

DOLLAR DAY TOMORROW AT LOWITZ See Center Tables Everything at $1.00 Values to $10

AT LOWITZ Sh! to-morrow is Dollar Day

Extra Special Notice A1 Finer Wear for July Clearance at cost, & many items at 1-2 Price. It Pays at least to Shop at

LOWITZ

SOCIETY Home from Motor Trip. Mrs. Alois Weber and Miss Cecelia Gorman have returned from an automobile trip to Peoria. They were accompanied on their return by their niece Miss Agnes Gorman who will visit for several weeks at the Weber home.

The Warsaw Gate City Warsaw, Ill., July 14, 1914. Hon. Truman Plantz is in Rock Island on a week's M. W. A. business as general attorney of the order.

Want Column WANTED—Young man or young lady having some experience making scale drawings, etc. Cameron, Joyce & Schneider.

INSURE IN THE IOWA STATE of Keokuk FIRE LIGHTNING WIND Phone 160

Particular Attention Given to Transfer, General Hauling and Storage Careful hauling of merchandise, machinery, furniture, musical instruments and heavy truck work.

BASE BALL CENTRAL ASSOCIATION

KEOKUK vs Burlington July 14-15-16 GENERAL ADMISSION 25c. Ladies' Free Days, Tuesdays and Fridays.

Ask Edgar Myers, He can tell you. KEOKUK'S GREATEST SENSATION

Diarrhea Quickly Cured. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy Can always be depended upon.

Hippodrome Adults 20c-Children 10c

A little Paint now and then makes things look new again. GET OUR ESTIMATE Foulkes & Sons Wall Paper Store 4th & Blondeau.

Carpet Cleaning We give this branch of work our special attention. Feathers renovated by steam process. Cash paid for old feather beds. Wiley Rug Works D. C. Wiley, Prop. PHONE 945. NO. 217 MAIN

Hamilton Ga'e City

Hamilton, Ill., July 14 D. C. on a business trip for about two weeks. Current event club Jr., met Saturday to entertain their friend Carl Scanwell at Wild Cat Springs where a most enjoyable time was enjoyed by all of his past school-mates.

CITY NEWS.

—Y. W. lawn fete tonight, Huis-kamps'. —Nauvoo Independent: Thursday morning, a swallow, while flying in the air flew against the pointed end of a lightning rod on the residence of Mrs. L. Hemmy, impaling itself.

PERSONALS.

L. E. Williams has returned from a trip of several days in Lee and Des Moines counties. Mr. and Mrs. Bert Bull and sons, William and Francis of Monroe City, Mo., are guests at the home of Judge and Mrs. James S. Burrows.

TUBERCULOSIS

In addition to plenty of fresh air and proper diet, those suffering from or who are predisposed to Tuberculosis are recommended to use Eckman's Alternative to stop night sweats, banish fever and hasten recovery. This medicine, by reason of its successful use during the past, warrants the fullest investigation possible by every sufferer.

FOR SALE—$3,500, new eight room modern house on Orleans avenue; hot water heat, John Tumely.

FOR SALE—Phaeton in good condition. Price $20.00. Phone 178.

FOR SALE—Cheap, two mares and two colts if sold at once. Phone Black 339.

FOR RENT—1107 Bank street, six room modern house, $20.00. Dr. C. A. Jenkins.

FOR RENT—1013 Morgan, five room house furnished, inquire at 1009 Morgan. Phone R 521.

FOR RENT—Modern flat, furnished or unfurnished, North Fifth. Phone B-1121.

LOST—Between Monroe and Keokuk on middle road last Thursday, tortoise shell hair pin; heirloom. Reward for return to King Plumbing Co.

MISCELLANEOUS. MEN—Our illustrated catalogue explains how we teach barber trade in short term, mailed free. Moler Barber College, St. Louis, Mo. Write.

LADIES—Our illustrated catalogue explains how we teach hairdressing, manicuring, massage in few weeks, mailed free. Moler College, St. Louis, Mo.

ter Marion and Miss Catherine Hilpert motored to Donnellson and Franklin to spend Sunday with relatives.

Mrs. Sophronia Levick of Eads, Colo., is visiting her niece Mrs. O. B. Towne.

