ORPHANS LOSE IN LAST GAME 6-4

McCullough Does Slab Work and Holds Eganites Safe After the Fourth Inning.

BILL USES HIS STICK

Opportune Bingle by Jovial Bill Brings in Bacon When the Score Was Tied.

The home guards got back at the Orphans yesterday and put their sign (Indian) on them in a 6 to 4 win, thereby avenging the defeat in the second game of Sunday's double header. The game gave Sweet's charges four out of the last six played, and sent the Orphans to Galesburg where Wednesday they play the first C. A. game seen there in several years, without the rosier record in their wake.

Keokuk seems to be a bad town for Ross, Egan's mound choice for the set-to. Although he has worked in, or started several games here before this season, he has lost on every occasion and yesterday was the first time he was able to go the full route. The boys got to him in the first, second and seventh innings for one, three and two runs respectively.

Mack Pitched Good Game. Outside of two innings, the first and fourth, when the visitors scored their runs, McCullough pitched a fine game and had the Orphan swatters on his hip. Besides his work on the mound Mack did himself justice with his stick. In his four trips to the plate he played out three neat bingles which were a big factor in winning the game.

L.H. Chief Bustum Whittaker, who held down right field while Mack was on the slab, also made himself known as a dandy little outfielder and hitter. With two gone in the seventh and the score a tie, Bill slapped out the blow that scored both runs in that round and won the game. He only had one chance to show the fans what he could do in the field, but that one he handled all by himself.

Orphans Started Early. The Orphans started out to make the day a repetition of that memorable slaughter of Sunday, but after the first run had come in, the tribe settled down and played baseball. Their three runs made in the fourth resulted from four safe blows by Norwood, Mulligan, Link and Sohn. After that they got but one hit off McCullough's offerings.

Our boys opened early on Ross. In the first Dall walked and counted on Marshall's double. In the second Wetzell walked, was sacrificed to second by Whittaker, but was caught at third on Sweet's forced hit. However, McCullough, Hensling and Giffin hit safely in succession, Whitley's blow being good for two sacks. The three hits brought in three runs.

The next scores for the Indians were made in the seventh. Dall again started things with a stroll, but was forced at second by Marshall. McGee singled, sending Marshall to third, and then stole second. Both came home when Jovial Bill, erstwhile outfielder, slammed a single into right.

BOYS PLAY TODAY AT CENTERVILLE

Exhibition Game With Semi-Pro Team on Sport Menu for the Indians This Afternoon.

CLINTON COMES NEXT

Indians Have Chance to Get Flying Start for the First Division Berth Now.

Centerville had its first chance to give the Indians the once over when they performed in an exhibition contest with the semi-pro prides of that city. The boys left here at 9 o'clock this morning, reaching Centerville at about noon. They were slated to leave immediately after the game, to arrive here at about 9 o'clock this evening.

Sweet took along all the boys with the exception of Ted Welsh who was told to take a day off. Director Dr. Gillilan went along with the team to keep his eye on the gate. The club was to get a percentage of the receipts as well as a guarantee. It is believed they will prove a good drawing card. Centerville supports the fastest semi-pro club in the state and a game with a league club should prove a big attraction. Slim McIntyre was slated to do the slab stuff and Harry thought to pair him with Doc Marshall. The boys want to take a day off by working on first.

May Get New Men.

It would not be surprising if the club brings back some new men from the trip. The directors have had an eye on some of the Centerville boys for some time and the game today will give them the best kind of a chance to get a line on Centerville players.

Bert Hough is due in here tonight from Waterloo with his string of Pilots and will match them against the tribe in a three game series, starting tomorrow. Sweet has big hopes of making it three in a row from the Clinton crowd. The three games would put the tribe nineteen notches ahead of the Pilots, while two out of three would leave them just four points below.

Pilots Here Tomorrow.

The Pilots have been getting drubbed regularly by other clubs here lately and there is no reason why the Indians should not hand them the same kind of a dose. The games with the Pilots promise to be of big interest and should draw large crowds. The Bunnies follow Clinton for three more set-tos. If luck goes in the right direction, the tribe will end the twelve game home series ahead of both the Pilots and the Rabbits. Today the boys stood just twelve games behind Waterloo, a big lead for this time of the season but not absolutely impossible to overcome. It's not very likely that Keokuk will win a pennant this season, but if the home crowd comes out to the games and boos behind the team during the next six games here at home, the boys should get a flying start for a first division berth and will land well up in the running.

NO MORE SOCIAL P. G.'S FOR PLAYERS

Burlington Police Find Galesburg Players Enjoying a Mild Game and Rudely Interrupt.

Burlington Gazette: When things reach a point when a poor lonesome, tired out ball player is not allowed to enjoy a peaceful P. G. in the privacy of his own little "boudoir" he is really to be pitied. Things have reached just that state in Burlington however; as four of the members of the Galesburg baseball club will testify with much gusto. They were engaged in just such enjoyable exercise when they were rudely interrupted by the influx of much Police Force and were told that their game had gone so far that it should be stopped and that the said police force had arrived on the scene for just such stopping purpose.

Ball players are scrappy as a rule, but when confronted with the blue uniform and brass buttons of a "Copper" and the "Clits" clothes and shining badge of a police captain they let their better judgment rule them and abide by the rulings of said inner consciousness.

They were more than courteous to the police when their room in their favorite hotel was entered and they were caught in the act of trying to convince each other that they held about a four times better hand than they really had. Just as one of the boys, a ditcher, announced that he might raise the ante a couple of bits and another decided to "see" him a sharp rap was heard at the door and the "knockee" was told to enter.

Nobody looked up as it was thought the person was another of the ball tossers. He stood there a few minutes and noticed that the game was merely a sociable one and decided to take a hand himself. He announced that intention and when the players glanced up they saw the uniform and the aforesaid captain's badge and gave up hope.

They explained that they were merely playing to pass a sociable evening and that the offense would not be repeated. The officers who made the raid decided to take their word for it and allowed them to put up a $6.35 bond which they forfeited this morning.

Witness After Witness In Keokuk

Such Evidence Our Readers Cannot Dispute.

As we take up the Gate City week by week, we are struck by the hearty, unmistakable way in which witness after witness speaks out as Mrs. Reuter does here. If these people were strangers living miles away, we might take little notice of them. But they are not. They are our neighbors, living among us. Their word is too easily proven to admit of any doubt. They speak out in the hope that their experience may be a guide to others.
