

BRAVES FIGHT WAY TO WORLD'S CHAMPIONSHIP

Win Fourth Straight Game From Philadelphia Athletics by Routing Shawkey.

RUDOLPH WINS AGAIN

Shawkey and Pennock Used by Connie Mack in Last Desperate Effort to Cop Series.

Final Score 3 to 1

FENWAY PARK, BOSTON, Oct. 13.—The Boston Braves this afternoon won the world's championship. They defeated the Athletics by a score of 3 to 1 and thus performed the unprecedented feat of winning a world's series in four straight games. With this feat they earned more than ever their title of the Miracle Men. Having risen from the bottom to the top of the National league, between July and September, the great victory of the Braves is a fitting climax to the most wonderful season of baseball a team ever enjoyed. To two pitchers goes the credit for the defeat of the Athletics. Rudolph and James get the credit for the quartet of victories. Both of Rudolph's were clean out, his last coming today. James, in the second game Saturday, holding Philadelphia to two hits. He then got credit for yesterday's win, relieving Tyler when the score was tied. From start to finish, the Braves have out-hit, out-gamed, out-generalized and out-guessed the Athletics. Their infield overshadowed the famous $100,000 infield of Connie Mack. Connie Mack showed everything he had, and lost. He relied on his vets Bender and Plank in the first two games and they fell. Then he turned to the youngsters and Bush went down yesterday and Shawkey and Pennock today. The Braves took their game away this afternoon in the fifth inning after two men were out. Rudolph started the rally which won his own game with a single.

FENWAY PARK, BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 13.—Overcoats and steamer rugs were in order this afternoon when the Braves and Athletics took the field for the fourth game of the world's series. The sun was shining but there was little warmth in its rays, and a raw wind swept the field. The Braves arrived at 12:30 and started batting practice for the tussle which they hoped would bring them the world's title. The Athletics appeared somewhat later.

The dazed Mackian forces were given a royal welcome by the fans who were already in the stands. By 1 o'clock there were about 12,000 in the outfield bleachers. The majority were bundled up in overcoats. Those who were not, shivered and shook in the face of the cold breeze. During the Braves batting practice, Hank Gowdy got his eye on the left field bleachers and showed that he still had his long distance range finder working by slamming the ball in among the fans. Each Brave player was given a hand as he stepped up to the plate for his preliminary work. The Braves practiced on right handed shots of Tom Hughes in anticipation of Bender.

Connie Mack Silent.

The Big Chief said this morning that his arm was in the best of shape and he believed he was right. Connie Mack, however, would admit nothing except there was going to be a ball game. One of his remaining youngsters was therefore a possibility though Bender was considered the most likely selection. The grand stands filled up slowly but it was expected that the crowd this afternoon would probably beat 30,000. The Athletics also hammered at right handed shoots during the batting practice. In preparation for Rudolph. Oldring was yet to get a hit in the series, planted one in the left field bleachers but the Brave fans did not appear frightened by this threat from the Rube. As this is the last game from which the players get any share of the spoils, a big crowd means extra dollars to them. The national commission and the clubs split up the money for the remaining games, if there are any.

Royal Rooters Parade.

It was 1:45 when the Royal Rooters appeared, headed by their band, paraded half way across the field and then swarmed into their seats. Former Mayor Fitzgerald led them as usual but he evidently did not think the mere beating of the Athletics and taking the world's championship as formal an occasion as other games have been. Fitzgerald was without his two gallon hat and cut away for the first time. A soft hat and business suit sufficed. The Athletics were extremely earnest in every move they made during their practice. It was 'do or die' for them today. Their chances are extremely slim should they win and defeat means they join the other dethroned champions of this dope-upsetting year.

Rudolph was the only Brave pitcher warming while Boston was having infield practice. When the Athletics took the field, Shawkey warmed up for Connie Mack. He was putting lots of stuff on the balls thrown to Lapp. Ira Thomas stood by for a time and watched his work.

FIRST INNING.

Philadelphia—Murphy out, Evers to Schmidt. Oldring fouled to Gowdy. The high wind carried the ball back away from the plate, but Hank got under it and made a sterling catch. Collins singled to center. Baker flied to Whitted.

