BUNNIES WIN TEN INNING FRAY 7-5

Batting Bases in Ninth and Tenth Give Rabbits Chance to Push Over Win in the First Game.

ABBOTT STEALS HOME

Old Gentleman Looked Like a Whirlwind Out There Yesterday—Second Defeat in Five Games.

Little Chief Bustum Whittaker won another eight inning game yesterday. The rest of the team went the full route and one inning extra, being nosed out by a 7 to 5 score in their second defeat during the five games played in the present homecoming. Those were ten riotous innings the bugs saw, and they were ten innings of good baseball at that. Big Chief Abbott saw himself benched during the tenth for about the twentieth time this season. Just why he was allowed to quit early no one but he and Fleming seemed to know. Incidentally, Abb was forced to use his whole team during the fray, while Hill also put twelve names in the box score.

Lost at Last Moment

It was another case of losing a game at the last moment. With a 4 to 3 lead against them, the Rabbits pounded Bill for four hits, pushing over two runs, in the ninth round. A triple by McCollough, sent in to bat for Whittaker, and a sacrifice by Hensling enabled the Indians to tie up the score. Ed Wahl finished the game and was touched for two singles, a triple, and a sacrifice. That collection of clouts brought in two more scores for the Bunnies who held the locals runless in the second half of the tenth and won the game.

Outside the second, when two doubles and a sacrifice fly brought in two runs, Bill held the visitors scoreless until the eighth. They showed over one more run in this period, counting on a double by Smith and a single by Linnenburg. But in the ninth they opened on William for three singles and a triple, and showed over a brace of runs, as before mentioned. With Wahl on the mound in the tenth they opened with a single by Linnenburg, a sacrifice by Lund, a single by Ward, and a triple on behalf of Coleman. Throughout the day the Indian hurriers received errorless support. Snappy fielding and one of the prettiest double plays of the year, Hensling to Giffin to Abbott, made it look like a big league fray.

Old Gentleman Steals Home

Although the Bunnies were first to score, the tribe tied it up with two runs of their own in the third. Hensling lead off the session with a single which was duplicated by Boss Abb. Dall lifted a fly to center and Abbott took second on the throw in to the plate that prevented Hensling from scoring. Whitey scored on an infield out by Marshall. Abb going to third. With Giffin at bat, the feeble old gentleman (as Doc Andrews likes to say) raced home under cover of Harper's windup, beating the ball to the plate far enough to be safe without question. Abb received a hearty ovation for his clever stunt.

A base on balls and two singles brought in Tommy Giffin with our third run in the sixth. Another was added to this in the next round when Hensling tripled and scored on Dall's sacrifice fly. The only other run made by the tribe was in the ninth on a triple by McCollough and a sacrifice fly by Hensling.

Sporting Views

By the Editor

Ladies' day tomorrow. Women of Keokuk have not been taking advantage of their free days at the ball park as they have in other cities of the league. From all reports there is little or no room at the other parks for mere men on Tuesdays and Thursdays of each week. Tomorrow is not only ladies' day, but also is the last day of the present home engagement of the team.

The team has been playing better ball during the last few days than they have at any time this season. If the new pitcher, Faircloth, can work in coming games as he did in the second game of the double header Saturday he will be a big help to the tribe. If the changes being made in the infield have the desired effect it will again be possible to say that the Indians are the strongest club in the league.

Eari Stoffer, a Kansas City semipro, arrived in town today and will be given a chance at an infield berth. It is not likely that he will be used today, but likely will get in the game tomorrow for a part of the time at least. Stoffer is 23 years old. He has had little or no professional experience but is said to be a good man.

The class of fielding being exhibited daily by Dall is attracting much comment from the fans who are beginning to say that the Kansas City dentist is one of the best gardeners that ever fell in a hole in the local outfield. His ability to select and camp on the spot where the ball is going to light, before the batter comes to the plate, enables him to play over an enormous range of territory.

Dutch Wetzels is another fielder to be proud of if you live in Keokuk. In one of the games Saturday Dutch made a running, one hand catch of a liner going straight for the big sign near the left field foul line. With nine men out of ten on the job it would have been a sure two bagger. What made it still better was that if the hit had gotten by him it would have broken up the game.

