

Our Line of Sundries is Complete

WE carry a stock of sundries that is complete. Our aim is to supply you with anything you need, at any time. If it's an automobile accessory we have it, if we haven't got it, we'll get it.

Motorcyclists---Take Notice

WE have placed in stock the Butt End Inner Tubes. These are the greatest time savers for the motorcyclist as the wheel does not have to be taken off of the machine to insert the inner tube. If you own a motorcycle it will pay you to investigate this new inner tube. It's our pleasure to show goods. We've many other good things in stock.

The Nauvoo Gate City

Nauvoo, Ill., June 14, 1914

The Nauvoo and LaHarpe ball teams played a game of ball on our home grounds last Sunday afternoon. Nauvoo winning easily by a score of 13 to 3.

The dance advertised to take place in the Nauvoo opera house last Tuesday evening by our base ball boys was postponed to a future date, the stormy weather being the cause.

This is the season of the year when we should find a way to learn the names of the fellows who are going to rock the boat and stop them before the Fourth of July gets here and the papers get hold of it.

Miss Nora Hudson is visiting in Chicago and other points in Illinois. She will be gone for several weeks. Ernest Burster of Ft. Madison was a Nauvoo business visitor Wednesday.

Wonderland, the floating theatre gave a fine show on the banks of beautiful Lake Cooper last Sunday evening. Quite a crowd of people attended, the majority of which were pleased with this amusement palace.

News is a little scarce in Nauvoo at present. We are all too busy to let anything happen.

It is claimed that a Sonora township man recently succeeded in landing a catfish weighing considerable over fifty pounds, the biggest, the gamiest, the hardest to land fish that has been caught around here for some time. The fish was caught on a trot line.

Mrs. Wm. Hertel and little daughter have returned from their visit in Iowa, and the reverend is enjoying his meals once more.

Four automobile loads of Kahoka, Mo., people were Nauvoo sight seers last Tuesday.

Some of Nauvoo's people have begun their summer vacation early.

One of Nauvoo's young ladies who is going to get married, says she will blush when she tells the minister her age is 25. Why should she blush for admitting as much as that?

Miss Emma Gaule, a sister of the two pleasant young ladies who conduct a fine millinery emporium in Nauvoo, has accepted a position as telephone operator in the Nauvoo office. She is pleasing and accommodating and the telephone patrons will like her.

Mr. Emerson's floating theatre, Golden Rod, will come to Nauvoo and exhibit at our landing next Sunday evening, June 14. The fine company of artists which he carries will present a big scenic production of the well known book and song play, "Along the Trail of the Lonesome Pine." Mr. R. Emerson has visited Nauvoo heretofore with his floating theatre and gave excellent satisfaction for it was superior in every way to any show boat that has ever shown here. In addition to the dramatic production, the company will present high-class advanced vaudeville, demonstrating all the latest steps in modern dancing, the tango, hesitation, maxixe, one-step, Boston and others.

A fine orchestra accompanies the show. Nearly all of Nauvoo and vicinity people will attend.

Wm. Singleton of Quincy was in Nauvoo last Tuesday and Wednesday. A Nauvoo democrat says President Wilson is going to continue to be unlike any president Washington has seen in the last sixteen years.

Quite a number of Nauvoo property owners are having their residences repainted so as to beautify their premises.

The Hancock county board of supervisors were in session in Carthage during the week. Nauvoo's representative, Mr. Geo. Hart was present.

Fred Tanner recently shipped about 1,500 gallons of wine to St. Paul, Minn., and the Baxter Bros. also shipped a large consignment to St. Louis. Both shipments were sent by steamer.

Henry Harsch has razed the frame part of his residence on east Mulholland street and will erect a modern brick structure.

We are never so pleased with ourselves that we do not occasionally pause to give concern to what the other fellow thinks of us.

In Nauvoo on August 14 to 22, the eastern Iowa, Kewanee and Nauvoo reunion of Latter Day Saints church will be held in this city. Nauvoo ought to bid them royal welcome for it is about the only attraction so far announced for our city this summer.

If you want to hear the agricultural schools get good cussed out, come around among the farmers who have got pasture fence gates fanning the breeze on one hinge, and keep your ears open.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Allie Faulkner was baptised in the Nauvoo Catholic church last Sunday.

Miss Grace Pitt and Mr. Earl Laubersheimer will be married in the Nauvoo Catholic church on Thursday morning of next week at 9 o'clock. They are two of our most popular young people and their many friends are congratulating them in advance.

Geo. Lininger, a Nauvoo young man went to Gottenberg, Nebr., and was married last Wednesday morning to Miss Tessie Krone of that city. They will make their home in Nauvoo.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Falk of St. Louis have arrived in Nauvoo for a number of weeks stay in the most beautiful little town in the United States. This popular couple are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Berger, Jr., and the lady's mother, Charles expects to catch all the fish in Lake Cooper and send his St. Louis friends specimens of his catch and they down there will have a feast.