No runs, one hit, no errors.

Rudolph disposed of the first two men on five pitched balls. He used but ten for the side and pitched but two called balls. Collins rapped a low one outside for his hit.

Boston—Moran out, Baker to McInnis. Moran tried to work Shawkey for a pass but couldn't resist the temptation to swing at a good one. Evers out, Baker to McInnis on the first ball pitched. Connolly flied to Oldring.

No runs, no hits, no errors.

Shawkey was going good. He pitched three straight balls to Moran, but then settled and disposed of the side on nine pitched balls.

SECOND INNING.

Philadelphia—McInnis out, Deal to Schmidt. Deal making a great one-handed stop and a perfect throw to first from a hard angle. Walsh doubled against the fence in left. Barry out. Maranville to Schmidt, a fast and snappy play by the Rabbit, Walsh being held at second. Schang fanned.

No runs, one hit, no errors.

Connolly made a great try for Walsh's double. He jumped high in the air for the ball, but it glanced off his glove. Rudolph used his slow ball to advantage. Schang fairly broke his back, swinging at them.

Boston—Whitted lined to Oldring. It was a terrific drive, but Oldring ran forward and made a thrilling catch. Schmidt out, Shawkey to McInnis. He hit the ball on the nose, but straight at the pitcher. Gowdy walked, Shawkey gave him wide ones, fearing one of those long drives into the stands. Maranville forced Gowdy, Barry to Collins.

No runs, no hits, no errors.

By this time all stands were jammed. The crowd appeared as big as that of yesterday. It was so cold, errors in the field were expected. Shawkey stopped in this inning to warm his hands by rubbing them.

THIRD INNING.

Philadelphia—Shawkey fanned on three straight strikes, the only three balls Rudolph pitched. Murphy out, Deal to Schmidt. Deal caught the ball right over the sack and it took a beautiful throw to get his man. Oldring hit to center on the first ball pitched. His first hit of the series, Collins up. Oldring out stealing. Gowdy to Maranville.

No runs, one hit, no errors.

Gowdy's throw to second, nipping Oldring, was a perfect peg. Rube sild but Maranville was waiting for him.

Boston—Deal flied to Oldring on the first ball pitched. It was an easy chance. Rudolph out, Barry to McInnis. It was an easy roller which Barry handled practically without effort. Moran out, Barry to McInnis.

No runs, no hits, no errors.

Shawkey continued to turn back the Braves in order. But ten men had faced him up to this time and Gowdy was the only man to get on base.

FOURTH INNING.

Philadelphia—Collins pu. Out Evers to Schmidt. Johnny found Collins' chance pie for him. Baker shot a single down the first base line which was too hot for Schmidt. McInnis singled to left, Baker going to third. McInnis out trying for second, Connolly to Deal to Evers. McInnis hit the first ball pitched. Walsh fanned.

No runs, two hits, no errors.

At this time the Athletics had nicked Rudolph for five hits. This was as many as they got in the entire first game against him, but runs were lacking.

Boston—Evers walked. Shawkey's control deserted him. Connolly out. Collins to McInnis. Collins had a double play before him, but fumbled momentarily and Evers reached second. Whitted singled to Collins. Evers reaching third. Whitted's raps were too hot for Eddie to handle. Schmidt up. The Athletics infield held a strategy meeting with Shawkey. Schmidt out, Barry to McInnis. Evers scoring and Whitted taking second. Gowdy out, Shawkey to McInnis.

One run, one hit, no errors.

Shawkey's sudden wavering in this inning came as a surprise. He was wild, however, pitching them every place but over the pan. To gain control he had to resort to straight ones.

FIFTH INNING.

Philadelphia—Barry singled, the ball bouncing over Deal's head. It was his first hit of the series. Schang out, Evers to Schmidt, Barry reaching second. Shawkey doubled to left center, scoring Barry. It was a beautiful drive between Moran and Whitted and would have been a home run on an open field. Murphy out, Evers to Schmidt, Shawkey taking third. Oldring fanned.

