WOODMEN CAMP IS PLANNING MEETING

Have Get-together Session Sept. 9, with Talks About Camps' Actions.

Keokuk Camp No. 622 of the Woodmen is planning for a big get-together meeting Sept. 9. At the last regular meeting of the lodge a motion was made to the effect that the get-together meeting should be held and that Judge W. L. McNamara, Theo. A. Craig, Truman Plantz and John C. Scott should be present and report on the action of the county, state and head camps.

It was decided to put the meeting in the hands of a committee of old timers who will prepare the program and supper for the occasion. The committee is composed as follows: E. S. Lofton, chairman; John McCleary, Thomas Joyce, E. F. Carter, F. O. Wright, T. F. Bedford, H. J. Bonham, George W. Sweeney, E. J. Reichman, W. L. McNamara and O. D. McManis.

—Judging from the number of replies I received from my classified advertising I consider The Gate City ten times the best paper for results. That is my experience, anyway," said a patron of this paper. There is no doubt about it. The Gate City's big circulation which is almost twice that of any other paper for city circulation, gives by far the largest and best results. Many patrons who have made the test only use one paper for their advertising announcements.

—Phone 139 today for a case of Puritas dark lager or pale beer. It's just the drink for the home folks.
