She Caught Hubby.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] CHICAGO, June 3.—Popping suddenly out of a clothes hamper when hubby thought she was out of town, Mrs. Adeline Lysle saw—well she saw enough, she told the police, to cause her to pack her belongings today and go home to her folks in Portland, Ore. Mrs. Lysle got the clothes hamper idea from a play, but she improved upon it. She carried a bottle of ammonia and a cloth and with the ammonia-soaked cloth she swabbed the face of Miss Mabel Chalebois, the stunning blonde she said was in the room with hubby. Miss Chalebois was to be arraigned today, charged with stealing a ring Mrs. Lysle said she missed.

MEXICAN PEACE STILL FAR AWAY

receipt of a note from the mediators to Rafael Zubaran, Carranza's representative here. Zubaran refused to say early today whether he would make the note public until after he has communicated with Carranza and received instructions from the first chief. Members of the junta admitted, however, that the "recognition" of Carranza's claims by the mediators had put a more favorable aspect upon the situation.

Renewed pressure was brought to bear by administration officials today upon the constitutionalists to consent to an armistice, if only a brief one, until mediation could be tried out a few days longer. One plan strongly suggested to the constitutionalists today was the naming by the mediators of a provisional government composed entirely of "neutral" Mexicans who would be acceptable to Carranza.

Government officials—except officers of the army and navy—professed little worry over shipments of ammunition to the rebels on the Ward liner Antilla and two Morgan liners. The supplementary "unofficial" embargo, said to have been ordered by the department of commerce in conjunction with the war department, to prevent future shipments of munitions from the United States, was believed to solve this problem for the future.

Consul John R. Silliman of Saltillo was due to arrive today at Norfolk on the collier Jason and will probably reach here tomorrow for a conference with the president and Secretary Bryan. Special Agent Carothers was also due today at Juarez, enroute here.

Refusals to Comment.

DURANGO, Mexico, June 3.—General Venustiano Carranza today refused to comment upon the proposal of the Niagara Falls mediators to permit the mediation conference to discuss the internal affairs of Mexico. Carranza said he had not yet seen a full report on the proposition. Constitutionalists do not regard seriously the statement that Huerta will eliminate himself as soon as Mexico is pacified and the government of the country placed under control of a joint commission.

HOE WAS FOOL WITH THE WOMEN

His Attorney Admits It, but Says He Has Been Punished Enough.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] NEW YORK, June 3.—Admitted by his own counsel to have "acted like a fool with the women," Arthur I. Hoe, millionaire heir of Robt. Hoe, the famous printer, today heard Supreme Court Justice Gavegan charge a jury which has heard evidence in Miss Mae Sullivan's suit against him for $225,000 for breach of promise. A verdict is expected before night. "Hoe may have been full of deviltry," said Wm. H. Hamilton, Hoe's lawyer, "or he may have been full of philanthropy. Men do foolish things sometimes with women. I am not going to laud Hoe. But I leave it to you to say if he hasn't been punished enough."

Miss Sullivan, who claims Hoe met and betrayed her while she was a girl in short dresses, Hoe's wife, Hoe himself and a host of women witnesses on both sides were in court to hear Justice Gavegan's charge.

PRETTIEST GIRL IN NEW CHURCH

Little was more involved than Douglas.

Two society women—not in the navy set—were found to have been members of the alleged party, according to a high navy official today. He also declared emphatically that the Mayflower incident had nothing to do with Secretary Daniels' "dry navy" order. In order entirely to clear the navy officers' wives, the captain of the Mayflower shortly after the incident, gave a big dinner party aboard the yacht, and invited these women among a company of highest naval society people. In naval etiquette, this action absolutely cleared the names of the two women and silenced forever any navy gossip.

At the time that Little's resignation was announced, December 15, 1913, the navy refused any reasons. It was stated that he resigned to enter business in New York. Naval officials stated today that the records do not show that Little's resignation was compulsory nor that he resigned "for the good of the service."

