CHILD'S TONGUE BECOMES COATED IF CONSTIPATED

When cross, feverish and sick give "California Syrup of Figs."

Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely. A child simply will not stop playing to empty the bowels, and the result is they become tightly clogged with waste, liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated, then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver and bowels.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

Corn Before Reaper.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] LONDON, Oct. 7.—Men fell like corn before the reaper; a wounded lance sergeant in the king's own Yorkshire light infantry wrote home to his mother from the hospital ship, St. David. "Now it's over I must say the last few days have been horror, fighting all the time," he continued. "Our last action was the worst. I tell you truly I never expected to get out alive. The Germans must have lost thousands but they were ten to one we had to retire. The shrapnel and hail of lead and bullets, I see it all now, and I was one of the last to leave the field. I won't say more but I got a bullet in my right leg and kept on for twenty yards or more. I got a great piece of shrapnel shell in my neck—laid me senseless. I came to again and as I possessed ran through it all and made good. It's wonderful how you can run with a bullet through your leg. I have not been at it long but fellows say they saw more in the last four days than they did in three years in Africa. That's the truth. Ah, well! I'm not grumbling. I'm not disgraced or maimed like so many poor fellows, so let us rejoice over it all. Some of our engagements lasted thirteen hours, and the last—and worst—ten hours. So tired, must sleep."

SIMPLE WAY TO END DANDRUFF

Stop Falling Hair and Itching Scalp.

There is one sure way that has never failed to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, common liquid arvon from any drug store (this is all you will need), apply it at night when retiring, use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve, and entirely destroy, every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

If you value your hair, you should get rid of dandruff at once, for nothing destroys the hair so quickly. It not only starves the hair and makes it fall out, but it makes it stringy, straggly, dull, dry, brittle and lifeless, and everybody notices it.

JOHN L. HAUBERT DIED THIS MORNING

After a Long Illness, at the Family Home, at Seven O'clock This Morning.

WAS BORN IN KEOKUK

Was Reared and Educated in This City and Spent His Entire Life Here.

After a period of a number of months with an affliction which caused him much suffering, John L. Haubert, a respected resident of Keokuk from babyhood, passed away this morning at 7 o'clock, at the family home at 302 Exchange street.

Mr. Haubert was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Haubert, well known residents of the city, the father being prominent in the early day business of the city.

The deceased was born in Keokuk January 15, 1862, and was educated here, and was a prominent cigar manufacturer here for twenty-eight years. About six years ago he retired from active business.

Nearly a year ago the affliction which ended his life began to appear which developed in a short time into a dangerous tumor. About ten months ago he underwent an operation at Rochester, Minn., which proved only partially successful. It seems that a portion of the growth was successfully removed, and from the trouble which continued, he had been a patient sufferer ever since. Every treatment that was thought would give relief and the most attentive and careful nursing was given him, but month by month he grew gradually worse and about a week ago he was compelled by the weakening effect of the disease to take to his bed from which he never recovered.

John Haubert had a wide acquaintance in the city where he was born and reared and counted hosts of friends by whom he was universally respected and liked. He was quiet and unassuming in his associations, but was at all times agreeable and companionable. He will be sadly missed in the circle with which he was associated and in which he was a favorite. In religious faith he was a Catholic, a member of St. Mary's.

KEOKUK IN DOCK FOR SOME REPAIRS

Quincy Agent Worries When Black Hawk Falls to Make Trip There Yesterday.

Quincy Herald: The steamer Black Hawk of the White Collar line failed to appear at the local steamboat landing this morning. This was the date for the Black Hawk to come here, and when it did not arrive, the agent, Capt. A. H. Penoyer, telephoned Keokuk to find out what was wrong. All that he learned was that the Black Hawk had come down Monday from Burlington as usual, but instead of coming to Quincy today, the boat had gone back up the river. The Keokuk, which left here Monday afternoon for the north, went into the dry dock at Keokuk this morning to have her hull recaulked, morning to have her hull longer than as it is to be in service longer than any of the other boats, and the dry dock will probably be full by the time the Keokuk is ready to retire time for the winter. The Black Hawk need not go into the dry dock until ready to go into winter quarters. That boat may continue in the packet service only a short time longer.

Louisville Courier Journal: Wholesale grocers attribute the jump in the price of sugar to panicky housewives who have bought by the barrel instead of by the pound. It might be a likely story if any considerable portion of housewives could buy by the barrel.

DEATH OF A. LARSON THIS FORENOON

Well Known Citizen of the West End Passed Away After Several Months of Ill Health.