Hon. J. R. Fralley of Fort Madison was in the city this afternoon en route to Des Moines to attend the state convention of the republican party.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Buckley and family of Springfield, Ill., are visiting at the home of W. A. Balback.

Mrs. Neal Welsh and little son Cornelius of Moline, were visiting their relatives and friends of this city during the past week.

Mrs. A. P. Walden of Hannibal, Mo., is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Thomas, 512 South Seventh street.

J. C. Harvey of Humeston, one of the prominent members of the progressive party in the eighth district, was in the city yesterday.

Miss Agnes Trimble has returned from a visit of two months in Portland, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. G. Haubert, daughter of the buggy, one of the lines slipped out of his hand, the buggy was cramped by the remaining line, throwing Mr. Quick down, releasing the line and the horse ran, running the wheels of one side over Mr. Quick's left shoulder, badly dislocating it and otherwise bruising his side and back.

He was at once taken to Dr. Matzke's office, where his injuries were promptly attended to and he was then taken by his son, Fred, to the latter's home in his auto. Report came Monday evening that he was improving. The horse ran but a short distance and was caught, not much damage resulting from the runaway. The horse is gentle, a good driver, but is always anxious to be off when the halter is removed.

David Ayers, Jr., was reported as improving so much that he will soon be able to be removed from Clarence Johnson's to his father's home.

The W. C. T. U. of Wythe will hold a contest in the German Methodist church, Warsaw, on Thursday evening, July 23.

C. O. Romig and wife of Danville, Ill., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Buckert.

Wm. Shepherd of Peters Shoe Co., St. Louis, is here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Shepherd.

Miss Edna Conyers of Kansas City, and Misses Ruth and Helen Guy of Memphis, Mo., are visiting Miss Lida Spencer.

On Saturday evening Preston Quick, a prominent farmer of Wythe township, met with a serious accident that will lay him up for a while. Preparing to leave for home, he took the halter off his horse and put it in the back of his buggy, the animal hardly standing still in the meantime. Grasping the lines and preparing to get in the barn, the lines slipped out of his hand, the buggy was cramped by the remaining line, throwing Mr. Quick down, releasing the line and the horse ran, running the wheels of one side over Mr. Quick's left shoulder, badly dislocating it and otherwise bruising his side and back.

He was at once taken to Dr. Matzke's office, where his injuries were promptly attended to and he was then taken by his son, Fred, to the latter's home in his auto. Report came Monday evening that he was improving. The horse ran but a short distance and was caught, not much damage resulting from the runaway. The horse is gentle, a good driver, but is always anxious to be off when the halter is removed.

David Ayers, Jr., was reported as improving so much that he will soon be able to be removed from Clarence Johnson's to his father's home.

The W. C. T. U. of Wythe will hold a contest in the German Methodist church, Warsaw, on Thursday evening, July 23.

C. O. Romig and wife of Danville, Ill., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Buckert.

Wm. Shepherd of Peters Shoe Co., St. Louis, is here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Shepherd.

Miss Edna Conyers of Kansas City, and Misses Ruth and Helen Guy of Memphis, Mo., are visiting Miss Lida Spencer.

On Saturday evening Preston Quick, a prominent farmer of Wythe township, met with a serious accident that will lay him up for a while. Preparing to leave for home, he took the halter off his horse and put it in the back of his buggy, the animal hardly standing still in the meantime. Grasping the lines and preparing to get in the barn, the lines slipped out of his hand, the buggy was cramped by the remaining line, throwing Mr. Quick down, releasing the line and the horse ran, running the wheels of one side over Mr. Quick's left shoulder, badly dislocating it and otherwise bruising his side and back.

He was at once taken to Dr. Matzke's office, where his injuries were promptly attended to and he was then taken by his son, Fred, to the latter's home in his auto. Report came Monday evening that he was improving. The horse ran but a short distance and was caught, not much damage resulting from the runaway. The horse is gentle, a good driver, but is always anxious to be off when the halter is removed.

David Ayers, Jr., was reported as improving so much that he will soon be able to be removed from Clarence Johnson's to his father's home.

The W. C. T. U. of Wythe will hold a contest in the German Methodist church, Warsaw, on Thursday evening, July 23.

