Mr. Gardner was in the 60th and 61st congresses with Mr. Kennedy and stopped at the same hotel. He is being talked of for governor of Michigan. Mr. Gardner will be in Burlington next Tuesday evening and will stay as long as he can.

—Garden hose and lawn sprinklers. King Plumbing Co.

—"Safety first." This is the modern cry many legislative bodies are taking up and writing into law. "Safety first" is the rule of the wise shopper who takes nothing for granted. First of all she reads the advertisements in the Gate City, weighing the claims side by side and then deciding for herself which fits her needs. She knows she is going to the store of a reliable merchant before she starts out. And satisfaction usually attends her shopping.

—Keokuk lodge No. 13, I. O. O. F., meets every Monday night, at 7:30 o'clock. Visiting brothers invited to attend.

—The following item in this week's issue of the Waterways Journal will be of interest to readers of The Gate City: The steamer Morning Star is now running her regular weekly excursions between Davenport and St. Paul. She left Davenport on her first trip last Saturday and will continue in the trade during the season, leaving Davenport at 2:30 o'clock each Saturday. While at St. Paul the passengers of the boat each trip will be given an excursion to Stillwater, Minn. P. S. Ratterman is purser on the Morning Star; D. T. Wright, clerk, and Fred Bynum, steward, the first trip of the Morning Star this season was well patronized.

—See our line of garden hose and lawn sprinklers before it is too late. King Plumbing Co.

—The Quincy Journal of Friday evening contained the following about the Keokuk party which is making "a trip to foreign parts": Major Montgomery Meigs, government engineer at Keokuk, Major Hoffman of Rock Island, and a party of other river dignitaries, passed Quincy yesterday afternoon in one of the big cabin launches of the Mississippi River Power company. The party is now beginning a long tour which will extend down the Mississippi to the mouth of the Illinois, up the Illinois to the Hennepin canal, across the Hennepin canal to the Mississippi again and back up to Rock Island.

CITY NEWS.

—Sherwood sells harness.

—If your spouting leaks, call Glaser, the tinner. Phone 345.

—Schouten sells Brassill's ice cream cones, 15c a dozen. Fresh every day.

—The Waterways Journal, published at St. Louis, says that passenger business on all of the upper river boats, it is said, is far above the normal, and it is believed this will be the best season ever known. There has been good water all season, and it is not expected that low water will interfere with navigation.

—Glaser for tin work. Phone 345.

—A. J. Welk, of Chicago, representing the American Express Co., was in the city Saturday. He was looking after business affairs for his company in this city. July 1st Mr. Phinney of the Wells-Fargo, will represent the American in this city, in connection with his other duties.

—For better tin work, see Glaser.

—Warsaw has a new ferry which has been named after the town, and will begin business between Alexandria and the Illinois shore probably tomorrow. The master of the craft will be Captain Redeforth. The boat is larger than the old ferry, is a much better boat, and will fill a long felt want.

—Miss Eleanor E. Hughes, 205 Morgan street, will accept pupils for a summer course on the piano, beginning June 15. Miss Hughes spent the past winter in study at the Peabody Conservatory of Music, Baltimore, and is prepared to give her pupils instruction along the lines employed by that well known school.

—Policeman William A. Shepherd, who has been enjoying a vacation, will resume his work tonight, and he appears to anticipate the resumption of his duties with no regrets, as leaving away the vacation hours to him appears to be considered harder work than to be actively engaged at his regular vocation.

—For parties and picnics get Brassill's ice cream cones at Schouten's bakery. 15c per dozen.

—The following is from the Quincy Journal of June 12th: Mrs. James Moore, 117 North Tenth street, and Mrs. August Schrock, 209 South Tenth street, left this morning for Keokuk, Iowa, where they will attend the graduation exercises.
