

Eleanor Blue Millinery

"Eleanor Blue" is the new shade popularized by a costume designed by Kurzman for the wedding finery of President Wilson's daughter. The two hats worn by the bride's sisters, Margaret and Mrs. Francis B. Sayre were also made of this shade of blue. The new white hems and panama hats which we have trimmed in "Eleanor Blue" range in price from $5.00 to $9.50

New hats have been added to our bargain table of white hats. All this week for only $1.69

Every trimmed colored hat in our stock in tan, browns, blues, green, purple and greys, some in genuine hems and milans all this week for only 98c

—Ask for Puritas beer.
—Central's toweling sale Friday.
—Sherwood sells harness and bugles. 703 Main.

—The Willing Workers of the Second Presbyterian church ice cream social West Keokuk park Thursday evening.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Goodwin and daughter Inez who are at Lake Okoboji for a vacation, report having a fine time.

—Drink Puritas beer in your homes. None better and it's good and fresh. Phone 139.

—Owing to the U. C. T. convention being held in Keokuk this week there will be no noon day luncheon of the business men tomorrow at the Hotel Iowa.

—Silk hostery, 25c, 50c and $1.00 per pair, white and black. The Central.

—The Sunday schools are beginning to plan for the annual picnic. These are events always looked forward to with considerable interest by the scholars.

—Regular meeting of Keokuk aerie, No. 683, F. O. E., tonight at Eagles hall, 523 Main at 8 o'clock. Visiting brothers always welcome. Chas. A. Noekes, secretary.—Adv.

—Puritas beer is the beer for the home drink. It comes to you direct from the dark cellar to your home. Puritas is not shipped from place to place. Patronize home industry. Phone 139.

—Local members of the Eagles have received word that Creston will send a large delegation to the Keokuk convention and that an effort will be made to capture the 1915 convention for that city.

—The practice of leaving automobiles stand in front of the Grand opera house will probably be stopped by the commissioner of public safety. Sixth street is not so very roomy at best and when the Warsaw car is standing there, very little room remains.

—James C. Davis returned to Des Moines last evening after a days visit with relatives and friends. Mr. Davis says the voting in the primary election at Des Moines was slow on account of the use of voting machines, the voters not being very fast in their operation. Mr. Davis is like many other voters—not enthusiastic over the primary law.

—A special train, having aboard Vice President H. E. Byram, General Manager E. P. Bracken, General Superintendent Robert Rice and other C. B. & Q. officials, arrived here Tuesday forenoon on an inspection trip. The special left Keokuk at 7 o'clock this morning, via Donnellson and Mt. Pleasant, and left over the Carthage branch for Quincy. From there the officials will stop at Galesburg, terminating the tour at Chicago.

—Phone 84 for a case of Lelsy beer when you're out.

—When the state convention of the United Commercial Travelers convenes in Keokuk tomorrow a committee of Muscatine "knights of the grip" will be ready to extend an invitation to the "drummers" to come there in 1915. Muscatine branch of the U. C. T. will be well represented and the Muscatine Commercial club will also send a committee to bid for the honor of entertaining the convention in 1915. With the completion of the new $250,000 hotel in Muscatine it is felt that the accommodations will warrant the invitation.

—Let Sherwood do your harness repairing. 703 Main.

—On Thursday evening the First Christian Sunday school will present to the public an instructive motion picture entertainment consisting of "Rip Van Winkle," "The Merchant of Venice" and "Scenes in and Around Los Angeles." These entertainments are calculated to present a wholesome entertainment to those interested in the welfare of the Sunday school and church, and no admission is charged. The public in general is cordially invited to attend. The entertainment Thursday evening will begin at eight o'clock and promises to be very interesting.

—The Wabash had quite an expensive wreck about 7 o'clock Monday evening. The accident happened on the Keokuk-Clayton branch between Clayton and Black's Station. A freight had stopped on a grade to kill a calf that had received a broken leg by being hit by the train. The engine was unable to pull the train to the top of the hill and left part on the grade. A second train came along and crashed into the rear of the stalled train with the result that a locomotive was smashed, six cars wrecked, two of which were burned. The enginemen escaped by jumping.

—Mrs. Van Sittert and mother Mrs. Katherine Laubersheimer, and Mrs. Carrie Hodge and daughter Margaret who have been making their home in Los Angeles for some time, are expected to return to Keokuk the latter part of this week.