C. O. Romig and wife of Danville, Ill., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Buckert.

Wm. Shepherd of Peters Shoe Co., St. Louis, is here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Shepherd.

Miss Edna Conyers of Kansas City, and Misses Ruth and Helen Guy of Memphis, Mo., are visiting Miss Lida Spencer.

On Saturday evening Preston Quick, a prominent farmer of Wythe township, met with a serious accident that will lay him up for a while. Preparing to leave for home, he took the halter off his horse and put it in the back of his buggy, the animal hardly standing still in the meantime. Grasping the lines and preparing to get in the barn, the lines slipped out of his hand, the buggy was cramped by the remaining line, throwing Mr. Quick down, releasing the line and the horse ran, running the wheels of one side over Mr. Quick's left shoulder, badly dislocating it and otherwise bruising his side and back.

He was at once taken to Dr. Matzke's office, where his injuries were promptly attended to and he was then taken by his son, Fred, to the latter's home in his auto. Report came Monday evening that he was improving. The horse ran but a short distance and was caught, not much damage resulting from the runaway. The horse is gentle, a good driver, but is always anxious to be off when the halter is removed.

David Ayers, Jr., was reported as improving so much that he will soon be able to be removed from Clarence Johnson's to his father's home.

The W. C. T. U. of Wythe will hold a contest in the German Methodist church, Warsaw, on Thursday evening, July 23.

C. O. Romig and wife of Danville, Ill., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Buckert.

Wm. Shepherd of Peters Shoe Co., St. Louis, is here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Shepherd.

Miss Edna Conyers of Kansas City, and Misses Ruth and Helen Guy of Memphis, Mo., are visiting Miss Lida Spencer.

On Saturday evening Preston Quick, a prominent farmer of Wythe township, met with a serious accident that will lay him up for a while. Preparing to leave for home, he took the halter off his horse and put it in the back of his buggy, the animal hardly standing still in the meantime. Grasping the lines and preparing to get in the barn, the lines slipped out of his hand, the buggy was cramped by the remaining line, throwing Mr. Quick down, releasing the line and the horse ran, running the wheels of one side over Mr. Quick's left shoulder, badly dislocating it and otherwise bruising his side and back.

He was at once taken to Dr. Matzke's office, where his injuries were promptly attended to and he was then taken by his son, Fred, to the latter's home in his auto. Report came Monday evening that he was improving. The horse ran but a short distance and was caught, not much damage resulting from the runaway. The horse is gentle, a good driver, but is always anxious to be off when the halter is removed.

David Ayers, Jr., was reported as improving so much that he will soon be able to be removed from Clarence Johnson's to his father's home.

The W. C. T. U. of Wythe will hold a contest in the German Methodist church, Warsaw, on Thursday evening, July 23.

C. O. Romig and wife of Danville, Ill., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Buckert.

Wm. Shepherd of Peters Shoe Co., St. Louis, is here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Shepherd.

Miss Edna Conyers of Kansas City, and Misses Ruth and Helen Guy of Memphis, Mo., are visiting Miss Lida Spencer.

On Saturday evening Preston Quick, a prominent farmer of Wythe township, met with a serious accident that will lay him up for a while. Preparing to leave for home, he took the halter off his horse and put it in the back of his buggy, the animal hardly standing still in the meantime. Grasping the lines and preparing to get in the barn, the lines slipped out of his hand, the buggy was cramped by the remaining line, throwing Mr. Quick down, releasing the line and the horse ran, running the wheels of one side over Mr. Quick's left shoulder, badly dislocating it and otherwise bruising his side and back.

He was at once taken to Dr. Matzke's office, where his injuries were promptly attended to and he was then taken by his son, Fred, to the latter's home in his auto. Report came Monday evening that he was improving. The horse ran but a short distance and was caught, not much damage resulting from the runaway. The horse is gentle, a good driver, but is always anxious to be off when the halter is removed.

David Ayers, Jr., was reported as improving so much that he will soon be able to be removed from Clarence Johnson's to his father's home.

The W. C. T. U. of Wythe will hold a contest in the German Methodist church, Warsaw, on Thursday evening, July 23.

C. O. Romig and wife of Danville, Ill., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Buckert.

Wm. Shepherd of Peters Shoe Co., St. Louis, is here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Shepherd.