One run, two hits, no errors.

Rube was swinging like a pendulum at the spitter. The Athletics have collected seven hits up to this time.

Boston—Maranville out, Barry to McInnis. He hit the first ball pitched. Deal out, Baker to McInnis. Deal got Shawkey in the hole at the start by working him for three straight. Rudolph singled to center on the first ball. It was a corking line drive.

Moran doubled to left center, Rudolph reaching third. Evers singled to center, scoring Rudolph and Moran. It was a wicked drive that shot past Shawkey like a shell shot from a German cannon. Connolly up. Strike one called. Evers was caught off first and retired, Shawkey to McInnis.

Two runs, three hits, no errors.

The Braves crossed Shawkey. Rudolph and Moran hit the first ball pitched. Shawkey had been trying to put this ball over because of the uncertainty of his control.

SIXTH INNING.

Philadelphia—Collins out, Maranville to Schmidt. A real wonderful play. The ball shot over second base but Maranville got in back of the bag and scored a great assist. Baker fouled to Deal. McInnis out, Maranville to Schmidt.

No runs, no hits, no errors.

With their two-run lead the Braves' infield showed renewed pep and flashed brilliantly. Collins' smash over second would have been a hit also times out of ten. Maranville making a seemingly impossible play on the ball. Pennock was called in to replace Shawkey for the Athletics. Three runs and four hits off Shawkey in five innings.

Boston—Mann bats in place of Connolly. Mann lined to Walsh. Whitted singled over third. Schmidt singled through Collins. Whitted reached third. Gowdy fanned. Looking at a called third strike which appeared to be high and inside the plate. Maranville up. Ball one. On an attempted double steal, Schmidt was run down, Schang to Collins to McInnis.

No runs, two hits, no errors.

Mann went to left field in place of Connolly for the Braves. Pennock looked decidedly unsteady until he showed his stuff by whiffing Gowdy.

SEVENTH INNING.

Philadelphia—Walsh walked. Barry up. Strike one. Strike two, foul. Walsh took second on a wild pitch. Barry fanned and Walsh was doubled at second. Gowdy to Evers, a very fast and brilliant play. Schang fanned.

No runs, no hits, no errors.

Welsh got the surprise of his life when he was nipped at second on Barry's strike out. The stands roared with delight at the Braves' exhibition.

Boston—Maranville up. Ball one. Maranville out, Collins to McInnis. Deal out, Baker to McInnis. Rudolph walked. Moran fouled to Baker.

No runs, no hits, no errors.

Philadelphia—Pennock out, Evers to Schmidt, on first ball. Murphy flied to Mann. It was a beautiful running catch. Oldring flied to Evers.

No runs, no hits, no errors.

Boston—Evers fanned. Mann out, Collins to McInnis. Whitted walked. Schmidt up. Whitted stole second. Whitted went to third on a passed ball. Schmidt fanned.

No runs, no hits, no errors.

NINTH INNING.

Philadelphia—Collins fanned. He swung hard at the last one. Baker out, Evers to Schmidt. McInnis out, Deal to Schmidt.

No runs, no hits, no errors.

A PROMINENT CITIZEN GIVE OUTLET HERE

Who Took Great Pride in Working For and With His Veteran Comrades of the CIVIL War.

Many veterans of the civil war and friends in Keokuk and throughout the state who knew Major Loren S. Tyler, of wide acquaintance and prominence, will be pained to learn that his death occurred today at Los Angeles, Cal., where he was spending the winter at his home in that city. Major Tyler as soldier, citizen and a veteran of the civil war, and prominent in business and social circles in Keokuk, was highly esteemed as a man of much value to the community, and was an earnest and enthusiastic member of the Grand Army of the Republic and did much toward the progress of that organization. Every veteran and citizen who knew Major Tyler had the highest regard for him and will grieve to hear of his unexpected death, and will extend to his bereaved wife their heartfelt sympathy and condolence.

A more extended obituary of Major Tyler will be printed tomorrow.

SMELTER COMPANY AGENT IS IN CITY

Has Been Looking Over Ground and Confering With Local People.

