How to Lose Your Tan, Freckles or Wrinkles

A day's motoring, an afternoon on the tennis ground or golf links, a sun-bath on the beach or exposure on a sea trip, often brings on a deep tan or vivid crimson or, more perplexing still, a vigorous crop of freckles. A very necessary thing then is mercolized wax, which removes tan, redness or freckles quite easily. It literally peels off the affected skin—just a little at a time, so there's no hurt or injury. As the skin comes off in almost invisible flaky particles, no trace of the treatment is shown. Get an ounce of mercolized wax at your druggist's and use this nightly as you would cold cream, washing it off mornings. In a week or so you will have an entirely new skin, beautifully clear, transparent and of a most delicate whiteness.

Wrinkles, so apt to form at this season, may be easily and quickly removed by bathing the face in a solution of powdered squalite, 1 oz., dissolved in witch hazel, 3/4 pint. This is not only a valuable astringent, but has a beneficial tonic effect also.

—When you drink Puritas beer you are sure to get a good fresh beer. It comes from the dark cellar to your home upon a phone call 139. Order a case today.

—See Sherwood's new buggy line. 703 Main street.

—The Gate City printed the news of the death of Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, wife of the president of the United States, twelve hours ahead of the morning papers and twenty-four hours ahead of local competitors.

—Last picture of Lucille Love tonight at the Orpheum.

—Montrose Journal: Bluff Park seems to be crowded all the time. When one cottage is vacated some one else seems to come to fill the room made vacant. Those who visit the park are both orderly and people of refined tastes. Some of the younger ones bring an over supply of exuberant spirit, but under the capable management of J. A. Whittaker, the park runs as smooth as a watch.

—See Lucille Love tonight at the Orpheum, the last of this great picture.

—The Burlington Gazette says the Bernhardt steel barge did not favor Burlington with a visit. The Gazette says: Barge No. 5 did not stop at Burlington yesterday. Perhaps the captain had a good reason for his action, but there was no reason why the local committee could not have been informed of the matter. An explanation will be demanded. Business men should not be asked to sacrifice their valuable time in this useless manner.

—Carthage Gazette: Sheriff McAdams took Pat Welch of Hamilton, in jail charged with bootlegging, to Keokuk to see his mother who is critically ill from the infirmities of old age, at St. Joseph's hospital in that city, of which she has been an inmate for two years. She is in her 95th year. She begged so piteously to see her son that Sheriff Crimmins of Keokuk, asked that the son be brought to her and his request was complied with.

—A local wholesaler had the following to say today on the sugar question: Owing to the war in Europe which cuts off the supplies from Germany, Russia, France and Austria and other foreign producing countries, there is no market for sugar. The last price obtainable for granulated sugar was $5.25 F. O. B. New York. Every indication points to higher prices on sugar. No one can tell the result. Local jobbers are fairly well supplied with the article and will have to advance the prices if they are able to buy.

—Warsaw Bulletin: Mrs. Virginia Ivins of Keokuk, came to Warsaw Saturday to view the Fort Edwards monument and was greatly pleased with it, being especially charmed with its chaste and symmetrical proportions and its commanding height. Mrs. Ivins, a native of Warsaw, was the youngest daughter of Major John R. Wilcox, who resigned from the United States army while stationed at Fort Edwards and located on the ground which subsequently became the site of Warsaw, he being one of the founders of the town. She left Monday for a two months' visit to Cincinnati but expects to return in time to witness the dedication of the monument.