Miss Edna Conyers of Kansas City, and Misses Ruth and Helen Guy of Memphis, Mo., are visiting Miss Lida Spencer.

On Saturday evening Preston Quick, a prominent farmer of Wythe township, met with a serious accident that will lay him up for a while. Preparing to leave for home, he took the halter off his horse and put it in the back of his buggy, the animal hardly standing still in the meantime. Grasping the lines and preparing to get in the barn, the lines slipped out of his hand, the buggy was cramped by the remaining line, throwing Mr. Quick down, releasing the line and the horse ran, running the wheels of one side over Mr. Quick's left shoulder, badly dislocating it and otherwise bruising his side and back.

He was at once taken to Dr. Matzke's office, where his injuries were promptly attended to and he was then taken by his son, Fred, to the latter's home in his auto. Report came Monday evening that he was improving. The horse ran but a short distance and was caught, not much damage resulting from the runaway. The horse is gentle, a good driver, but is always anxious to be off when the halter is removed.

David Ayers, Jr., was reported as improving so much that he will soon be able to be removed from Clarence Johnson's to his father's home.

The W. C. T. U. of Wythe will hold a contest in the German Methodist church, Warsaw, on Thursday evening, July 23.

C. O. Romig and wife of Danville, Ill., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Buckert.

Wm. Shepherd of Peters Shoe Co., St. Louis, is here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Shepherd.

Miss Edna Conyers of Kansas City, and Misses Ruth and Helen Guy of Memphis, Mo., are visiting Miss Lida Spencer.

On Saturday evening Preston Quick, a prominent farmer of Wythe township, met with a serious accident that will lay him up for a while. Preparing to leave for home, he took the halter off his horse and put it in the back of his buggy, the animal hardly standing still in the meantime. Grasping the lines and preparing to get in the barn, the lines slipped out of his hand, the buggy was cramped by the remaining line, throwing Mr. Quick down, releasing the line and the horse ran, running the wheels of one side over Mr. Quick's left shoulder, badly dislocating it and otherwise bruising his side and back.

He was at once taken to Dr. Matzke's office, where his injuries were promptly attended to and he was then taken by his son, Fred, to the latter's home in his auto. Report came Monday evening that he was improving. The horse ran but a short distance and was caught, not much damage resulting from the runaway. The horse is gentle, a good driver, but is always anxious to be off when the halter is removed.

David Ayers, Jr., was reported as improving so much that he will soon be able to be removed from Clarence Johnson's to his father's home.

The W. C. T. U. of Wythe will hold a contest in the German Methodist church, Warsaw, on Thursday evening, July 23.

C. O. Romig and wife of Danville, Ill., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Buckert.

Wm. Shepherd of Peters Shoe Co., St. Louis, is here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Shepherd.

Miss Edna Conyers of Kansas City, and Misses Ruth and Helen Guy of Memphis, Mo., are visiting Miss Lida Spencer.

On Saturday evening Preston Quick, a prominent farmer of Wythe township, met with a serious accident that will lay him up for a while. Preparing to leave for home, he took the halter off his horse and put it in the back of his buggy, the animal hardly standing still in the meantime. Grasping the lines and preparing to get in the barn, the lines slipped out of his hand, the buggy was cramped by the remaining line, throwing Mr. Quick down, releasing the line and the horse ran, running the wheels of one side over Mr. Quick's left shoulder, badly dislocating it and otherwise bruising his side and back.

He was at once taken to Dr. Matzke's office, where his injuries were promptly attended to and he was then taken by his son, Fred, to the latter's home in his auto. Report came Monday evening that he was improving. The horse ran but a short distance and was caught, not much damage resulting from the runaway. The horse is gentle, a good driver, but is always anxious to be off when the halter is removed.

David Ayers, Jr., was reported as improving so much that he will soon be able to be removed from Clarence Johnson's to his father's home.

The W. C. T. U. of Wythe will hold a contest in the German Methodist church, Warsaw, on Thursday evening, July 23.

C. O. Romig and wife of Danville, Ill., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Buckert.

Wm. Shepherd of Peters Shoe Co., St. Louis, is here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Shepherd.