RESULT OF THE STATE VOTE

Campaign Started.
HARRISBURGH, Pa., June 3.—Attacking Senator Penrose as a "laborer in the field of corrupt politics," Representative A. Mitchell Palmer, opened his campaign here today as the democratic candidate for Penrose's seat in the United States senate.

"A leading member of his own party has characterized Penrose as a moral issue," Palmer declared. "He is that and more. He is the political remnant of a regime that has gone, never to return. In the state government he has ordered his puppets in legislative halls and executive chambers to do the bidding of the only master he has acknowledged—the great interests of the state."

Palmer lauded President Wilson and praised congress for its tariff, banking, income tax and anti-trust legislation.

Osborn Hears Bee Buzzing.
NEW YORK, June 3.—Eager, if possible, to reunite the republican and progressive parties in the state of Michigan, Chase S. Osborn, its former governor, admitted when he arrived here from a round-the-world tour today on the Emperor that he might again make the race for his former office. Osborn said he knew nothing of a movement to nominate him again until the other day in Paris when he got wires from home. "I am a progressive-republican," said Osborn, "or, perhaps, I may be a republican-progressive."

"I don't want to run for governor again," he continued. "I have other more important things to me—to do. But if a considerable number of unselfish people in Michigan ask me, I will run."

Osborn thinks he has found things in Madagascar which no white man ever found before. He is writing a book.

PYTHIAN SISTERS TEMPLE LAUNCHED

Evening Star Lodge No. 256 With the Largest Membership of Any in State Came into Existence Last Evening.

OFFICERS INSTALLED

Degree Team From West Burlington Put on Work—Banquet Served at the Close of the Ceremonies.

Yesterday there was organized here the largest temple of Pythian Sisters that has ever been organized in Iowa, if not the largest in the history of the entire order. The temple, which will be known as Keokuk Evening Star temple No. 256, was instituted with one hundred charter members. A class of forty-five men, members of the local K. P. lodge took the obligations of the order last night. The afternoon session opened in Castle hall at half past two in the afternoon, Mrs. Louise Pooler of Burlington, district deputy grand chief, presiding. The dispensation and declaration were read by Mrs. Minnie Raymer of Cedar Rapids, grand chief of Iowa. She also administered the obligation to all who were present.

Newly Installed Officers.

The election of officers resulted as follows:
Mrs. C. A. Wickham, past chief.
Mrs. N. J. Montague, M. E. C.
Mrs. M. A. Runner, E. S.
Mrs. Harry Pagett, E. J.
Mrs. A. Nass, manager.
Mrs. O. W. Rowe, M. of R. & C.
Mrs. Will Virgin, M. of F.
Mrs. E. G. Roche, protector.
Mrs. Flora Whitehead, guard.
Trustees: Mrs. S. Frew, Mrs. Anna Roche and Mrs. W. C. Burgess.
Mrs. C. N. Swanson, musician; John Johnson, captain of the degree staff.
Following the election, the officers were installed and the afternoon session closed.

Evening Session.

A six o'clock dinner was served in the private dining room of the Y. W. C. A., at which all the out of town guests were present, together with Mrs. C. A. Wickham and Mrs. M. A. Runner. Covers were laid for twenty-four.

The evening session convened at half past seven. The secret work was exemplified by the degree staff of twenty women from West Burlington. The work was most skillfully and impressively done under Mrs. Pooler's supervision. Those who joined the new order were highly pleased with its ceremonies and objects and an enthusiastic temple is assured.

At the close of the evening a banquet was served, the guests being seated at three long tables, decorated in flowers and trailing smilax. The committee to whom credit is due for having created the interest in the new lodge and for having secured so large a charter membership is Mrs. M. A. Runner, Mrs. A. Nass, Mrs. Chas. Wickham, Mrs. N. J. Montague and Mrs. O. W. Rowe.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] MUSCATINE, Iowa, June 3.—By a majority of 390 votes, the people of Muscatine yesterday at a special election ordered the erection of a new city hall to cost $90,000. Through preferential site ballots the building was ordered located on the market square, a portion of which will now be utilized as a down-town park. June 8th, the contract will be let for the new $250,000 hotel while work on the new $50,000 armory will start this month.

