

RECORD IS BROKEN FOR HEAT IN JUNE

Friday's Temperature of 100 Degrees is One-half Degree Hotter Than High Mark of 1901.

HIGHEST IN HISTORY

Warm Early Saturday Morning Afforded Some Relief and Wind Kept Up All Day.

Friday was the hottest June day on record in the history of the local weather office. The high record for June, 1901, of 98 1/2 degrees on June 30 was beaten Friday by one-half degree. The temperature officially, according to the figures of Observer Gosewisch was 100 degrees. This will stand as the highest June day temperature unless the remaining three days of the month can do something better.

The heat Friday was intense, the only relief being that there was practically no humidity in the air. Had there been the amount of dampness that prevailed earlier in the week, the day would have been unbearable. As it was there was a great deal of suffering, and while no heat prostrations were reported there was grave danger of troubles from this source.

Early yesterday morning, between one and two o'clock Keokuk was visited by a rain, accompanied by some sharp lightning and thunder. The storm lasted for only a short time, and had the effect of cooling the air perceptibly. The rainfall was in belts, according to statements made here. Some of the residents on the south side of the city out some distance from the center of Main street said that only about a thimblefull of water fell and that the sidewalks were not wet.

Reports in the local weather office yesterday were that a storm was central about St. Paul and the northern part of Iowa. The storm was reported as being over with, so far as Keokuk was concerned, with the exception of the wind which was blowing most of the day yesterday.

Cooler temperature was recorded last evening, and the weather, man figured that while today would be warmer it probably would not be as hot as some of the other Sundays have been.

The hot weather of a week has had the effect of making the ice man and the ice cream parlor man smile broadly.

LIGHTS TURNED ON AT COUNTRY CLUB

Plant is Now Complete With This Illumination for Veranda and Driveway.

The new electric lights for the Country club were turned on yesterday for the first time. The lights were secured through the co-operation of the Keokuk Electric company with some of the boosters of the organization. The lights are on the wide porches and in the club house, and prove a welcome addition to the already complete plant which overlooks the beautiful Price's Creek valley.

At the head of the hill, and lighting the road is a lamp of 2,000 candle power. This light is of benefit to the

IN SUCH PAIN WOMAN CRIED

Suffered Everything Until Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Florence, So. Dakota.—"I used to be very sick every month with bearing down pains and backache, and had headache a good deal of the time and very little appetite. The pains were so bad that I used to sit right down on the floor and cry, because it hurt me so and I could not do any work at those times. An old woman advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I got a bottle. I felt better the next month so I took three more bottles of it and got well so I could work all the time. I hope every woman who suffers like I did will try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. P. W. LANSENG, Route No. 1, Florence, South Dakota.

Why will women continue to suffer day in and day out or drag out a sickly, half-hearted existence, missing three-fourths of the joy of living, when they can find health in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound?

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has restored the health of thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, etc.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

drivers along the road, and illuminates the stretch in fine shape. The turning on of the current into the new lights was the occasion for considerable merry-making last evening at the club.

tune. He was on his way to Rome, with Father Kelly, to give $25,000 to the pope, left to the latter by the rich uncle. After Rome he was going to Pennsylvania, where his uncle had got his start, and leave $25,000 to the poor of the state, also at his uncle's behest.

"Why give so much money to the pope?" my companion asked. "I know a lot of poor myself in New Zealand. Give me some of your money and let me distribute it." The slender man said he didn't know the New Zealander. He did not know whether he could be trusted. To prove that he could be the New Zealander took out a big roll—$2,500 he said—and told the other to take it and walk around the square with me. "He's all right, I'm going to give him some money." When we got back the New Zealander got his money. Then the slender man said he would do the same with me if only he knew he could trust me. I said I had only $500 on me. He and the New Zealander took it to walk around the square, leaving me at the table. I have not seen them since."

ARE GERMAN IMMORAL RACE?

during the week in the house, office, factory, shops or stores, prefer spending Sunday with their families amidst the joys of nature in the woods or on the lakes, to attending the church. Neither did he regard this desire to get out of town by a city's population as deplorable from a religious standpoint or indicative in any way of Godlessness or lack of religious principles.

He believed these Sunday family excursions amidst the beauties of nature, not only fitted them better perhaps for the daily grind of the coming week than if they had remained at home and attended church, but that it was really a healthy craving and a good sign that the people wanted a day's life in the country after being shut up six days in town.

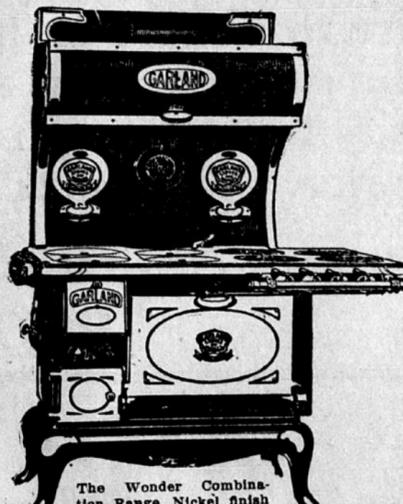

Dr. Drvander said he could not find it in his heart to criticize that craving

GERMOZONE'S Value
It is not so much in the great efficiency as a remedy for roup, canker, chicken pox and other diseases of poultry, but in the greatest bowel regulator in the world for either poultry or stock (including pet stock), counteracting, especially, bowel troubles due to many, spoiled or improper food. With man, few is an animal, regular bowels means health. Constipated irregularity means some sickness, difficult to cure if not fatal. Thousands give Germozone regularly twice a week to chickens, young and old, at the same time having it very handy as a ready remedy for other diseases. Sold by dealers or postpaid. One also only, 50 cents.

Fats Make the Hottest Fire

And as the digestion of food generates body heat, so the more greasy, heavy food you eat, the hotter you are.

One can feel several degrees cooler and more comfortable in summer by selecting proper food.

Grape-Nuts

is made of carefully selected wheat and barley and contains all their nutritive values, including the mineral phosphates, (grown in the grain), that are especially necessary for rebuilding the tissue cells of body and brain.

Grape-Nuts is thoroughly baked (16 to 24 hours) which breaks down the starch cells. Therefore it is easily and quickly digested—generally in about one hour.

If you care to feel cool and fit, make Grape-Nuts a part of the summer diet—a delicious part!

reports heavy rains with the exception of the extreme northern and northwestern parts. Eastern Iowa reports are that corn and oats are a little backward due to too much rain, while some damage was done to wheat crops in Washington county by wind and hail. In every other section of the state the prospects for fine crops are still most encouraging.

In many places between Des Moines and Keokuk the small grain harvest has already begun. Wheat is said to be the best in years. Other localities report small grain headed out and doing well. Hay is ready to cut throughout most of the state and will make a big crop. Pastures are in splendid shape. Southeastern Iowa reports cabbage and melons in good condition. The crop situation over the state in general is entirely satisfactory and a strong spirit of optimism prevails among the farmers.