Miss Edna Conyers of Kansas City, and Misses Ruth and Helen Guy of Memphis, Mo., are visiting Miss Lida Spencer.

On Saturday evening Preston Quick, a prominent farmer of Wythe township, met with a serious accident that will lay him up for a while. Preparing to leave for home, he took the halter off his horse and put it in the back of his buggy, the animal hardly standing still in the meantime. Grasping the lines and preparing to get in the barn, the lines slipped out of his hand, the buggy was cramped by the remaining line, throwing Mr. Quick down, releasing the line and the horse ran, running the wheels of one side over Mr. Quick's left shoulder, badly dislocating it and otherwise bruising his side and back.

He was at once taken to Dr. Matzke's office, where his injuries were promptly attended to and he was then taken by his son, Fred, to the latter's home in his auto. Report came Monday evening that he was improving. The horse ran but a short distance and was caught, not much damage resulting from the runaway. The horse is gentle, a good driver, but is always anxious to be off when the halter is removed.

David Ayers, Jr., was reported as improving so much that he will soon be able to be removed from Clarence Johnson's to his father's home.

The W. C. T. U. of Wythe will hold a contest in the German Methodist church, Warsaw, on Thursday evening, July 23.

C. O. Romig and wife of Danville, Ill., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Buckert.

Wm. Shepherd of Peters Shoe Co., St. Louis, is here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Shepherd.

Miss Edna Conyers of Kansas City, and Misses Ruth and Helen Guy of Memphis, Mo., are visiting Miss Lida Spencer.

On Saturday evening Preston Quick, a prominent farmer of Wythe township, met with a serious accident that will lay him up for a while. Preparing to leave for home, he took the halter off his horse and put it in the back of his buggy, the animal hardly standing still in the meantime. Grasping the lines and preparing to get in the barn, the lines slipped out of his hand, the buggy was cramped by the remaining line, throwing Mr. Quick down, releasing the line and the horse ran, running the wheels of one side over Mr. Quick's left shoulder, badly dislocating it and otherwise bruising his side and back.

He was at once taken to Dr. Matzke's office, where his injuries were promptly attended to and he was then taken by his son, Fred, to the latter's home in his auto. Report came Monday evening that he was improving. The horse ran but a short distance and was caught, not much damage resulting from the runaway. The horse is gentle, a good driver, but is always anxious to be off when the halter is removed.

David Ayers, Jr., was reported as improving so much that he will soon be able to be removed from Clarence Johnson's to his father's home.

The W. C. T. U. of Wythe will hold a contest in the German Methodist church, Warsaw, on Thursday evening, July 23.

C. O. Romig and wife of Danville, Ill., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Buckert.

Wm. Shepherd of Peters Shoe Co., St. Louis, is here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Shepherd.

Miss Edna Conyers of Kansas City, and Misses Ruth and Helen Guy of Memphis, Mo., are visiting Miss Lida Spencer.

On Saturday evening Preston Quick, a prominent farmer of Wythe township, met with a serious accident that will lay him up for a while. Preparing to leave for home, he took the halter off his horse and put it in the back of his buggy, the animal hardly standing still in the meantime. Grasping the lines and preparing to get in the barn, the lines slipped out of his hand, the buggy was cramped by the remaining line, throwing Mr. Quick down, releasing the line and the horse ran, running the wheels of one side over Mr. Quick's left shoulder, badly dislocating it and otherwise bruising his side and back.

He was at once taken to Dr. Matzke's office, where his injuries were promptly attended to and he was then taken by his son, Fred, to the latter's home in his auto. Report came Monday evening that he was improving. The horse ran but a short distance and was caught, not much damage resulting from the runaway. The horse is gentle, a good driver, but is always anxious to be off when the halter is removed.

David Ayers, Jr., was reported as improving so much that he will soon be able to be removed from Clarence Johnson's to his father's home.

The W. C. T. U. of Wythe will hold a contest in the German Methodist church, Warsaw, on Thursday evening, July 23.

C. O. Romig and wife of Danville, Ill., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Buckert.

Wm. Shepherd of Peters Shoe Co., St. Louis, is here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Shepherd.

Miss Edna Conyers of Kansas City, and Misses Ruth and Helen Guy of Memphis, Mo., are visiting Miss Lida Spencer.

