VALUES ON FARM STOCK READJUSTED

Advances in Iowa Counties Ordered by State Executive Council Have Been Completed by Clerks Now.

NO DISTRICT LOWERED

More Counties Were Low on Taxation Than High, It Was Found, and Changes Are Made.

Readjustment of the values of live stock for taxation, as ordered by the state executive council, has been completed by J. W. Williams, revenue clerk, says the Des Moines Register and Leader.

In passing upon the figures submitted by the auditors, the council raised the values of all stock to the standard, but did not lower any assessments. There were more counties low on values than there were too high.

Forty-five Counties Raised.

Forty-five out of ninety-nine counties were raised on the value of cows. Dickinson county, for instance, was advanced 28 per cent, or from $25 to $32 a head. Greene county was also raised 28 per cent.

On the yearling steers, Floyd county was raised 45 per cent, or from $16.60 to $24 a head. This county was advanced 58 per cent on 2-year-old steers and 63 per cent on yearling heifers. On hogs Floyd county was advanced 63 per cent, or from $5.23 to $8.50 a head.

Plymouth county captured the prize for the greatest advance in any one class. It was raised 112 per cent on hogs, or from $4 to $8.50 a head. Greene county was raised 75 per cent on sheep.

Standard of Valuation.

Eighty-two counties placed the values of stallions too low. Only seventeen had placed what the council thought was a fair value on them.

On horses about half of the counties were raised. In arriving at the values of live stock, the council observed the following standard of values for taxation: Yearling colts, $46; 2-year-old colts, $70; horses, $88; stallions, $350; mules, $90; cattle in feeding, $43; yearlings heifers, $19; 2-year-old heifers, $35; cows, $32; yearling steers, $24; 2-year-old steers, $34; 3-year-old steers, $40; hogs, $8.50; sheep, $3.50.

DIDN'T WANT STREET LIGHT—NOW REMOVED

Are Light at J and Park Street Was Pulled Out Every Night—Ordered Removed.

The arc light at J and Park streets has been ordered removed by the city because of the fact that it was put out of commission nearly every night during the time it was in operation. Miscreants in that vicinity put out the light on a number of occasions, and it was impossible to keep it in working order. On one occasion the padlock was broken off and stolen. This damage was repaired. The next night some one threw a brick through the lamp, following which the city decided to order it removed.

The two men were arrested last evening at about nine o'clock while fighting. Fouse was struck over the head and a gash cut which required five stitches to close.

Refreshments were served by a committee of the Quid Looet society as follows: Mrs. Frank Anderson, Mrs. Harry Phillips, Mrs. C. F. McFarland, Mrs. James Huiskamp, Mrs. W. J. Harter, and Mrs. Cole. Three readings were given by Miss Mildred West, which were very well received by the audience. Miss West took dramatic lessons at the Illinois woman's college, of which she is an alumnae, and has since taken private lessons. The three selections given last night were widely different in character, and showed her ability in interpreting lighter selections as well as those of more dramatic nature. Following the program light refreshments were served and a social time enjoyed.

At Country Club Tomorrow. There will be a dancing party at the Country club tomorrow evening, the music to be furnished by a victrola instead of the orchestra, which will not play again this season unless the directors rescind the action taken this week regarding it.

Friday is Church Day. Friday is church day in Keokuk for the women at least. Almost without exception all churches have some women's society meeting on that day. The Westminster Presbyterian has all of its meetings on Monday except the Sewing society, which meets on Friday. One Episcopal society and one Congregational society meets also on Monday. This shows why the society calendar seldom records a big social function on Friday, since most women are faithful to their church societies. Today the Congregational women's society is being entertained by Mrs. O. W. Ellsworth and Mrs. C. P. Ebersole.

The hostesses to the Baptists ladies' society are Mrs. W. O. Phillips, Mrs. G. W. Hibbard and Mrs. H. L. Bess. The Trinity M. E. women are holding a business session in the church parlors today. Mrs. Thomas Reddie entertained the missionary society of the United Presbyterian church today. Mrs. L. D. Davidson was hostess to the Dorcas society of the First Christian church. The church Women's Aid society met this afternoon in St. John's parish house and the Westminster Sewing society met in the chapel for work and a social hour.

Pretty Montrose Wedding. At the home of the bride's parents at Montrose on Tuesday evening, occurred the very pretty wedding of Miss Iva Megchelsen and Mr. Curtis Younklin. About ninety-five guests witnessed the ceremony uniting these two popular young people which was performed by Rev. H. B. McEiree of the United Presbyterian church of Keokuk. Promptly at 8:00 o'clock, the bridal party marched down the stairs to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Miss Maude Megchelsen, until they came to a canopy of green and white in one corner of the parlor. Roses, ferns and oak leaves were artistically arranged through the parlor and stairway. At the foot of the stairs was an arch of green and white. The bridal party consisted of Marlon Megchelsen and Ella Wright as ribbon bearers, Master Kenneth Wright as ring bearer, and the bride's attendant, Miss Sadie Megchelsen, who sang from the Lohengrin bridal chorus. The bride's dress was of chiffon tissue and lace, and lace veil caught up with lilies of the valley. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

A three course lap supper was served in the dining room. The color scheme of yellow and white was used. The dining table was prettily decorated with sun-burst roses and smilax. Yellow and white candelabra on the four corners of the table added much to the beauty of the room. On leaving the dining room each guest received a place of the bride's cake, wrapped and tied in white. The bride and groom left that evening on their wedding trip to Niagara Falls, driving to Fort Madison in a car and taking the Santa Fe to Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. Younklin will be at home after October first, at their house, one and one-half miles northwest of Montrose.

Grain Review.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] CHICAGO, Sept. 18.—Strength of the wheat market was emphasized today when the three leading grain centers, Chicago, Minneapolis and Duluth absorbed a heavy run of 2,000,000 bushels while prices here went higher instead of making the expected decline. There was no forenoon trading in September futures but at noon D-camber and May were 1/4 to 1/8 over last night's figures. Corn was easier at the start under

Duke of Northumberland. Henry George Percy, seventh duke of Northumberland, is the largest landowner in England. His estates stretch almost from sea to sea, and he can ride 100 miles and not once leave his own domain. In appearance he is tall and thin, with reddish hair and flowing whiskers.
