Our instructions to the famous editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine were: "Get up a book of recipes of the things people like best. Find the best way to make and bake each one. Then write it out so plainly that even an inexperienced housewife can't have a failure."

"The Cook's Book" was the result. Some of the 90 recipes were originated, many of them were improved upon, and all were personally tested by this best known authority on cooking in America, and she tells so clearly how she made everything that one cannot go astray.

While some of the cakes and pastry are elaborate enough for any occasion, the recipes are all thoroughly practical and call for no expensive and unusual ingredients. In addition to telling how to make them, the book is beautifully illustrated in colors showing how to arrange and serve the dishes appetizingly.

More than half a million of "The Cook's Book" are now in use in American households. Yet the demand is constantly increasing. Many send for two or three at a time to give to friends or young housekeepers. Don't depend on borrowing one from a neighbor—have one of your own.

How to Get "The Cook's Book"

In every 25c. can of K C Baking Powder is packed a colored certificate. Send us one of these certificates (paste it on a postal card if you like) with your name and address plainly written, and "The Cook's Book" will be mailed free of charge. Only one book for each certificate.

PEEPER CAPTURED; THEN BREAKS JAIL

Hamilton Posse Grabs Man Who Has Been Making Practice of Looking in Windows of Houses.

HIS SECOND OFFENSE

Man is Convicted, But Last Night, Evidently With Outside Aid, He Makes His Escape.

[Special to The Gate City.]

HAMILTON, Ill., May 22.—The capture, arrest and conviction of a Jack the Peeper, and the subsequent startling jail delivery of this same prisoner were events which moved in startling rapidity in Hamilton this week. John Glines Jr., was the man arrested and who subsequently escaped. This is the second time he has been convicted of the charge of peeping.

For the last two months this people of Hamilton have been annoyed by this nocturnal visitor. One house in particular near the water power works seems to have been the object of his nightly visits. The prisoner was unknown to the people of Hamilton but they decided to make his acquaintance.

Last Tuesday night a posse of eight men hid themselves in the weeds and trees near the house and waited. Evidently suspecting nothing, their quarry was seen to make his way to the window. The posse instantly started for him, but before he could be surrounded, he made his escape.

He proved a good runner and took the eight men on a long grind, but he was finally nabbed. It was then that he was found to be Glines. Some time before he had been caught at the same occupation and had been assessed a fine, which later was remitted. Since his capture previously, the Hamilton city council passed an ordinance against window peeping or night prowling on private premises. It was under this law that the man was tried and convicted.

It was on Wednesday that he was given a fine of $120, the maximum possible under the law. By an agreement he was to work on the streets for 50 cents per day and his meals.

Last night some one from the outside helped the prisoner make his escape. Although the marshal lives but half a block away, and although there are numerous houses surrounding the town, the prisoner was gone this morning. A bar pried loose evidently from the outside, and grass trampled on around the jail told the story of the escape.

LINDSEY GOING TO SEE ROCKEFELLER

Oil Man Has Said That He Will Not Allow Him in the House.

NEW YORK, May 22.—Fresh from a conference with President Wilson in Washington, juvenile Judge Ben B. Lindsey, of Denver, arrived here today on his way to Tarrytown, where he said he proposed to lay before John D. Rockefeller, the true condition of affairs in the Colorado mine strike.

Lindsey, accompanied by his wife and the wives and children of several miners said he would undertake his mission to Pocantico Hills in spite of Rockefeller's announced determination not to see him and regardless of the resolution forwarded to President Wilson by the Denver Chamber of Commerce that Lindsey does not represent the state of Colorado, but interested himself in the strike to further his political ambitions.

The Other Side. DENVER, Colo., May 22.—That violent, unjust and irrational charges are being made against Governor Ammons, the state troops and other factors of the law and order in Colorado, will be told President Wilson at Washington by Mrs. Helen Grenfell, representing the Law and Order league, who is enroute to the national capital today.

To counteract the effect of the statements made by Judge Lindsey and the wives of striking miners in Washington yesterday, Mrs. Grenfell will tell the league's version of the Colorado strike situation. She will read a letter issued recently by the league declaring the militia were not to blame for the battle of Ludlow and the fatalities resulting from it.