On Saturday evening Preston Quick, a prominent farmer of Wythe township, met with a serious accident that will lay him up for a while. Preparing to leave for home, he took the halter off his horse and put it in the back of his buggy, the animal hardly standing still in the meantime. Grasping the lines and preparing to get in the barn, the lines slipped out of his hand, the buggy was cramped by the remaining line, throwing Mr. Quick down, releasing the line and the horse ran, running the wheels of one side over Mr. Quick's left shoulder, badly dislocating it and otherwise bruising his side and back.

He was at once taken to Dr. Matzke's office, where his injuries were promptly attended to and he was then taken by his son, Fred, to the latter's home in his auto. Report came Monday evening that he was improving. The horse ran but a short distance and was caught, not much damage resulting from the runaway. The horse is gentle, a good driver, but is always anxious to be off when the halter is removed.

David Ayers, Jr., was reported as improving so much that he will soon be able to be removed from Clarence Johnson's to his father's home.

The W. C. T. U. of Wythe will hold a contest in the German Methodist church, Warsaw, on Thursday evening, July 23.

C. O. Romig and wife of Danville, Ill., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Buckert.

Wm. Shepherd of Peters Shoe Co., St. Louis, is here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Shepherd.

Miss Edna Conyers of Kansas City, and Misses Ruth and Helen Guy of Memphis, Mo., are visiting Miss Lida Spencer.

On Saturday evening Preston Quick, a prominent farmer of Wythe township, met with a serious accident that will lay him up for a while. Preparing to leave for home, he took the halter off his horse and put it in the back of his buggy, the animal hardly standing still in the meantime. Grasping the lines and preparing to get in the barn, the lines slipped out of his hand, the buggy was cramped by the remaining line, throwing Mr. Quick down, releasing the line and the horse ran, running the wheels of one side over Mr. Quick's left shoulder, badly dislocating it and otherwise bruising his side and back.

He was at once taken to Dr. Matzke's office, where his injuries were promptly attended to and he was then taken by his son, Fred, to the latter's home in his auto. Report came Monday evening that he was improving. The horse ran but a short distance and was caught, not much damage resulting from the runaway. The horse is gentle, a good driver, but is always anxious to be off when the halter is removed.

David Ayers, Jr., was reported as improving so much that he will soon be able to be removed from Clarence Johnson's to his father's home.

The W. C. T. U. of Wythe will hold a contest in the German Methodist church, Warsaw, on Thursday evening, July 23.

C. O. Romig and wife of Danville, Ill., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Buckert.

Wm. Shepherd of Peters Shoe Co., St. Louis, is here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Shepherd.

Miss Edna Conyers of Kansas City, and Misses Ruth and Helen Guy of Memphis, Mo., are visiting Miss Lida Spencer.

On Saturday evening Preston Quick, a prominent farmer of Wythe township, met with a serious accident that will lay him up for a while. Preparing to leave for home, he took the halter off his horse and put it in the back of his buggy, the animal hardly standing still in the meantime. Grasping the lines and preparing to get in the barn, the lines slipped out of his hand, the buggy was cramped by the remaining line, throwing Mr. Quick down, releasing the line and the horse ran, running the wheels of one side over Mr. Quick's left shoulder, badly dislocating it and otherwise bruising his side and back.

He was at once taken to Dr. Matzke's office, where his injuries were promptly attended to and he was then taken by his son, Fred, to the latter's home in his auto. Report came Monday evening that he was improving. The horse ran but a short distance and was caught, not much damage resulting from the runaway. The horse is gentle, a good driver, but is always anxious to be off when the halter is removed.

David Ayers, Jr., was reported as improving so much that he will soon be able to be removed from Clarence Johnson's to his father's home.

The W. C. T. U. of Wythe will hold a contest in the German Methodist church, Warsaw, on Thursday evening, July 23.

C. O. Romig and wife of Danville, Ill., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Buckert.

Wm. Shepherd of Peters Shoe Co., St. Louis, is here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Shepherd.

Miss Edna Conyers of Kansas City, and Misses Ruth and Helen Guy of Memphis, Mo., are visiting Miss Lida Spencer.

On Saturday evening Preston Quick,