About the hardest thing in being a big fool is trying to keep others from finding it out and that's what those fellows who are kicking and knocking the Petch and Payne Interurban proposition are trying to do.

The young ladies of St. Mary's academy enjoyed a picnic in the Geo. Marzoff beautiful grove below town last Tuesday afternoon. While returning they were caught in a rain storm and were soaking wet but the elements didn't dampen their ardor for they were singing. There is no place like home on the return trip.

Nauvoo is becoming the center of trashy signs in the business section. Most of the phone poles are plastered up with posters and no matter which way you look something ugly and unsightly is to be seen. Something should be done and at once, to put a stop to this making Nauvoo look like the inside pages of a last year's almanac.

Some Keokuk business men have been visiting in Nauvoo, presumably looking after trade connections with the idea of establishing more. There was a possibility of the party visiting Nauvoo. We may have to send a committee down to Keokuk to kidnap these business men to make them fulfill their promises and not pass up Nauvoo.

A certain Nauvoo nice young girl would have nothing to with the wickedy new dances and was made so uncomfortable and unhappy by them that she wouldn't attend a dance for fear of seeing others of her friends dance them. But one day another nice girl friend in the privacy of her own house taught the first girl how to do the tango. Of course she had no idea of ever doing the dance herself. She thought, perhaps, that it might increase her abhorrence of the thing to know just how it was done. But having learned it, she now wants to go tangoing gayly with the rest.

Chas. Wilkins and Albert Schmitz of Sonora township purchased about fifty head of cattle and calves in and about Donnellson, Iowa, and brought them over Lake Cooper on our ferry boat last Wednesday and took them to their farms in Sonora township, southeast of Nauvoo. Larry Kelley, one of our largest stock buyers, also purchased over a half hundred head of cattle over in Iowa near the same vicinity this forepart of the week.

Are you still swatting the fly? The worst part of fly season is now approaching. No reports of the Civic league on the fly swatting contest has been received up to this time. One of Nauvoo's four millinery stores has discontinued operations, but that does not make the head of the house's pocket book feel any lighter.

One by one our business houses and residences are connecting with Nauvoo's municipal water works mains.

The Nauvoo canning factory has been running considerable overtime preparing the pea crop for market. It is said that the factory will close down today for the drouth and the late rain injured the peas so that those remaining are not fit to can. There are quite a lot still in the fields at this time. It is reported that our growers will receive about $30 per acre for the peas delivered.

June could make a hit by putting on a real old fashioned January thaw. The cherry crop in Nauvoo is quite a large one and many crates are being shipped to the different markets. Buyers are paying $1.00 per crate of sixteen quarts for them. The crop will be exhausted by the first of next week.

Evidences of summer on every hand are with us. In every town around here you hear of local moonlight so-cials, hay rides, excursions, etc. As long as the heart stays young, so will the world stay young, so goes an old saying, and nothing exemplifies summer, nor amplifies it, too, more than these summer frivolities out in the rural communities or river towns, where somehow there appears to be more freedom, less care and less to worry about than in the cities.

An excursion on the steamer Sydney with a crowd from Hamilton, stopped at the Nauvoo landing Thursday, bound for Burlington. Quite a number from here joined the throng. The old settlers committee will meet in Carthage next Thursday to appoint a time and place to hold the next annual reunion. Nauvoo could attract a larger crowd than any other town in the country and could easily secure the attraction by merely asking for it. But will she?

And now the Marsh Interurban railroad may be transferred to the Powellton route to run parallel with the Petch and Payne line. When Nauvoo's suburb gets all these railroads it will keep the inhabitants out there busy dodging the cars and make it dangerous hauling grain by crossing so many tracks. The Marsh people give for their reason in running a half dozen miles east of Nauvoo, the inability to secure the right of way through the Kimball fields above town. It seems that everything that wants to run through Nauvoo and is compelled to pass through these fields meets with a blockade there. Is it a sort of Huerita proposition? Several of Nauvoo's citizens, some members of the defunct commercial club, went down to Warsaw last Wednesday to consult with Mr. R. O. Marsh about the matter of the right of way and may succeed in raising the blockade, and if not should gather a force and mediate or condemn by gathering a large enough force to bear fruit by securing all the aid that the Marsh Interurban people desire to run their line through the most beautiful and grand old town in this section and one of the best feeders for an Interurban railway line in the United States.

Several of Nauvoo's citizens, some members of the defunct commercial club, in honor of Frank Rheimberger of New York City last Saturday evening. James wineg and dined the boys in a hospitable manner.

A western pony belonging to Mrs. C. W. Reimbold occasioned considerable excitement last Monday evening by running away. It was hitched in an alley way, got frightened and in making a turn to the street in the business section, upset the buggy and was stopped after sprinting about a block. Strange to say, no damage resulted.

Steamboats are not yet landing at the foot of Fifth street, the new wharfage. A government snag boat is expected daily to pull a number of tree stumps that are located there.

