BILL MAKES HISTORY

Earns Distinction of Being the Only
Pitcher Who Ever Hit Ball
Over the Club House.

Despite the fact that Hough avers his team is cheating the hospitals out of their just dues and that he has but one pitcher who is able to work, the Pilots outplayed and outbatted the Indians in the opening game of the series, winning by a neck, 4 to 3. Had the rest of our boys been able to emulate the excellent example of Lil' Chief Bustum Whittaker there would have been nothing to it, but the two pitchers used in the fray, McCollough in right field and Whittaker on the mound, apparently were the only ones who could solve the twists of the visiting twirlers.

One of Mack's two hits was good for a double, while Bill laid one of his pair of blows over the club house in center field, a feat that has been accomplished but mightily few times during the history of local baseball. That little homer brought McCollough in from first and was made with two down for the inning. Fans were pulling for a big slugging bee when Bill got away with the four bagger, but the rally that was anxiously awaited never arrived. To make assurance doubly sure, Hough relieved Miller at the end of this inning, the seventh, and allowed Cooper to finish the game. Coop whiffed four of the six batters who faced him.

Bill went the full route for the tribe and was touched for eleven clouts of a varied nature, two being doubles and one a triple. To make matters worse, Whittaker's support was erratic. There was a scattering of brilliant fielding, most of which was achieved by our new friend, McGee, but on the other hand the tribe accumulated four miscues and made several other plays that might have been better.

All through the game a blow up of the Pilots was expected to throw the game to the locals. Whittaker neatly pulled himself out of such a very bad hole in the first inning, when the bases were congested with none down, that he looked to be able to hold his own despite indifferent support. But the Kedskin swatters found both Miller and Cooper too strong, and that tells the whole story of the game. The score:

STIFF FIGHT FOR WESTERN TITLE

Champions Meet Champions Today in the Third Round of Match Play Over Thirty-six Holes.

EVANS IS IN BAD SHAPE

Former Champion Meets Albert
Seckle for Fifth Time Today
With Score Evened
Up.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.]
GRAND RAPIDS, Mich., July 30.—Strife, more strenuous than any of the week in play for the western amateur golf title was scheduled for today when champions meet champions in the third round of match play, which is 36 holes. A true survival of the fittest was that of Wednesday's play in second round and it brought the following into the third round lime light today: Chick Evans, former western champion, vs. Albert Seckle of Riverside, Chicago, former western champion. Philip Stanton, Grand Rapids, vs. R. E. Hunter, Pasadena; W. S. Gardner, vs. W. S. Sawyer, Wheaton.
This marks the fifth meeting of Chick Evans and Albert Seckle. The score is even up and today the tie will be broken.
Phil Stanton, who played a wonderful game against Harold Weber of Toledo, yesterday, winning 9 up, 8 to go, is pitted against R. E. Hunter, who by his victory 3 up over Fraser Hale, of Edgewater, proved that he is as worthy of consideration of the title as any of the survivors of the second round.
Evans is not in the best of physical shape for the grueling contest which threatens today. He has been troubled all week with sore feet.

CHICAGO SWIMMERS CARRY OFF HONORS

Central A. A. U. Swimming
Meet at Indianapolis.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.]
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., July 30.—Three Chicago swimmers carried off the honors of the first day in the Central A. A. U. swimming meet here. The prediction that records would fall was correct.
Reitman, I. A. C., won the plunge for distance, establishing a new record of 75 feet. Heber, I. A. C., won the 440 yard swim with a new record of 5:48.3. Rathel, I. A. C., broke the record, making the 50 yard dash in 25 seconds. Today will come the 100 yard dash, the 20 yard breast stroke and the 880 yard dash, with fancy diving and water polo.
Nothing has yet been heard concerning the much talked of C. Jones, of Topeka, expected to arrive immediately after the departure of Faircloth.

William Wallace—Scotland's Great Patriot

FOR nearly seven hundred years the sons and daughters of Scotland have revered the memory of Wallace. It is not too much to say that this will continue for seventy times seven hundred years. When but a youth the love of Personal and National Liberty burned so fiercely in the breast of Wallace that he revolted against England's tyrannous rule. At the head of his gallant band of riders he won skirmish after skirmish, and finally, at the opportune time, quickly organized an army and routed the English at Stirling Bridge. William Wallace admired a good Barley-Malt brew just as do the Scotchmen of to-day. Prohibition has ever been a detestable word to the Scotch people. They will not have it enter into their private lives, and the Scotch vote is always registered by a large majority against such sumptuary legislation. In America they have done much to build up the country. Thousands of our solid Scotch citizens are patrons of the honest brews of Anheuser-Busch and have been constant users of BUDWEISER. They have helped to make the annual sales of this world-famed brand exceed those of any other beer by millions of bottles.

Lyle Hofer, released recently by Belden Hill, is expected to join Sweet's twirling staff here tomorrow. Hofer is a right hander and will be remembered by local bugs on account of the fact that he has administered two trimmings to the tribe. Hofer has as much "stuff" as any finger in the association, his occasional wildness being about his only weakness.
Nothing has yet been heard concerning the much talked of C. Jones, of Topeka, expected to arrive immediately after the departure of Faircloth.
Hough's statement that his team is badly crippled is not altogether imagination. Shortstop Menna was left at Clinton with a badly injured foot, which is slow in healing. Pitcher Bob Mitchell, who has been a bug-bear to the tribe in the past, has a badly injured wing. Scanlon has just got back in the game, and others are playing despite their crippled condition.

Australian Clashes Today With German Tennis Star in Davis Cup Tennis Competition.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.]
PITTSBURGH, Pa., July 30.—Norman Brookes, of the Australasian team, and Otto Froitzheim, of the German team, in singles. That was the scheduled opener today of the Davis cup tennis competition at the Allegheny country club. A large society gallery was expected.
Brookes and Froitzheim, captains of their respective teams, were to begin play at 2 o'clock. Anthony F. Wilding, Australian and Oscar Kreuzer, German, were to be matched for singles.
Interest centered in the first singles Froitzheim and Brookes played at Wimbledon, England on July 4. The Australasian won only after a grueling match marked by three close decisions all of which were unfavorable to the German. All believe he will win today. Tomorrow afternoon Brookes and Wilding will play Froitzheim and Kreuzer in doubles, and Saturday two more games in the singles will be played.

U. S. and European Telephone Service

With only 6% of the world's population, the United States has more telephone wire in use than all the rest of the world.

Here are some interesting figures regarding the telephone wire in use in some of the leading countries:

Country	Population	Miles of Telephone Wire	% of Total Telephone Wire in World.
United States	96,299,000	20,248,326	60.88
Germany	66,840,000	4,175,782	12.56
Great Britain	46,122,000	2,360,000	7.39
France	39,602,000	1,060,052	3.19
Austria	29,056,000	321,648	.97
Sweden	5,604,000	279,312	.84

Efficient service and the lowest rates in the world are the reasons why America, with only 6% of the population, has more than 60% of all the world's telephones.