MAKE TEST FLIGHTS WITH FLYING BOAT

"America" Worked as Evenly With One Engine Dead as With Two in Flight Yesterday.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] HAMMONDSPORT, N. Y., July 6.—Glenn S. Curtiss was today anxiously awaiting the return of Lieut. Porte here to report to him in detail the success of the most recent experiments made with the trans-Atlantic flying boat, America. With five men with him as passengers, Curtiss demonstrated that the America could fly with one of her power plants dead.

In a trial flight Curtiss shut off one of the motors. The America kept an even keel and in completing the experiment, Curtiss alternated engines and propellers without causing the craft to alter her course or shake her balance in the least.

LIGHTWEIGHTS ARE WAITING FOR GONG

Ritchie and Welsh Finish Off Training for World's Championship Mill in London Tomorrow.

WELSH IS 4-5 FAVORITE

Ritchie's Work in Training Route Revelation to English Sport Scribes—Churchman to Officiate.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] LONDON, July 6.—Both Willie Ritchie and Freddie Welsh tapered off their training today. Only the lightest possible sparring and easy gym work was done in preparation for their bout tomorrow night which will determine the lightweight champion of the world.

Ritchie as due in London tonight. He will stop at a private home near Olympia. Welsh will not arrive until tomorrow morning. He will stop at the Waldorf. He hopes to greet his wife and baby there, fresh from their trip from America on the Aquitania.

Telegraphing the United Press today, Ritchie said:
"My condition could not be better. I expect to force the fighting in the hope of an early knock out."

The fight expert of the Evening News here in a forecast today said:
"Ritchie's condition is superlative. His foot work is the fastest I have ever seen and he hits fast as lightning. Training bouts indicated a bewildering variety in his attack and defense. The idea that he can't punch is erroneous. His work was a revelation to me. Welsh will need all his cleverness to win."

The odds still favor Welsh slightly in all betting registered today. A number of goodly wagers were placed at 5 to 4.

High prelates of the church of England were up in arms today over Rev. J. H. Bounair's acceptance of the post of master of ceremonies at the Welsh-Ritchie fight. Protests from scores of churchmen have already been filed with the bishop of Islington urging that he demand Rev. Bounair's withdrawal as an official.

Gave Him A New Stomach

"There are thousands of sufferers from stomach and liver troubles whom I wish I could meet and tell what Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets would do for them," writes H. M. Young, editor of the Sun, Lake View, Ohio. "One bottle of the tablets would end the trouble for most of them. I suffered intensely after eating and never felt well, and no treatment or medicine I tried ever seemed to do me any good until reading an advertisement for Chamberlain's Tablets in my own paper. I tried a bottle. The first few doses gave me surprising relief, and the second bottle seemed to give me a new stomach and perfect good health. I didn't think anything would give me such a complete cure. They are wonderful."

KEOKUK GOLFER HITS FIRST BALL

James Matle's Is First to Drive in Iowa State Golf Tournament at Ottumwa Today.

SHeldon PLAYING, TOO

These Two Men Will Wear "Colors" of Local Country Club in State Play.

James Matless of the Keokuk Country club hit the first ball in the Iowa State Golf tournament which started today over the links of the Ottumwa Country club. It was a masher pitch to the short first hole, and with the shot the big tournament was officially under way for more than one hundred golfers from a dozen Iowa cities. Matless had for an opponent E. V. Pollock of Ottumwa, and they left the first tee at seven o'clock this morning.

Keokuk has one other entry, J. Perdue Sheldon, a long driver but somewhat erratic player. He will qualify with N. W. Beckwith of Burlington, and the two began play at 7:55 a. m. It is disappointing that more of the Keokuk players are not in the tourney. N. H. Pyle and E. R. Cochran, who have been playing fine golf and intended to go to Ottumwa, were detained at home by business.

The players will have two days to qualify, today and tomorrow. On Wednesday the thirty-two players having the lowest medal scores will be paired for the first round of the championship fight. There will be various flights for the other players.

Local Golfers Enthused.