Next Monday is flag day, but in Nauvoo it is not generally observed. It seems to be too much trouble to hang out the stars and stripes.

Many tourists are now arriving at Bluff Park over at Montrose, a beautiful health resort and by the latter part of June that place will be pretty well filled. It is a pleasant place to any one wishing to spend their vacation and who are in search of recreation and rest.

River boat shows are becoming quite numerous on the upper stream this season. Three of them will visit Nauvoo this month.

It is too bad that Nauvoo's picture show is not better patronized. The attendance so far has been small. The genial manager Mr. D. Lyons does not claim to put up the best picture show on earth, but he puts up as good a performance of its kind to be found anywhere. It is hoped from this time on the attendance will grow larger as the manager and show deserves.

More strangers visit Nauvoo at this season than can be seen in any other town in Hancock county.

The Nauvoo base ball team will go to Kahoka, Mo., Sunday to meet the club of that city. Our boys will meet the fastest bunch they ever ran against if reports are true and it is hoped the drubbing promised them will not be too severe.

A Nauvoo critic says we have some "snipers" and when he ran down report we found out that he was the snipe that did the sniping. He is now busy sniping at the Petch and Payne Interurban railway line.

The peach crop in Nauvoo will fall way short of last year.

The strawberry crop harvest in this city is now over, but there are a few left yet for the social and a short cake or two. Cherries pies are now ripe here.

Mrs. Ed. Walther, Mrs. L. Davis, Mrs. C. Stelzner, Mrs. Wm. Bickler and Miss Zeldia Walther of Nauvoo attended the twelfth district convention of Rebekahs held in Dallas City Thursday.

It isn't yet too early for you and the kids to begin making your resolutions to celebrate the coming Fourth in a safe and sane manner.

The Nauvoo lodge of Loyal Order of Moose will be organized next week. About 150 have applied for admission and if even half pass examination for entrance it will make a good sized secret society. Nauvoo is trying to keep up with her neighbors in having as many lodges as her sister cities. There are now a number of men who are kept lodge poor because they want to belong to every new order that springs up in our city.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Gardner of Keokuk were city visitors in Nauvoo last Tuesday. Mrs. Gardner was Miss Fredonia Ritter, born and raised in Nauvoo.

Mrs. Jesse Long and child of Quincy are visiting her relatives Mr. and Mrs. Lorenz Russel.

The Misses Emma and Nettie Benson of Burlington, who formerly conducted a fine ice cream parlor in Nauvoo, were guests of Mrs. M. Baumert, Jr., last Sunday.

The Spalding institute's commencement exercises will occur next Wednesday and St. Mary's academy next Thursday morning in the auditorium of the academy building.

After next Thursday's Nauvoo wedding there will several more occur before the summer ends.

The Nauvoo Priscilla club did not meet this week as was its custom on account of the hot weather.

The St. Rose society of the Catholic church held an apron social in the K. C. hall last Wednesday evening which was but fairly well attended.

A Nauvoo mother who has several marriageable daughters says just about one girl in ten gets the right fellow, and even then it is more luck than anything else.

The steamer Majestic passed Nauvoo last Wednesday with a large excursion on board. The boat seems to run like a reindeer.

It looks like there will be nothing done in purchasing the Nauvoo quarry sites in the lower end of this city. The option held by outside parties expired on Friday of last week, but was extended to July 6. Even if the city quarry is purchased it is doubtful if those owned by private parties can be obtained unless the price asked for is paid, which is twice as much as offered.

A traveling man visiting Nauvoo and who has been on the road for years, said that at the rate the Interurbans that are talked about so much being built above and below Nauvoo are going, it will take twenty years to finish. He says the cutting of ties and the slow progress in grading will not build a road rapidly. But he said this is good weather to build and work may be pushed soon.

Mayor Moorhead yesterday received the following response from the mayor of Canton to an inquiry regarding the oiling of streets:

Canton, Mo., June 12, 1914.

S. W. Moorhead, mayor of Keokuk, Iowa.—I am in receipt of your favor of the 11th inst., making inquiry as to our method of oiling our streets.

I note that you state that you were informed that our oiling cost about $6 per block, and replying to that portion of your letter beg to say that the information is incorrect.

We first used an 8,000 gallon car of oil on our business streets, which are 66 feet wide, and with this car we oil twelve blocks, including the street intersections, all at a total cost of about $315, which, you will note, makes the cost a little less than $27 per block.

We are just finishing applying a 10,000 gallon car in the residence section, and while I have not the exact figures, I am certain that in some blocks, where grass grows in the gutters, the cost per block will not exceed $15 to $18; but, of course, on the blocks that oil from gutter to gutter, it will cost about $27 per block.

The work is being done by the city, under the supervision of our marshal. The city owns the sprinkling wagon, for which we paid $40.

The oil costs us about 3 1/2 cents per gallon, delivered to Canton.

If I can be of further service to you, command me.

Yours truly,
FRANK C. MILLSPAUGH,
Mayor.