Are Against Prohibition. LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 22.—The National Association of Retail Grocers adopted a resolution opposing national-wide prohibition. Frank B. Conolly of San Francisco was elected president. The convention goes there next year.

Barker's Ultimatum. [United Press Leased Wire Service.] JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., May 22.—Attorney General Barker stated today that if the plans for reorganizing the Wabash do not provide for setting aside $2,000,000 by the reorganized properties, for the payment to residents of this state for excess freight and passenger charges, while the rate laws were held up in the federal courts, he would institute suit to recover the same in the federal court.

Store Closed Saturday. [United Press Leased Wire Service.] PHILADELPHIA, May 22.—John Wanamaker, the merchant prince, made good so far as his own store was concerned, his prophesy of last winter, that a day would come when the people would buy nothing on Saturday and Sunday would be two days long. Wanamaker announced today that his Philadelphia store would be closed all day Saturday during July and August. This is a new experiment in the Philadelphia establishment and the old custom of closing at five o'clock during the three summer months will also be observed.

P. E. O. Officers. [United Press Leased Wire Service.] DES MOINES, Iowa, May 22.—The following officers were elected today at the state convention of the Iowa P. E. O. society: Mrs. Lillian Griffith, of Hart, president; Mrs. Stella Porter, Ottumwa, first vice president; Mrs. Ellis Engells, Des Moines, second vice president; Mrs. Bess Brown Manning, Keosauqua, recording secretary; Mrs. Cornelia Sawyer, Sioux City, treasurer; Mrs. Mary A. Grant, Burlington, organizer; Mrs. Louise M. Henely, Grinnell, corresponding secretary. The convention adjourned at noon.

Texas River on a Tear. [United Press Leased Wire Service.] AUSTIN, Texas, May 22.—All rivers and streams in Austin territory and southwest Texas were threatening great destruction to crops by floods today. The Colorado river was fifteen feet above normal and an additional raise of sixteen feet was reported coming down. The big dam under construction here is not considered in danger, however.

Japs Make Protest. [United Press Leased Wire Service.] AUSTIN, Texas, May 22.—Alleged violation of the treaty between the United States and Japan, K. Abe, Japanese consul at Chicago, wrote a letter of protest to Governor Colquett on behalf of the Japanese of Houston who were refused a liquor license. The state attorney general's office announced today that the law did not violate the treaty.

How Huerta Will Escape. [By C. H. Raymond, United Press Staff Correspondent.]

ON BOARD U. S. S. CALIFORNIA, OFF MAZATLAN, May 14 (by mail).—People along the west coast of Mexico are convinced that General Huerta plans to flee from Mexico by way of Salina Cruz and a ship is said to be prepared to take the dictator to Central America and thence to Europe. It is said Huerta has been trying to establish a custom of disappearing frequently for a day or two at a time. Many believe he is thus preparing to render his escape without notice much easier.

Smallpox in Illinois. [United Press Leased Wire Service.] SPRINGFIELD, Ill., May 22.—Dr. C. H. Nelson, investigator for the state board of health, today reported several cases of smallpox at Hillsdale and Joeslyn, Rock Island county, which had been diagnosed by local health authorities as chicken pox.

On learning that the wife of a Hillsdale minister was suffering from the epidemic, Nelson disturbed a funeral at Hillsdale yesterday to take the minister into custody.

Killed Three People.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] THIEF RIVER FALLS, Minn., May 22.—A coroner's jury was impaneled this morning to investigate the murders committed by Louis Gilsoul, who yesterday entered a farm home thirty miles from here, shot and killed Mrs. Ludwig Larson, Helen Gilsoul, his wife, and Olga Olson. After killing the three women, he mortally wounded Mrs. O. K. Olson and then killed himself.

Trouble between Gilsoul and his wife is alleged to have started the trouble. The couple had been living in Saskatchewan. During the shooting the family dog attacked the murderer and he shot it.

Killed by Lightning.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] ORD, Neb., May 22.—Three brothers, Charles, Lumir and John Crullik, were instantly killed last night by a flash of lightning at the Crullik farm, thirteen miles west of Ord. The boys were 17, 15 and 11 years old respectively. The flash of lightning that killed the boys occurred during a heavy electrical storm between 9 and 10 p. m. The boys were standing in the door way of the barn watching the storm when the bolt struck. The barn was set on fire and totally consumed, together with four head of horses.
