was turned loose.

Somers May Recall Recruit.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] CLEVELAND, Ohio, May 21.—President Somers of the Naps, it was rumored today, may recall Guy Morton, former Nap, famed to the Waterbury, Conn., club, of the Eastern association. Morton's exhibition of one no hit game and fanning nineteen men in another is responsible. Nap twirlers up to the present have suffered twenty defeats out of twenty-eight chances.

GIANTS GET IN TUNE FOR FIRST WESTERN INVASION

[By Hal Sheridan. Written for the United Press.]

NEW YORK, May 21.—By the time we are ankle, knee or waist deep in June there may be several things which have gone unanswered in May that may begin to show signs of solution. The National league teams are more or less up to their necks in their first western invasion, while the American league forces of the west are trailing over the sodden fields of the east.

Up to and including this point west has met west and east east, but when the intersectional clashes scamper along a real size up of the situation begins to shape itself into a sort of form that permits the dopsters to use up yards of paper in figuring, and then find in October that their figures were worth just about as much as the paper they scribbled on.

Insofar as National league matters are concerned, Manager McGraw expects to return to the polo grounds in June looking much better, pennantly speaking, than he did when he started on his western trip. When McGraw hit Pittsburgh, the Pirates had won fifteen games and lost four, which indicates considerable ball playing. Jennings also faced a stiffer fight to keep to the fore. Instead of the St. Louis Browns, White Sox and Cleveland Naps, the Tigers have had nothing to worry about except the wild and untamed Yanks or Frank Chance, Walter Johnson, Hochling, the Boston Braves and a team in Philadelphia known as the Athletics.

That's all they have had to fear during their first eastern trip in the tussle to keep in the lead. If Walter Johnson doesn't kill some of the batters maybe the Mackians artillery will also spare a felder or two and Jennings will get back to Detroit and the west in the same spot with the other teams holding the balance in the percentage column.

Clark's Crew Making Dash. Clark's crew, however, had been tussling with the late lamented Chicago Cubs, St. Louis and Cincinnati. McGraw had had the scrapping Phillies, Wilbur Robinson's Brooklyn Dodgers and Boston to argue with. Now the tables have been switched. If they keep the bit in their teeth and continue their dash over the prostrate season as they did over the western half of the circuit, it will be a long hard chase before they are caught.

"Big Four" Tuned for Tour.

McGraw has Mathewson, Tesreau, Marguard and Demaree, the "Big Four," tuned for this western tour and expects to deliver. He figures on the Pirates getting on the receiving end of several hard, solid wallops before they are through with the eastern bunch. It is, so far as any one is able to figure out, largely a matter of Clark's pitchers continuing to come through. McQuillen, the come-back, has borne the brunt of the pastime of standing opposing batsmen on their heads so far. Lurking in the back-ground, Clark has Bob Harmon, too, who has shown but little during the early period. When the sun begins to boll down, however, and Harmon loosens up he should be a big help.

Harmon has been guilty of pitching some rattling games and with the support the Pirates assure a boxman, to say nothing of some effective sticking on the side, the ex-Cardinal may yet come along with Mowry and Kony and live down the fact that he played in St. Louis.

LAST AMERICAN IS ELIMINATED

Of Ten Americans Entered in Amateur Golf Championship Nones Remained After Today.

Chick Evans and Harold Weber Were Eliminated From Running by Defeat This Morning.

TWO IN THIS MORNING

Chick Evans and Harold Weber Were Eliminated From Running by Defeat This Morning.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.]

SANDWICH, England, May 21.—The British amateur golf cup will not go to the United States. This afternoon with two more days of play to come, there was not an American in the running. The defeat today of Charles W. (Chick) Evans of Chicago and Harold Weber of Toledo, Ohio, eliminated the last of ten American entrants from the championship. Evans was defeated 4 up and 2 to play by MacFarlane, an Englishman, who two years ago lasted until the semifinals. Weber met defeat, 6 up and 4 to play, at the hands of Hutchinson, an English player.

Ten Who Entered.

The Americans who started were Francis Oulmet, open golf champion of the United States; Jerome D. Travers, amateur golf champion of the United States; Frederick Herrshoff, Chas. W. Evans, Arthur G. Lockwood, Frazer Hals, G. W. Inslie, Wm. Knapp, Tooping and Weber. The easy defeat of Travers, cast the first dampen on the hopes of the Americans. He was beaten in his first elimination round by Palmer, an Irish player. Oulmet, who was the real hope of the Americans, went down to defeat yesterday at the hands of H. Tubbs, 2 up and 1 to play. He was not up to form in any of his play. Herrshoff who also was looked to as an American hope, was eliminated by Michael Scott. Lockwood was defeated by Hayward. The other Americans went out early in the contest.

Two Left This Morning.

SANDWICH, England, May 21.—Of the ten Americans who entered the British amateur golf championship, just two, Charles W. (Chick) Evans of Chicago and Harold Weber of Toledo remained in the running when play was resumed today. The other was scheduled to meet Cecil Hutchinson. A few years ago Hutchinson was one of the best amateurs in the land. He lost form badly, but of his play has been improving.

Evans today was to play MacFarlane, a very finished player, who years ago reached the semi final round.

Many of the American players tend to enter the French championship and all of them except Travers will play in the British open championship.

Sporting Views

By the Editor

Pennington celebrated his debut at Burlington yesterday by collecting two hits in five trips to the plate one of them being good for an extra base.

Abbott made another shift in batting order, shifting Hensling to third place and leading off with Pennington. Two pitchers were used the outfield, McCullough and Giffin. Mack rapped out two doubles while McCoy came across with one.

Despite the defeat yesterday looks good to see the boys again hitting the ball. Fourteen hits will win every game, but if the team can win fourteen hits every day there would be no question about where they would finish at the close of the season.

Burlington Hawk-Eye: McCullough who is one of Keokuk's star twirlers played in right field yesterday and proved his good ability at this position having already done so in the past. He made one exceptionally difficult catch of a high fly smashed out by Strong, for which he ran clear to the territory rightly belonging to center fielder. He also did some brilliant batting, getting two hits and runs. Yes—it is admitted by all that this Indian is a good man.

Kilbane to Battle Chavez.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] DENVER, Colo., May 21.—John Kilbane, feather weight champion of the world will reach here tomorrow begin training for his 15 round battle May 29 with Benny Chavez the Colorado Mexican. Kid McCoy who is staying here, will take charge of Chavez's training and endeavor give him some of the skill which made McCoy famous.