Golfers of the Keokuk Country club are growing more enthusiastic each day over the improvement which the local course is showing. At the beginning of the season only the thirty-second degree bugs would venture forth, for there was little pleasure in playing over the rough course. Each player needed a dozen caddies to watch balls and even then he would lose a dozen balls a day. But the conditions are better now. Considering the fact that the course is new the fair green is quite satisfactory, inasmuch as winter golf is played, giving the player the right to tee his ball for every shot. On the Fourth there were about twenty players out for the day, and a better attendance on the links is looked for from now on.

KEOKUK ELECTRIC DEFEAT HAMILTON

Game Played at Hamilton Fairview Park Yesterday, Won by Locals, 14 to 3.

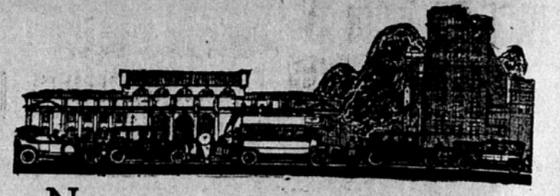

The Keokuk Electric company baseball team defeated the Hamilton Federals at the Hamilton Fairview park yesterday afternoon by a score of 14 to 3. The game was witnessed by a large crowd of fans who were kept on edge through the nine innings by the heavy hitting on both sides. Although the Hamilton team collected ten hits off Polte they were unable to push over more than three scores. The Keokuk team garnered fourteen safe blows for as many runs.

The local team was organized but a week ago, and taking this fact into consideration, they played a remarkably good game. The team is managed by H. B. Anderson, while G. A. Kirchner is president and V. O. Stafford, secretary and treasurer. They are looking for games with teams in this vicinity. Address Manager Anderson for dates. The following is the line-up of the local team: Kume, lf; Clink, 1b; Rickert, 2b; Roan, ss; V. Stafford, 3b; Schomburg, rf; Shafer, cf; Anderson, c; Polte, p.

Confirmation Expected.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] WASHINGTON, July 6.—Ultimate confirmation, probably this week, of the president's nominations of both Thomas D. Jones, of Chicago, and Paul M. Warburg, formerly of Kuhn, Loeb & Company, of New York was predicted today by administration senators. Jones responded today to the invitation of the senate banking committee to appear in person and explain his connection with the Harvester trust. Jones is a white house guest while here. His explanation of "trust" connections was that he was merely a nominal defendant in the government's civil Sherman law suit against the harvester corporation, holding only one

Expect K. M. A. O. Receivership Lifted

WICHITA, Kans., July 6.—The receivership under which the Kansas City, Mexico & Orient railway has been operated for more than two years was expected to be lifted today when the road was placed on sale by order of Judge Pollock of the Kansas City federal court.

Six million dollars was asked and a re-organization committee of stockholders were the only bidders as the sale was prefatory but necessary to remove the receivership. Work will be started immediately to extend the road from here to Kansas City.

Chamberlain's Funeral.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] BIRMINGHAM, England, July 6.—After impressive funeral services, the body of the late Joseph Chamberlain was interred here today in the Key Hill cemetery. All Birmingham stood in respectful silence as the body of the dead statesman was borne to the Unitarian Church of the esplanade from which the services were held.

At the same time the funeral rites were in progress here, memorial services were being held at Westminster in London, attended by members of the cabinet and parliament.

Ministers Attend "School."

MANHATTAN, Kans., July 6.—The religious, social and the economic side of rural life will be studied by more than 200 ministers, Sunday school superintendents and others who today enrolled in the ten day school for rural leaders which opened at the Kansas Agricultural college here. Many county superintendents of schools also plan to attend. Dr. T. N. Carver, professor of economics in Harvard university is chief instructor.

Among the forgotten dishes of the past was the "black broth of Lacedaemon." "What the ingredients of this sabbie composition were," says a writer, "we cannot exactly ascertain. Doctor Lister (in 'Aepius') supposed it to have been hog's blood. . . . It could not be a very alarming mess, since a citizen of Sybaris, having tasted it, declared it was no longer a matter of astonishment with him why the Spartans were so fearless of death, since any one in his senses would much rather die than exist on such execrable food."
