

EAGLES' SOUVENIR PROGRAM IS READY

Is a Fine Piece of Work and Contains Pictures and Matter of Much Interest to All.

READY FOR NEXT WEEK

Thanks Expressed by Publicity Committee to All Who Aided in the Enterprise.

The souvenir program for the ninth annual convention of the Iowa state aerie, F. O. E., which will be held here next week has been issued, and is a neat appearing souvenir and one full of interest to the visitor and local people as well.

There is a greeting to the Fraternal Order of Eagles from Keokuk which welcomes that order to the environs of the city. "The friendly spirit of the south prevails in Iowa's most southern city, and visitors never forget the welcome accorded them," the greetings say.

The past cover design of the book was drawn by Charles E. Honoe of this city. There is a small sketch of the dam and power plant, and above all hangs a huge eagle with wings outstretched.

Ed. Lottan, Albert Kiefer and W. W. Warwick, publicity committee, have attached a card thanking the patrons of the souvenir book for their hearty support and co-operation.

Support Has Been Hearty. "It was with some hesitancy that Keokuk aerie No. 683, F. O. E., considered the proposition offered it to bring the convention of the Iowa state aerie of Eagles for 1914 to this city," the committee says.

On the front inside cover page is a history of the Keokuk Industrial association. This gives a sketch of the work which must be accomplished and the work which has been done in securing factories.

Officers' Pictures. The first two inside pages are devoted to the pictures of the officers of the following state officers are to be found: George M. Carlin, state president; Frank C. Norton, state secretary; Joe Michelm, chairman judiciary committee; Adolph Angst, treasurer; C. A. Stephens, past state president; Phil Glaser, state inside guard; Ed. Aspinwall, state chaplain; L. L. Evans, past vice president and trustee; H. S. Fairall, state conductor; John J. Blodt, state trustee; Sam Swift, past state president; Paul Van Dyck, past state president; C. E. Ross, state vice president.

Next come the pictures of Keokuk aerie No. 683. Ralph C. Foulds is worthy president and the other officers are: Albert Kiefer, worthy vice president; Charles A. Nonkes, worthy secretary; William H. Ball, chaplain; John F. Kuhlman, conductor; Charles Haurbert, inside guard; H. C. Crawford, outside guard; C. A. Dimond, M. D., aerie physician; Henry Pechstein, W. F. Temme, trustees. There are pictures of four past worthy presidents, Frank Moeller, George J. D. Salzer, James M. Pickle and Phil Glaser. Peter Maas, who died June 2, was custodian.

Aerie physician; Henry Pechstein, W. F. Temme, trustees. There are pictures of four past worthy presidents, Frank Moeller, George J. D. Salzer, James M. Pickle and Phil Glaser. Peter Maas, who died June 2, was custodian.

Auxiliary Officers. The convention program is to be found in following pages, also a history of the order, and of the Ladies Auxiliary. The auxiliary officers follow:

Mrs. Nellie Glaser, P. W. P., Mrs. Anna Johnson, president; Mrs. Anna Hicks, vice president; Mrs. Arnold, conductor; Mrs. Emma Spaulding, chaplain; Mrs. Mary E. McKenzie, secretary; Mrs. Jennie Reed, treasurer; Mrs. Al. Dray, outside guard; Mrs. Maggie Greaves, inside guard. Pictures of the three cups to be awarded as parade prizes follow, and the remaining pages are filled with advertising matter.

BOTTOM IS ABOUT TO DROP OUT

The reserve with which the Mexicans here have suddenly surrounded themselves indicates their belief in the failure of mediation. The delegates no longer mingle with the crowds in the hotel lobbies. They stick close to their rooms. The positive stand by the American representatives that a constitutionalist must be named to head, the Mexican government is met by the equally firm declaration by the mercurialists that the federal government in Mexico cannot acquiesce.

The mediation meetings may end today—unless there is a backing down by one or the other side.

