The Warsaw Gate City

Warsaw, Ill., Sept. 23, 1914.

Warsaw baseball club is proud of the record made Sunday, in the game at Keokuk, and Warsaw fans are proud too; there were 750 people at the game; Warsaw sent two carloads. The mission feast at St. John's Evangelical church was one of the best attended and most successful, in a spiritual as well as in a social and financial way in the history of the congregation. Five ministers took part in the festival. Six strong, interesting and helpful addresses were delivered and well received. Rev. A. Ernst, of Keokuk, spoke about the longing of the people of India for the truth of the gospel of Christ. Rev. Ustike in an enthusiastic way urged the vast audience to hearty co-operation in the great service for the prince of peace. Rev. W. Kreis of Donnellson, referred to the great aim of missions; the spiritual regeneration of all races. Rev. K. Brunn discussed the unfavorable influence of the European war upon the progress of the world-wide missions. The collections amounted to over $108.00. The collections, through free will offerings, have been steadily increasing from year to year, thus indicating that the religious life of the congregation has become stronger, and the work of the church and its different branches has been blessed by the invisible head of the church. All the services were beautified by the well trained church choir under the direction of Mrs. E. Berlin. The festival, which gave entire satisfaction to all present, was closed by a short address of Rev. E. H. Jagdstein and the benediction by Rev. W. Kreis, of Donnellson.

went over to the state fair at Springfield, leaving Sunday morning in Mr. L.'s Ford auto, and arriving there at 3:30 p. m.; roads were fine. Superintendent J. P. Ingle, and Mr. Porter of the Keokuk Electric Co., were Warsaw visitors Tuesday. They were arranging with Manager Kuse to install thirty electric lights of 200 candle power each in place of those of 40 candle power each, now in use. These will be distributed on Main street from the levee to Sixth street, a special arrangement made by the celebration committee for the three days, September 29, 30, October 1. This increased light will make the street almost as light as day. Mr. and Mrs. John English of Hereford, Texas, arrived last night to attend the celebration. Mr. English formerly resided here with his parents and has not been here for over forty years. He is a son of Dr. English, an old settler of Warsaw. He is hale and hearty, has snowy white hair and mustache and bears his years gracefully. He was the center of a crowd of old friends this morning; he notes with pleasure the growth of our city. A number of "home comers" have arrived, the advance guard of hundreds that are expected. A handsome merry-go-round with flying horses, run by electric power, is being set up on Fifth and Main streets. The city council met in special session last night, and decided some important questions pertaining to the city's welfare. The button factory has closed for two weeks. The boys will take part in the industrial parade. Otis Goodenough, the photographer, arrived Saturday with his family, and will open his gallery next Saturday or not later than Monday.

the northeast of Verdun but this was checked and finally repulsed in a series of brilliant counter attacks by the French armies centered there. "No change of notice is noticeable along other lines of battle. The Germans hold the south of the Woivre district from Richcourt through Selcheprey to Le Rouville. "In Lorraine and the Vosges, the Germans have evacuated Nominy and Arracourt. "The enemy continues inactive in the Demevre region."

SUCCESS EXPECTED SOON.

[By Wm. Philip Simms, United Press Staff Correspondent.] PARIS, Sept. 23.—Success seems about to crown the efforts of the allies to break through the German right and force a retreat all along the line. The official news from the front states that the Germans have been driven back ten miles on the left and that the general enveloping movement continues with success. As interpreted by military experts here, the allies have succeeded in pushing General Von Kluck out of alignment with the balance of the German battle front and this will make it necessary for the other German armies to fall back or take chances of being enveloped themselves in turn. The losses, however, have been enormous. It is admitted that in the last ten days three times as many French and British have been killed as in the retreat movement toward the Paris forts and in the battle of the Marne. It has been desperate hand to hand fighting most of the time, and although the Germans are slowly being jammed back toward the border, every foot of the ground gained by the allies is at fearful cost. The only comforting note in the entire affair is the statement that the Germans are at least losing fully as many.

SOCIETY

Masons Give First Dance.

The fine ball room of the new Masonic temple was opened to the public for the first time last night. The occasion was the first of a series of informal dancing parties which will be given this winter under the auspices of the entertainment committee of the Masonic bodies. There was a large crowd in attendance last evening. The dance program which was played by Agne's full orchestra, consisted of one-steps, two-steps, waltzes, hesitations and Castle walks. Punch was served during the evening. The new ball room is a most attractive place, and is well adapted for the uses for which it was designed. The floor is roomy, and one of the attractive features is the air wing which gives ample room to everyone, and breaks the monotony of a square hall. The room is brilliantly lighted by artistically arranged, indirect light clusters. The walls and ceiling are of light finish with darker woodwork which forms a pleasing combination from a decorative standpoint. The committee which had charge of the dance last night was composed of Frank M. Jones, J. Albert Kiedaisch, Norman Kiedaisch, C. G. Meister, Roy Pemberton, Cyrus E. Phillips, Karl Schmidt and Thomas F. Talbot. Among the out of town guests who attended the dance were Miss Emily Reed Jones of Chicago and Mrs. Josephine Buss Dillon of Chicago.

Vote was Light. [United Press Leased Wire Service.] TRENTON, N. J., Sept. 23.—Slow returns from yesterday's primaries indicate practically all the democratic congressional delegation of Wilson men have been renominated. In Hudson county where Governor Fielder's forces were arrayed against those of Naval Officer Witten in the democratic primary, the result seems to be in doubt. The state leadership hinges upon the outcome. No comparative figures of total votes of the parties can be given at this time although it is known the vote was very light yesterday. This is partly ascribed to the fact that this party was without contests and the further fact that the bull moose in some cases has fused with democrats