COURT RULING AGAINST FEDS

Judge Foell Makes Permanent Injunction Restraining Johnson From Playing With Federals.

DECISION IS IMPORTANT

Wholesale Raids by Feds Were Planned Had the Decision Gone in Their Favor.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] CHICAGO, Ill., June 3.—Judge Foell in the superior court today made permanent an injunction preventing Pitcher George (Chick) Johnson from playing with the Kansas City team of the Federal league. The injunction was granted on the petition of the Cincinnati league team, after Johnson had jumped his contract with the Reds and signed with the Kansas City Federals. The injunction only prevents Johnson from playing with the Federals within the state of Illinois, where the superior court has jurisdiction.

Justice Foell's decision was on the motion of the Federal league to dissolve the temporary injunction under which Johnson was restrained from playing with Kansas City and the rejection of the motion, made the injunction permanent.

Looks Mutually But Valid.

Judge Foell held that the contract between Johnson and the Reds was one-sided and lacked mutuality but decided that under the laws of Illinois this fact did not void the contract. Under this point he cited many decisions saying actors, singers and others were held under contracts that were similarly one-sided, but sustained by law. The Feds had attacked Johnson's contract with the Cincinnati club because it contained the ten day clause, and it was their contention that this clause invalidated the contract because the club derived all the benefits from its enforcement and the player none.

Regarding this contention Judge Foell said: "It seems incredible that the players should submit for so many years to so unreasonable a hardship as these contracts impose, but the fact that this hardship exists does not invalidate the contract. Johnson played under this contract one year and procured a salary advance."

Player of "Special Skill."

Judge Foell held that the Cincinnati club had proved its contention that Johnson was a player of "special skill" and that it had been unable to fill his place. Rights accruing under such contracts were clearly property rights, the court said and the law provides that property shall be protected.

OBJECTIONS MADE TO PROPOSED PAVING

Richard Evans Files Objection With Council to Proposed Improvement of Second Street.

The city council today received from Richard Evans a protest to the contemplated paving on Second street, which follows:

Gentlemen: As a city employe I have a feeling of hesitancy in making a protest to the contemplated paving on Second street. But as a citizen and tax payer, I earnestly ask that said improvement be not made.

First: Because the one-half of the street adjoining Buck-Reiner Co. is now without a chack hole or depression of any kind. It is as perfect on that side as any macadam street in the city.

Second: Because there is no water course across Second and Johnson to carry surface water off. Thereby the water courses diagonal towards the alley to the east side of the alley at Buck Reiners, which has caused a rut to be cut in the street.

Third: Because said street can be for a very little outlay, put in first class condition that will last for years.

Fourth: Because I am obliged to face conditions that for a few years to come will greatly place me in strenuous straight, I beg that you will reconsider doing the work.

Respectfully yours,
RICHARD EVANS,

United Press Association Telegraph Market Report Over Gate City Leased Wire.

Grain Review.
[United Press Leased Wire Service.] CHICAGO, June 3.—Wheat had good support from Liverpool today and was ¼ higher for each month at the start. On the advance, there was liberal selling and in the forenoon trading, July lost a fraction of the advance and September declined ¼. Corn benefited by higher cable prices and was ¼ to ½ higher on the start. Offerings continued light throughout the morning and July gained an additional ¼.

Oats started a shade higher on account of strength in other grains but September showed signs of weakness at noon.

Provisions were firm and a shade higher, supported by higher hog prices at the stock yards.

The Weight of a Soul.
MILWAUKEE, Wis., June 3.—Dr. Wilhelm Becker of this city, does not agree with Dr. Duncan McDougall of Haverhill, Mass., that the soul of a man weighs three-fourths of an ounce. "Soul is simply energy," said Dr. Becker. "It can't be weighed."
