

One Day Ahead

In honor of the Old Soldiers, our store will close at noon on Memorial Day, May 30th. In order to serve all the people who want good clothes we push Saturday one day ahead, and will keep our store open Tomorrow night until 10 o'clock for the accommodation of such as cannot make selections in the daytime.

Faultless styles in Suits of blue serge for the occasion and plenty of the catchy styles that the young fellows like—new patterns and weaves shown nowhere else in town—a showing twice as large as the next largest store makes—models to please the most fastidious as well as the man of conservative taste—values stronger than others show—at the price value of

CITY NEWS.

—Buy harness at Sherwood's.
—Kennedy & Pratt, barbers, will close Saturday, Memorial day, at 11 a. m.
—Choir concert at Westminster Presbyterian chapel this evening, 8 o'clock. Admissions 25 cents.
—Friday, June 5, the Burlington U. C. T. members are coming to Keokuk. They will have two special cars and the Burlington band.
—Special Friday, house dresses and kimono up to $1.25 for 95c; $1.50 to $2.00 for $1.35. Miss Ella Fanning.
—Mrs. Andrew Loquist who was operated on a week ago is reported as improving, which will be good news to her host of friends who are wishing for a speedy recovery.
—The Hessian fly is still making inroads on the wheat fields and it is getting too late to plant corn. Wheat looked fine this spring. Some fields do not look one-half as good now as they did a week ago.
—Order Puritas beer early. We'll be closed Saturday and Monday. Phone 129.
—The republican ward committeemen will get together and name the delegates who will be voted upon at the primary Monday for the republican county convention which will be held on June 27. These delegates will compose the convention which will choose the persons who will fill vacancies in the ticket.
—Two more days of the big country store, 607 Main.
—The steamer G. W. Hill of the Wisard Steamboat company left Quincy Wednesday morning for Keokuk, carrying a large crowd of St. Francis college students. It was the annual river outing of the student body of St. Francis Solanus college and as usual, the excursion was to Keokuk, a daylight trip, the boat being due back here by 7 o'clock in the evening.
—Wm. McGowan, 312 Leighton avenue, left yesterday for Montreal and will sail May 30, for Liverpool. After visiting relatives and friends in Manchester, Chester and other towns in England, Mr. McGowan will visit the headquarters of Sir Edward Carson and the marquis of Londonderry in Ulster, where he will probably be joined by other members of the family, now in this country.
—Choice fresh cat fish at Jos. Hauer's meat market, 709 Main.
—St. Madison Gem City: W. L. Bates, for the past twenty years a steamboat captain on the upper Mississippi and great lakes was in the city today in company with Sheriff H. D. McDougle of Sioux City. Mr. Bates' stay was short but he had many reminiscences of the old days on the river. He served as captain for many years on different boats. His last trip through this city was on the cabin cruiser "Florida" three years ago, which boat he took from Clinton, Ohio, on Lake Erie to Sioux City by way of Chicago and the Illinois canal and the Missouri river. His many years of river life make him an interesting character and his relation of river events dating back for such a period are very interesting.
—Order a case of Puritas beer today or tomorrow. We'll be closed for three days. Phone 129.