MISS LAURIE KAISER MAKES GOOD SCORES

Recent Visitor to City Has Done Real Golfing on Chicago Links.

Miss Laurie Kaiser of St. Louis who was a recent visitor here at the home of Mrs. D. A. Collier, and who left here for Chicago Sunday night, has been making some remarkable golf scores on the links in Chicago. On the Homewood golf course she tied for first place and had low gross score. The woman with whom she tied had a handicap. On the Midlothian golf course, Miss Kaiser tied for second place and won third. At the South Shore club she qualified in the championship flight, with the first eight out of seventy-three women and won her first match. Just before her visit to Keokuk she won a medal in a Knoxville, Tennessee tournament.

DR. EHINGER IS HERE ON VISIT

Will be in Charge of Summer Physical Work at Long Island.

Dr. C. E. Ehinger of West Chester, Penna., is in the city for a week's visit with his sister Mrs. H. O. Whitney. Dr. Ehinger has been physical director of the Penna. state normal school for twenty-three years. He is an expert ornithologist, having taken up the work originally for recreation, but it is coming to be professional with him. From here he will go to Cold Spring Harbor, Long Island, to teach in the summer school, in connection with the government biological laboratory there. Dr. Ehinger has many friends here who will regret that his visit is to be so short. Mrs. Whitney is also entertaining a cousin Miss Augusta Roeder of St. Louis who will make an extended visit.

Death Before Shame. MOBILE, Ala., June 12.—With her father and sweetheart in prison, Miss Etta May Wilson today committed suicide by drinking carbolic acid. In her pocket was found a note from a prominent man here offering to provide for her.

Commerce Men at Grenoble. GRENOBLE, France, June 19.—After a three day stay at Lyons where they visited the exposition, the city and neighborhood, the American delegates to the recent international congress of chambers of commerce held in Paris, arrived here this afternoon. They came via Valence where they stopped for a few hours. They enjoyed a trip on the river Rhone there, having lunched aboard the steamer.

Cures Guaranteed Without An Operation

The methods of treatment that are used by me are result-producers. I have proven right here in Keokuk that I can and do cure.

I GIVE FREE EXAMINATION AND CONSULTATION.

I do this to show you how searching and thorough I learn the true cause of your sickness. After my examination you can understand why I cure. Because I know your condition.

NERVE WEAKNESS or NERVOUS BREAKDOWN can be cured if treated in a natural way. My treatment helps nature and you are strong in a short time.

STOMACH, BOWEL and BLOOD troubles "go away like magic" with my special treatment. This treatment has given quicker help and cured more cases than any other I know of.

If you have KIDNEY or BLADDER trouble, no matter how severe, remember my treatments get many well after all other methods have failed. You don't have to be operated on, either.

I never operate with the surgeon's knife, and I can cure PILES, RUPTURE, VARICOCELE and SKIN CANCER; also FEMALE WEAKNESS and similar troubles without pain or loss of time from your regular work.

Come and let me tell you about your condition and how you can get well. It will not cost you a penny to learn what you want to know.

SPECIAL LOW FEES if you begin treatment during June. If you want to be well and strong again, come, let me cure you now.

Hours 10 to 12—2 to 4, except Sunday, and 7 to 8 Saturday evening.

Y.W.C.A. NOTES

Auto Party, Maybe.

The girls of the Young Women's Christian Association have probably had a more uncertain experience in their auto party than in any other enterprise upon which they have turned their attention. On account of clouds and rain it was postponed from time to time, looking for more favorable weather. The last announcement was for last night, with the further announcement that the party would be continued tonight, that all might enjoy the pleasure who had intimated a desire to do so. The weather was good last night and a number took advantage of the privilege, but early in the afternoon today, there were again threats in the skies, but nothing daunted, there was no announced postponement of this evening's anticipated enjoyment of a continuation of last night's pleasures, so it is not safe to say that there will be no auto party tonight under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A. It may happen and it may not. Anyhow, if it does happen, The Gate City will tell you all about it Sunday morning; if it should be omitted, it will be told that it didn't happen. It is hoped that it will really happen and afford bushels of enjoyment.