C. P. Hudson, one of the eastern representatives of the Johnson Electric Smelting company which will locate in Keokuk, has been in the city for several days, looking over the ground, and confering with the local officials of the power company in the matter. Machinery for the plant has arrived from Hartford and there are some cars of ore here, which will be used when the plant is running.

NO DEVELOPMENTS IN ALEXANDRIA CASE

Nothing New Has Been Learned Aside From the Facts Known Yesterday.

No new developments were recorded today in the mysterious disappearance of the Alexandria woman, who was last seen on the south side of the Des Moines river bridge on Sunday. Nothing has been heard from the matter and there seems little inclination on the part of the relatives of the people concerned to take the initiative in searching out the case.

BAILEY CHANGES PLEA TO GUILTY

Man Charged with Robbery Admits His Guilt This Afternoon When Court is Called.

William Bailey, who was placed on trial this morning in the district court on a charge of robbery, pleaded guilty this afternoon. Bailey was accused of being implicated in the robbery at Ham Inman's grocery store in July. A jury had been empaneled, and the court was ready for the opening statements of the attorneys this afternoon, when a conference of attorneys was held, and resulted in the announcement that Bailey would plead guilty.

St. Francisville People Are Enthusiastic Over Knight's Project and Are Promised Bridge.

St. Francisville people are enthusiastic over the prospects of being one of the stations on the Keokuk-Jefferson City electric road, which H. W. Knight of Chicago, is promoting. At a meeting held there last week, they decided to raise funds for the preliminary survey and the work which must be done before any of the real work can be commenced. The vicinity is practically a unit for the proposed railroad.

One of the reasons for the enthusiasm of the St. Francisville people is the promise of a bridge which will give them an outlet. While St. Francisville is inland from the river, still they have been trying for some time to secure a bridge across the Des Moines river which will give them an outlet.

When the interurban project was proposed to them, they asked for a bridge. Mr. Knight, it is understood, has included in his plans for the bridge which will carry the trolley tracks, a wagon bridge in addition.

This bridge would be of great benefit to Keokuk as well as to the people in the Missouri town. It will give Keokuk a chance to extend her trade limits, and the St. Francisville people, it is said by those who know, will gladly embrace the opportunity to reach here in a direct way.

The meeting which was held last week, was a most enthusiastic one. It was explained that a preliminary survey and the right of way option and the like must be secured and money was needed. To meet the demands of this preliminary work the St. Francisville people subscribed a fund. They asked only that they be assured a bridge which will give them an outlet.

The people of St. Francisville seem to have taken hold of the project in a most enthusiastic way, and they are endorsing the project.

HIS ACCOUNTS IN PERFECT CONDITION

State Secretary Woods Left Good Record in His Office Before Death.

[United Press Leased Wire Service.] SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Oct. 13.—Official defalcation did not cause Secretary of State Harry Woods to take his life. State Auditor Brady, who yesterday began an investigation of the accounts of the secretary's office, following the discovery of the body in the garage at his home, at noon today, declared that the accounts were perfectly straight. The quarterly report of receipts of the office up to September 30 was found to have been completed by Woods and was ready for delivery.

Mr. F. Dunlap, president of the Dunlap, Russell and Company bank at Jacksonville, conferred with the auditor and Governor Dunne today, and stated that the funds on deposit in the bank, corresponded with the accounts found by the auditor and that the funds were ready on the state's demand. The coroner's jury which held an inquest over the body of the state secretary this morning, returned a verdict that he came to his death from a gunshot wound inflicted by his own hand while temporarily deranged.

Worry over several causes were shown to have contributed to his unsettling. Friends assign disappointment over his defeat for the senatorial nomination, worry over the defective eyesight of his little daughter, Mabel, the condemning of a building he owns in Chicago in which are located the office of an automobile department, and possibly losses on the Chicago grain board.

Governor Dunne today appointed Louis G. Stevenson, of Bloomington, son of the former vice president, Adlai E. Stevenson, and now member of the state board of pardons, to succeed Woods as secretary of state.