WAS BORN IN DENMARK

Came to Keokuk Many Years Ago. Was Married Here About Sixteen Years Ago.

Andrew Larson, a well known and respected citizen of Keokuk, died at his home 1712 Reid street, at 11 o'clock this morning after a long continued illness. He had been in bad health for about eleven months which resulted in complications and he was finally taken to his bed about four weeks ago from which he never arose, and died peacefully at the hour named.

Mr. Larson was born in Denmark forty-one years ago last March. He came to this county and to Keokuk when a young man, and in this city sixteen years ago, November 24, last, was married to Miss Maud Burgess who survives him with three children, Victor, Dorothy and LeRoy. He is also survived by his father, Bechtel Larson, one brother, Lawrence Larson of St. Louis; four sisters, Miss Dorothy Larson, Mrs. Willis Munday and Miss Mattie Larson, both of Denver, Colo., and Mrs. Dr. Burgess of Caruthersville, Mo.

Mr. Larson was a man of exemplary habits, a devoted husband, a kind father and an obliging neighbor. He was a member of the Second Presbyterian church and was earnest and active in the performance of every religious duty. He had hosts of friends who mourn with the bereaved family over this good citizen taken from a wide circle in the midst of which he was always warmly welcomed.

Arrangements for the funeral had not been completed.

Mrs. Carman's Trial.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 7.—Mrs. Florence C. Carman, accused of the murder of Mrs. Louise Bailey, will be a witness to save herself from the electric chair when the trial begins here next week. She is expected to be the star witness for the defense and rumors that she will tell a remarkable story, are in the air.

Her husband declares she will face the jury fearlessly, although she is naturally a little nervous at this time.

"She is brave in the knowledge that she is innocent and fortified by the facts which we will present to prove her innocence," said Dr. Carman today.

As a part of the prosecution's evidence, District Attorney Lewis J. Smith will introduce dairy, alleged to have been kept by Mrs. Carman, in which she recorded the dictograph conversations between the doctor and his women patients.

GROWING COTTON IN KEOKUK IS LATEST

Two Healthy Plants Full of Pods are Thriving in Yard of Local Hotel.

Judging from the looks of two healthy plants, growing in the shadow of a building, Keokuk could go into the cotton business. In the yard of the Hotel Royal are two specimens of cotton plants which are loaded with pods, some of them already bursting open with the snowy fibers inside of them.

The seed was sent from Savannah last spring and was put into the ground. It is thought the long hot summer may have materially helped in the growth of this product.

STATE PRESENTING ITS SIDE OF CASE

Trial of Joseph H. Tucker is Occupying District Court Today and Will Last Several Days.

POLICE OFFICERS TALK

Chief Kenney and Officer Wilson Tell of Going to Tucker's Store Last November.

A jury was secured yesterday afternoon and the opening statements by the county attorney and Tucker's attorney were made in the case of the State of Iowa vs. Joseph H. Tucker. The jury is composed of Ira Jones, P. Trump, Ed Atterberg, M. B. Johnson, Clyde Aiton, Everett Garrison, J. T. Heddon, J. H. Justice, Phillip Finn, S. B. Stahl, Fred Thon and Harvey Van Ausdall.

The defense has a long list of witnesses for the trial. Several of them will be character witnesses, it is understood. At the time of the preliminary of Tucker last November a number of character witnesses were used. The state's witnesses who were on the stand this morning were J. E. Jones and William McLaughlin, bridge tender at the Des Moines river bridge, and John M. Kenney, chief of police. They told about going into Tucker's store, and about the shooting as they knew of it.

Thos. Wadden was the first witness called this afternoon. He said that the relations of Tucker and Redmon when both men were sober, was friendly. An attempt was made by the state to show that Tucker had, at one time, made a threat against the water power men, but objections which were sustained by the court overruled this question.

William Wilson, police officer, followed Wadden. He said the gun looked like the one Tucker gave him and was shown some pictures and a diagram of the store. He was asked to tell what Tucker said about the shooting. He said that Tucker told him that Redmon came into the store and woke him up and that they went into the barn and came back into the store. He said Tucker claimed Redmon abused him, and that he ordered him out of the store. He said that when he failed to go he got his revolver from the shelf and when Redmon struck him in the mouth, pulled the trigger.

There are a number of witnesses for both sides to be examined. Redmon's widow occupies a seat in the courtroom inside the railing. Mrs. Tucker, the wife of the defendant being a witness, is not in the courtroom.