MAYOR IN REPLY TO CITY'S CRITICS

Fort Madison Executive Makes Warm Retort to One Editor Over Prison Labor Ordinance.

Some of the papers in the state commented editorially upon the law passed by the Fort Madison city council restraining prisoners from working outside of the city. To these papers in general and to the editor of the Register and Leader at Des Moines in particular, Mayor Brown writes as follows:

Dear Sir:

I noticed in your issue of the 15th an editorial condemning the action of our city council in an attempt to restrain prisoners of Iowa penitentiary from doing outside work in the city of Fort Madison.

Your article is misleading, as one would infer from the reading thereof that the citizens of Fort Madison were trying to restrain these convicts from working on the country roads, or in fact from being employed in any way in competition with free labor. This is not the case, and there is nothing in our ordinance from which you could have drawn any such conclusion. No one but a few wild labor union agitators ever advocated keeping prisoners in idleness. On the contrary all sane people believe that they should be employed at healthful and profitable labor.

DEPRIVES NEEDY PERSONS.

Hardly anyone objects to their employment outside at such work as road building, etc., but to draw criminals from the entire state and send them loose on a little city like Fort Madison, to take up every odd job that has formerly been done by our poor class, negroes, widows, cripples, etc., and depriving them of this much needed employment is an outrage on this little community. It is much worse than to allow them to manufacture agricultural implements, chairs, shoes, etc., within the prison walls and distribute them throughout the country. For by so doing their output is scattered so that the burden is absorbed by a large number of the people. Besides the articles which they manufacture comes in competition with union labor, which is well able to protect itself, owing to their complete organizations and not robbing the poor and underpaid common laborer of his only resource.

WOULD FEEL PUT OUT.

I fancy that even the wonderful city of Des Moines would feel quite put out if the criminals of the whole state of Iowa were turned loose on their labor market, but you appear to be quite willing to supply more criminals than all the other cities in the state combined and turning them loose on our little community, and expect us to look pleasant.

You seem to be very ready to defend the criminal and lose sight of the fact that our criminal institution at Fort

Who Made It? Traer Star Clipper: "Not long since we heard the query, 'Why do the republicans seek to reorganize by throwing a platform originated by the progressives?' We might reply by asking 'Why did the progressives on such haste organize their party on a platform laid down by Cummins, LaFollette, Borah, Bristow, Kenyon and others all straight republicans and in the name of the republican party, at a time when the administration was with the standpats and penalized these men for their avowed progressive principles?' These men were the original progressive leaders, the moose platform is simply a codification of their principles which were formerly endorsed by their republican constituents."

Cole's Choice Cigarettes

Madison is a "Pink Tea." It is sort of a summer and winter resort for the good-for-nothings, where they have music while they eat, half holidays, in fact most all holidays, baseball, band concerts, lyceum bureaus, lawn tennis—they haven't as yet introduced ping-pong or teddie-de-wink for the great creatures, but doubtless they will soon.

No working man can enjoy half the luxury that the criminals do. They are pampered and made fools of, and we tax payers foot the bills. It is time for the long haired reformers of Iowa to let up and give the common people, who pay the bills a little consideration. The whole thing is an outrage on the tax payers of the state and I sincerely hope that they will rise in their might and swat a few of these sissies that are running our penal institutions and chumming with convicts.

Yours truly,
A. P. BROWN,
Mayor, City of Ft. Madison.

Airship Mentioned in Bible. BERLIN, June 19.—By express command of the kaiser, a new edition of the German Lutheran prayer book was issued today, containing a special petition for airships and aeroplanes in the imperial service. As amended, the prayer for the army and navy now reads: "That it may please Thee to protect the royal army and all the imperial forces by land and sea, and especially all the air craft now voyaging."
